INFORMATION FOR DOMESTIC LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY
Chapter 428, Hawaii Revised Statutes

Registered Agent

Section 428-107 provides that each domestic corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this State a registered agent who has a business address in this state. The registered agent shall be either an individual residing in this State or a domestic or foreign entity authorized to transact business in this State.

Section 428-108 provides that a domestic corporation may change its registered agent or registered agent's name, business address, or its type or jurisdiction of organization by delivering to the department director for filing a statement of change setting forth the particulars required by this section.

Section 428-109 provides that any registered agent in this State appointed by a domestic corporation may resign as the registered agent by signing and delivering a statement of resignation to the department director for filing. The registered agent shall promptly furnish the represented entity notice in a record of the date on which a statement of resignation was filed. The statement of resignation takes effect on the earlier of the thirty-first day after the day on which it is filed or the appointment of a new registered agent for the represented entity.

Member's Right to Information

Section 428-408 provides that a domestic limited liability company shall provide members and their agents and attorneys access to any of its records at reasonable locations specified in the operating agreement. The company shall provide former members and their agents and attorneys access for proper purposes to records pertaining to the period during which they were members. The right of access includes the opportunity to inspect and copy records during ordinary business hours. The company may impose a reasonable charge, limited to the costs of labor and material, for copies of records furnished.

A domestic limited liability company shall furnish to a member, and to the legal representative of a deceased member or member under legal disability: (1) without demand, information concerning the company's business or affairs reasonably required for the proper exercise of the member's rights and performance of the member's duties under the operating agreement or Chapter 428; and (2) on demand, other information concerning the company's business or affairs, except to the extent the demand or the information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper under the circumstances.

A member has the right, upon a signed record given to the domestic limited liability company, to obtain at the company's expense a copy of any operating agreement in record form.

Annual Report

Section 428-210 provides that an annual report shall be filed within the time periods prescribed in subsections (c) and (d) that read as follows:

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, annual reports reflecting the period from January 1, 2002, through December 31, 2002, that would otherwise be required, may be voluntarily filed with the department director if the annual report complies with the requirements of this section.

(d) Effective January 1, 2003, for a domestic or foreign limited liability companies whose date of organization or registration in this State falls between:

(1) January 1 and March 31, an annual report shall be filed on or before March 31 of each year and shall reflect the state of the company's affairs as of January 1 of the year when filed;

(2) April 1 and June 30, an annual report shall be filed on or before June 30 of each year and shall reflect the state of the company's affairs as of April 1 of the year when filed;

(3) July 1 and September 30, an annual report shall be filed on or before September 30 of each year and shall reflect the state of the company's affairs as of July 1 of the year when filed; and

(4) October 1 and December 31, an annual report shall be filed on or before December 31 of each year and shall reflect the state of the company's affairs as of October 1 of the year when filed; provided that if a domestic or foreign limited liability company is organized or registered in the same year in which the annual report is due, the domestic or foreign limited liability company shall not be required to file an annual report for that year. Thereafter, the domestic or foreign limited liability company shall comply with the requirements of this section.

A $15.00 fee must be paid upon filing of the report.

Reminders will be mailed to every company each year, and in order to assure receipt of the same, this department shall be notified in writing of any change of address. The address change notification must be signed by a manager of a manager-managed company or by a member of a member-managed company.

Section 428-1302 provides that failure to file the annual report within the prescribed time shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding $100.00 for each thirty-day period that the delinquency continues.

Section 428-809 provides that the director may terminate a domestic limited liability company administratively if the company has not, pursuant to Section 428-210, filed its annual report for a period of two years.
