HE MELE LAHUI HAWAII.

THE HAWAIIAN NATIONAL ANTHEM.

1. Almighty Father bend Thine ear,
   And 'list a nation's prayer,
   That lowly bows before Thy throne,
   And seeks Thy fostering ware.

   Grant Thou peace thro'out the land,
   O'er these sunny, sea-girt Isles,
   Keep the nation's life, oh Lord,
   And upon our Sovereign smile.

Chorus: Grant Thou Thy Peace, thro'out the land,
   O'er these sunny, sea-girt Isles,
   Keep the nation's life, oh Lord,
   And upon our Sovereign smile.

2, Guard him with Thy tender care,
   Give him length of years to reign,
   On the throne his fathers won,
   Bless the nation once again.
   Give the King Thy loving grace,
   And with wisdom from on high,
   Prosperous lead his people on,
   As beneath Thy watchful eye.

Chorus: Grant Thou Thy peace, etc.

3. Bless oh Lord our country's chiefs,
   Grant them wisdom so to live,
   That our people may be saved,
   And to Thee the glory give,
   Watch Thou O'er us day by day,
   King and people with thy love,
   For our hope is all in Thee,
   Bless Thou us who reign'st above.

At the request of His Majesty Kamehameha V.
for a Hawaiian National Anthem, Liliuokalani composed the above.
November 3, 1863.

THE LORD'S MERCY.

Oh, Lord Thy loving mercy,
Is high as the heavens,
It tells us of Thy truth,
And 'tis filled with holiness.

Whilst humbly meditating,
Within these walls imprisoned,
Thou art my light, my haven,
Thy glory my support.

3.

Oh, look not on their failings,
Nor on the sins of men,
Forgive with loving kindness,
That we might be made pure.

4.

For Thy grace I beseech Thee,
Bring us 'neath Thry protection,
And peace will be our portion,
Now and for ever more, Amen.

(NOTE:) Composed during my imprisonment at Iolani Palace, March 22nd. 1895, by the Missionary party who overthrew my Government.
By Liliuokalani, lovingly dedicated to her niece Victoria Kaiulani.

FAREWELL TO THEE.

1. Proudly swept the rain by the cliffs,
As on it glided through the trees,
Still following ever the Liko,
The Ahii Lehua of the vale.

Chorus: Farewell to thee, farewell to thee,
Thou charming one who dwells in shaded bowers,
One fond embrace e'er I depart,
Until we meet again.

2. Thus sweet memories come back to me,
Bringing fresh remembrance of the past,
Dearest one, yes, thou art mine own,
From thee true love, shall ne'er depart.

Chorus: Farewell to thee, etc.

3. I have seen and watched thy loveliness,
Thou sweet Rose of Maunawili,
And 'tis there the birds oft love to dwell,
And sip the honey from thy lips.

Chorus: Farewell to thee, etc.

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE.

1. All hail to thee, great Queen of England,
   Fair Queen who rul'st o'er land and sea,
   From Northern seas to Southern shores,
   Thy sway is known both far and near.
   We come to thy shores most gracious Lady,
   On this great day of thy Jubilee,
   To bring kind greetings from afar,
   May heaven bless thee, long may'st thou reign,

2. All hail, all hail, Empress of India,
   In this thy year of Jubilee,
   Now Kings and Queens and Princes great,
   Have all assembled here today.
   To pay due homage and reverent love,
   Hawaii joins with loyal fervor,
   May heaven shed her smiles on thee,
   God bless the Queen, long may she live.

SPARKLING SPRING WATER.

1. From sparkling spring the water clear,
Glide on so smoothly o'er the lea,
Of deepest blue without compare,
Roll on without a rippling wave.

Chorus: Then tarry I pray thee,
Thou waters of Lohia to cool this fevered brow,
I'd quaff and sip thee,
Thou sparkling waters of the lea.

2. As Hiku with snowy wreath reclined,
From Lihau's heights espied the spring,
Forth hastened down her thirst to lave,
From the sparkling waters of the lea.

THE FLOWERS OF KOOLAU.

1. The flowers of Koolau in their beauty,
   Fill the vale full with golden gleam,
   I cull and wreathe them for my lov'd one,
   At morn and night she fills my waking dream,
   Where art thou fairest of all fair ones?
   Where art thou sweetest of all sweets?
   A flower of Paradise thou seemest,
   That the morning breeze ever kindly greets.

