Table 1.14-- POPULATION AND PERCENTAGE CHANGE
RANKINGS: 2010 AND 2014 -- Con.

1/ MSA, Metropolitan Statistical Area; CDP, Census Designated Place, that is, an unincorporated urban place.

2/ Largest number ranking 1. Rankings for 2010 are based on the 2010 Census and reflect changes to the April 1, 2010 population due to the Count Question Resolution program and geographic program revisions.

3/ Ranking of the area in regard to 2010-2014 population percent change, greatest percent change ranking 1.

4/ The Urban Honolulu MSA consists of the City and County of Honolulu, comprising Oahu and the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands (except Midway). It was previously known as Honolulu MSA.

5/ Metropolitan Statistical Areas (MSAs) contains a core urban area of 50,000 or more population. There were 381 metropolitan statistical areas in 2014.

6/ The Kahului-Wailuku-Lahaina MSA consists of Maui County and Kalawao County.

7/ The City and County of Honolulu consists of Oahu and the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands (except Midway). There were 3,142 U.S. counties in 2014.

8/ Among all 749 incorporated places with over 50,000 population in 2014.

9/ The Honolulu CDP used to consist of Honolulu District, comprising the area between Red Hill and Makapuu Point, south and southwest of the crest of the Koolau Mountains, and the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands (except Midway). In 2010, this CDP was split into three separate CDPs - Urban Honolulu, East Honolulu, and Hickam (a portion of the new CDP).

10/ Among all 3,142 U.S. counties.

11/ In 2010, Kalawao County had the second lowest county population in the United States. The county with the lowest population was Loving, Texas with a population of 82. In 2014, Kalawao County again had the second lowest county population in the United States, with Loving Texas having the lowest population.
