

Akaku Maui Community Television
Programming Highlights
FY08

Complaints:

Commercial content – One complaint was received. The programs were reviewed for violation of commercial content rules. No violation was found, as the website that was being referred to did not actually offer commercial products (yet). A letter was sent to the producer reiterating our prohibition on commercial content as a warning against proceeding further with their intention to market products using Akaku's channels. No further action has been necessary.

Channel Outages:

There were no significant outages during the reporting period.