2. I praise thy beauty, thou my fair one,
   Thou the flower art of flowers to me,
   The lehua of Lihau whose sweetness,
   O'erpowers the wand'rer o'er the lea,
   And I cry, where art thou my loved one,
   My spirit would dwell with thee,
   To taste hours of tranquil pleasure,
   And wander 'neath Koiahi's tree.

3. The thrilling notes of hidden songsters,
   As they sport round the jasmine bower,
   Whose odor yet in mem'ry lingers,
   Reminds of thee, the fairest flower,
   Of Wiliau, the sweetest blossom,
   Without thee, my life is lone,
   Come fill my hours with bliss, I pray thee,
   My flower, my bird, my chief and chosen one.

A PRAYER.

1. Bend Thine eyes on us Oh Lord,
   We Thy humble servants,
   Who Thy grace beseeceth,
   And Thy loving care.

2. Feed us all we pray Thee,
   With the heavenly manna,
   Ever may Thy Spirit
   Purify our hearts.

3. May Thy loving watchfulness,
   Guard us from all danger,
   Graciously bestowing,
   Comfort and peace.

4. Now for all these bounties,
   Praise we give to Thee,
   In the name of the Father,
   Son and Holy Ghost.

Amen.

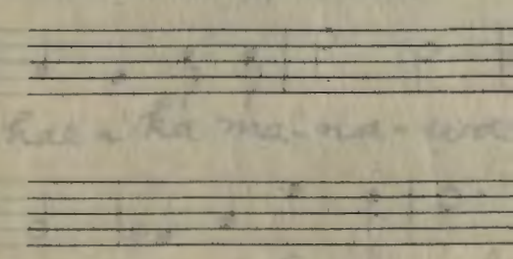
14th verse.



A CHANT.

1. If a man die, shall he live again?
   All the days of my appointed time will I wait,
   Till my change come.

2. For there is hope of a tree if it be cut down,
   That it will sprout again,
   And that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

3. Though the roots thereof wax old in the earth,
   Yet through the scent of water it will bud,
   And bring forth boughs like a plant.

4. But man dieth and wasteth away,
   Yea, man giveth up the ghost,
   And where, oh where is he.

5. As the waters fail from the sea,
   So man lieth down and riseth not,
   Till the heavens be no more.

6. Oh, that Thou wouldst hide me in the grave,
   That Thou wouldst keep me in secret, till Thy wrath be past,
   That Thou wouldst appoint me a set time, and remember me.

7. For I know that my Redeemer liveth,
   And that he shall stand in the latter day upon the earth,
   And though destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God.

Amen.

In the days of the old chiefs, of Hawaii, it was customary on hearing that a high chief was to pass through Puna, for the people of the district to bring the Lehua blossoms to the flats where short rushes grew in the ditches by the roadside, called Makaloa, There is no water in this part of the country, except, such as is found in little pools after passing showers. Each Lehua flower is broken from its stem and stuck on each single spear of the grass, until a pool is covered with the bright red blossoms. Another and another follow the example till quite a distance is covered, then the people withdraw into the woods where they would not be seen. In those days, Puna was thickly populated, and it only took a few minutes to accomplish this. Then the distinguished travellers would stop with their train and drink of these waters, fill their calabashes and passon. While in the act of stooping to drink, the Lehua blossoms would pierce the eyelashes of the one who drank of the water. It was considered very poetical and the waters were called Waikoolihilihi. The High Chiefess Keohokalole, (mother of the composer Liliuokalani,) was the last who ever had this distinction shown her by the people in Puna, having thus been honored in the year 1866.

I HAVE SOUGHT THEE MY BELOVED.

1. I have sought thee my beloved,
   In the forest's deep, deep glen,
Oh tell me where thou dwellest,
   Canst thou not tell, sweet zephyr fair.

Answer: I did linger 'neath lily blossoms,
   Full blown lillies of the field,
Where the twilight dews had dropped their kisses,
   And left its fragrance, sweet oerfume.

2. I have sought thee my beloved,
   In the forest's deep, deep glen,
Oh tell me where thou dwellest,
   Canst thou not tell me balmy breath.

Answer: I did flit amongst the ginger blossoms,
   There I drank its odors, sweet perfume,
Where I listened to the song of the Kahuli,
   As it sang its plaint to Malio.

