Constitutional Mandate

The Office of the Auditor, pursuant to Article VII, Section 10 of the Hawai'i State Constitution, is required to conduct post-audits of the transactions, accounts, program and performance of departments, offices and agencies of the State and its political subdivisions, and to certify to the accuracy of all financial statements issued by the respective accounting officers.

Financial Audit of the Hawai'i Community Development Authority

Financial Statements, Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 2014

The primary purpose of the audit was to form an opinion on the fairness of the presentation of the financial statements for the Hawai'i Community Development Authority as of and for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2014. The audit was conducted by Ohata Chun Yuen LLP.

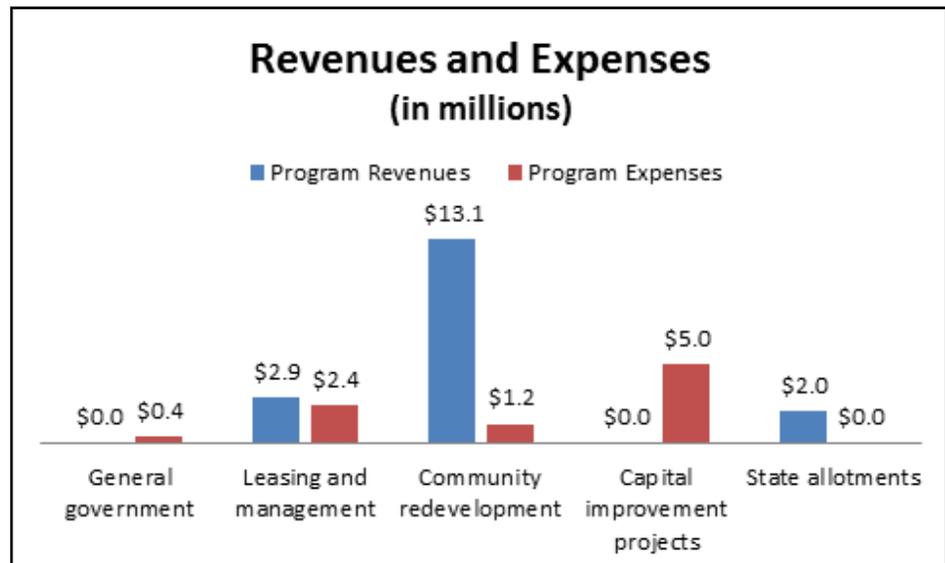

About the Authority

The Hawai'i Community Development Authority was established to supplement traditional community renewal methods by promoting and coordinating public and private sector community developments. The authority is tasked with planning for and revitalizing urban areas designated "community development districts," which are determined to be underused or deteriorating but with potential, once redeveloped, to address the needs of Hawai'i's people and to provide economic opportunities for the State of Hawai'i. The authority is administratively attached to the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism.

Financial Highlights

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2014, the authority's total revenues exceeded total expenditures by $9 million. Total revenues were $18 million, and expenses totaled $9 million. Revenues consisted of leasing and management of $3 million, community redevelopment of $13 million, and State appropriations net of lapses of $2 million.

The following graph illustrates a comparative breakdown of the authority's revenues and expenses.
