

Table 10.09-- MILITARY CONSTRUCTION APPROPRIATIONS BILL: 2010

[For fiscal year ending September 30. As approved by the U.S. Senate Appropriations Committee on July 7, 2009]

Subject	Amount (1,000's)
Construction projects in Hawaii	329,610
Air Force	15,910
C-17 Kona short auxiliary airfield (planning and design)	910
Wheeler Air Force Base - construct ASOC complex	15,000
Army	191,500
Schofield Barracks:	184,000
Vehicle maintenance shops 1/	99,000
Warrior in Transition barracks 2/	55,000
Warrior in Transition complex 2/	30,000
Wheeler Air Force Base - Regional SATCOM Information Center	7,500
Navy	79,567
Oahu - Range, 1000 – Puuloa	5,380
Pearl Harbor	74,187
Productive services support facility	30,360
APCSS Conference & Technology Learning Center	12,775
Missile magazines (5), West Loch	22,407
PACFLT Sub Drive-In MAG Silencing FAC	8,645
Air National Guard at Hickam Air Force Base	33,000
TFI – F-22 Low-Observable/Composite repair facility	26,000
TFI – F-22 parking apron and taxiways	7,000
Defense Information Systems Agency	9,633
Ford Island - Pacific operations facility upgrade	9,633

1/ One budgeted at $36 million and a second at $63 million.

2/ The Warrior in Transition Units help soldiers whose injuries or illnesses require complex medical care, and help them recover and return to duty or make the transition to civilian life. They include Soldier and Family Assistance Centers, and provide services, from assistance with ID cards to education and information on insurance and VA benefits.

Source: U.S. Senator Daniel K. Inouye News Release "Senate Appropriations Panel Approves $329 Million For Military Construction Projects In Hawaii" (July 9, 2009)

<<http://inouye.senate.gov/Press/upload/070909-FY10-MilCon-Markup-Release.pdf>> accessed July 10, 2009.