3. Fair companion of the wild woods,
   Of the forests of Olaa,
Oh be thou loyal to thy heart,
   Yield true allegiance, Iwa of Paliuli.

4. Sweet mem'ry ever fondly lingers,
   For thee my friend of youth's bright dreams,
So we sat and watched the mists float by,
   As o'er the Ohelo it dashed its sprays.

5. Let us roam through the beauties of Puna,
   And we twain drink the water Koolihilihi,
Sweet water rippling in the brooklets,
   And happiness shall ever be ours.

SAW BRITANNIA.

1. Oh, could I only see that clime,
   That land of wonders told,
Of fame and grace and beauties fair,
   Of great valor and strength and might.

Chorus: If I could only be there to see,
   'Twould be my thought's greatest desire,
To take a glimpse of Britain's greatness,
   How delightful, yes, such delight.

2. To dream and hope of pleasures rare,
   Of mingling forms of noble grace,
To breathe the cold and bracing air,
   And feel it softly fan my face.

WHERE ART THOU.

1. Oh where art thou lov'd one of my bosom,
   Friend of the twilight hour,
   My Mamo wreath to deck my brow at even',
   With Li'a swift moments speed in bliss.

Chorus: 'Tis then that my love thou'rt dearer to me,
   Like an arrow, love pierces my bosom,
   Ever dreaming of thee in the still moonlight,
   Or the cold and calm dewy night.

2. Yet hush, oh hush thee my darling,
   Yes, hark, there's danger nigh,
   With thee my thoughts shall ever dwell,
   For thee I'd brave the dangerous steep.

Chorus: 'Tis then that my loge, etc.

3. Fond memory shall e'er be thine,
   Ever beat this heart of mine,
   Fair one fail not to receive me,
   Or shall love be dewed with bitter tears.

Chorus: 'Tis then that my love, etc.

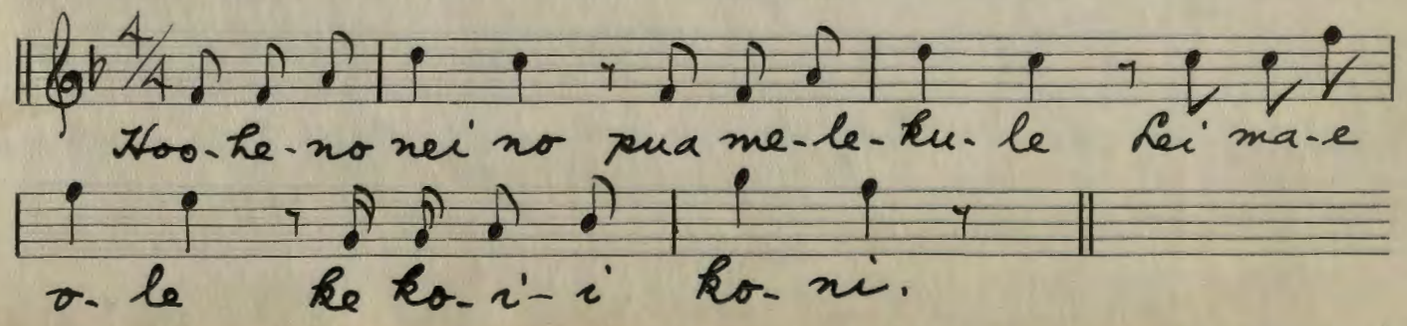
FOND DELIGHT.

A flowery tribut to Melekule,
  A wreath of bright and unfading flowers,
Oh, is it you dear, dear one I love,
  Come to my bosom, I'll give thee protection.

There's Maile Laulii of the deep wild wood,
  But Maile Kaluhea is my delight,
Oh do not gaze on the pua Kiele,
  'Tis a lovely flower but soon it fadeth.

Then turn thy bright eyes to the Libona,
  Gently its tendrils will twine around thee,
We call to thee, then answer give us,
  Pua Melekule is thy name.

Translated by Liliu:



SONG DELIGHT.

A flowery tribut to Melanie,
A wreath of bright and unfading flowers,
Oh, is it you dear, dear one I love,
Come to my bosom, I'll give thee protection.

There's Nelle Lanlit of the deep wild wood,
But Nelle Kalunes is my delight,
Oh do not pass on the yea Kiele,
'Tis a lovely flower but soon it fadeth.

