For the lovely woodland and dells
Shall our fond songs ever be
For as the shades of even draw nigh
Bring cherished memories of thee.

2.

Chorus.

Noe wale mai noka nahele — How soft and sweetly fragrant the air
Heua ni-hi pa-li — In the deep blue woods where birds oft love to dwell
Luhe ka lau, o ka Palai — Thou oh Iwi iwa, bird with loveliest eyes
Elo i-ka U-a wa a hila — Come thou back to me, oh, never to part again.

2.

Now see the mist pass o'er the trees
Now closely press near the cliffs
Gracefully droops the leaf of the Palai
Laden with Crystals of the Waahila.