Then turn thy bright eyes to the Ribone,
Gently its tendrils will twine around thee,
We call to thee, then answer give us,
Tua Melanie is thy name.

NOTES ON THE MUSIC COLLECTION OF QUEEN LILI'U-O-KA-LANI

Collected from the State Archives of Hawaii by Mr. Henry E.P. Kekahuna

---

From Mrs. Jennie K. Wilson

Page 5. Kijg Ka-lā-kaua's 50th birthday was in 1886, when I, Jennie Wilson, was 14 years and first danced before the King. The King was born Nov. 16, 1836. It was in 1887, I think, when they (The King and his party) went to Queen Victoria's Jubilee.

Page 6, 2. Me he lau-'I pala---, though you can say la-'I.
Ka pua o ka makahala is the hinano.
The Queen composed the song because of something that happened on the Wed.

Page 7. Ho'oho (Hui, Cho.), sing it together, all in time. Ho'oho like.
Unahe (not ua nahe). Unahe i ka poli Ka-wai-olohia. (Unahe, soft.). (For a man's bass voice.)
Lihau, a place in Kaua'i. Lihau, a little rain or sprinkle.

Page 8. Kupaoa (paoa) i ke 'ala. Ka maile lau-li'i o Ko'i-ahi, the small-leaved maile of the valley of Ko'i-ahi, in Wai-'anae.
'Aki-pohe, a native weed with a pretty yellowish flower that grew down at Wai-alua. It was used together with the small-leaved maile in leis.
Hale Aloha, a school for girls in Lahaina. Lahaina-luna was for boys.
Ho'oma'ū. Wiliau, some kind of weed, growing wild.

Page 10. Ke āno hali'ali'a.
One looks down into Mānoa Valley from the edge of Wa'a-hila. St. Louis is up on top of Wa'a-hila facing seaward.

Page 11. Kāunu. Kilihe'a, like a little rain, sometimes on and off. Anehe, ready to go, as to pick flowers, etc.

Page 12. He 'ala nei. 12 a. Halihali 'ala---.

Page 17. Ka-'ala'ala'a, a place somewhere. The name of the place where Ka-wanana-koa School is is Ka-'ala'a.
This song was just composed for the children of the Queen's retainers to sing. I know of no tutu for whom it was composed.

Page 18. Noua (nou 'ia), Noua 'ia ka ua. It kept on raining and raining.
Moa'e. Li-hu'e. Hali'a wale.

Page 19. 'I ka holo 'ia 'e ka wai. (Oia ka pololei.) Hu'ihu'i, cold. (Not hoihoi.)
Koa'e-koa (?) Ka-holo-kua-i-ioa (?)

Page 20. Hale Loke, the name given the home of someone.

Page 21. The 'Imi Au Iā 'Oe of today was composed by Prince Lele-iō-Hoku. Māli'o.

Lizzie Chapman, a half white, was a great friend of Princess Likelike. She became Mrs. Ah Chuck.

This song was composed that this

Page 26. Ulu-hai-mālama, where Queen Lili'u-o-ka-lani had a house of this name, where there is a graveyard mauka of where Ka-wanana-koa School is now.

This song was composed while the Queen was imprisoned. She told John Wilson that this song was composed in his honor, but he did not have this put on the copy with the Queen's picture on the outside. When the Queen spoke to him about it he said that he thought she had made a mistake.

The Queen had her home Paoa-ka-lani, a very nice grass-house at Wai-kīkī, for which a street in the locality is named.

John's mother, Mrs. Eveline Townsend Wilson, was a friend of the Queen from childhood. She sent John to Stanford University. John was raised partly at his nice big home on Pi'ikoi St., corner of Young St., and partly at Washington Place. When baby John's mother went out to Paoa-ka-lani or Washington Place she took the baby with her.

The song Paoa-ka-lani was composed in 1895.

Page 27. Kōhau-lani, the home of Kino-iki, Queen Ka-pi'o-lani's sister, I think at the corner of Young and Makiki Street. A first playground for children and field for sports was opened there.

2. Nānā a pau---. 3. Ua mā'ū.

Ka-pi'o-lani and her family, with her sisters, all lived in Ka-'ala'a, makai of Ulu-hai-mālama.

Page 31. 'E kala. I noticed or knew it a long time ago. Molo-lani. (?) This name recalled to mind Mu'o-lau-lani, one of Lili'u-o-ka-lani's homes in Pālama, before you got to a banyan near present Kau-maka-pili Church, on the mauka side of King Street after you pass Liliha Street.

1. Ho'oho. Ku'u li'a 'ana iā iā lā. 3. --- a ka lā i Ha'eha'e (a place in Puna, Hawaii). The sun goes down.

The 'i'iwi maka-polena has beautiful eyes.

Page 32. A ke nani ia, ae---. Welel-u, the tail end or end of something. The "tail end" of kissing on the cheeks.

Page 33. 'Apo lani. Ka 'ao noa (not no----a---). 2. --- ho'ali'i.

Lehau (piha) 'oe i ka makemake. Lehau is an old word used in chant rather than song.

Page 35. 2. Ke hiki mai nei (not ne'i) welawela. Ua luhi au ma'opa'opa, i'm very tired.

3. Paku'iku'i oloolo.

Page 37. Lakou nei a'e. 'Aī e, 'ai lu. 4. Ki'i na i'a. 'Aukū.

Page 38. Wahine (not wahune). Na-lani-'ehā-a-Ka-pa'akea, a name given to John Wilson by the Queen. It refers to Ka-lā-kaua, Lili'u, Likelike, and Lele-iō-Hoku.

Page 39. Hui. 'E ō----. 2. Think 'uī'uī ke 'ala (not 'uī).

3. Lanako'i. Lanako'i ka makemake. You like it; you want it.

Page 42. E kala (not A kala). Ke One o Kā-kuhihewa refers to all O-'ahu.

Page 45. Na nalu ehuehu. Ka 'a'ena (?). Chant language.

Page 53. Ku'iku'i. Hakuko'i, all boiling up. Nōhea. Kuikui, a form of kukui. 'Ane'ane, pretty near. Hakuko'i, run over or overflow as from a cup.

Page 54. Hanakeoki - Hancock - the name of one of the fast racing whaleboats of King Ka-la-kaua's time. He had the Hea-lani Boat House at the end of Kaka-'ako St. The Myrtle Boat House was on the outer side, and the big boat-building place of Lyle was on the other side. I. Hi'ona.

Ka-la-kaua was elected King in 1874. Lele-iō-Hoku was crown-prince but died when 28 years old. Lili'u-o-ka-lani, and Mrs. Cleghorn Ka-'iu-lani's mother, were made princesses. They received their titles through the Legislature. 3. 'Elo'elo.

Page 55. Maile pakaha, a big maile from Hilo. Maile ku-homua, from which leis were made, was young maile just coming up, without branches. The 4 mailes, maile ha'i-wale, which I think has a little smaller leaf than the maile pakaha, maile kaluhea (kalukalū may be used to make the word longer in song), and maile-lau-li'i, the smallest-leaved maile, supplied the names of four sisters of 'Ai-wohi-kupua in the romance of La-'ie-i-ka-wai, translated by Martha Beckwith. The youngest sister was Ka-hala-o-mapuana.

--I -Ola'a (the name slurs).

Page 56. Sanoe. I think this refers to feeling good (ke noenoe mai nei). 'Olu wau me he wai -ala (with slur). Likelike, an island steamer named after Princess Likelike. Kāpeka ('Elikāpeka, Elizabeth). A friend. She became Lizzie Ah Chuck when she married a Chinese.

Page 57. --- ka nāhele. Kilihau, very light sprinkle. Kilikilihau, just a little bit. Lili-lehua. Ka Ua Lili-lehua, the Palolo rain.

Page 58, 59. I ka newe ka'ao o ka hala. (?) Lihau (ka ua lihau pua, he ua kilihune). (Have heard Makani Lu-hau-pua in chant. (Kelsey)) Hunehune, li'ili'i loa, he ua lihau kelā.

Page 60. Ninipo (like ho'onipo), kind of dizzy. 'Iwi, short for 'i'iwi. Weo 'Ola'a. Cho. ha'a'ga (?) Nini'au (?). Pakalikali, try, try, and try. Huia, a surf near Moku-ola (Coconut Is.), Hilo. (Kelsey).

Page 62. Cho. Kālele. Pikaneki, "business." 2. 'Ele-pī. Mākila, where Judge Ka-ha'ule-lio's home was in Lahaina.
