ORDER

By Order No. 18127, filed on October 5, 2000 in this docket, certificate of public convenience and necessity no. 937-C (Certificate No. 937-C), held by SHOJI NAGAMINE (Petitioner) was placed on inactive status for one year, until October 5, 2001.

By Order No. 18954, filed on October 23, 2001, Certificate No. 937-C was placed on inactive status for an additional year, until October 5, 2002.¹

By letter received by the commission on September 24, 2002, Petitioner requested reactivation of Certificate No. 937-C. Pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS) § 271-19(b), a certificate may be reactivated upon fulfilling the requirements for reactivation. Order No. 18954 informed the Petitioner that these requirements included, but were not limited to, the filing of appropriate insurance documents, and the publication of a lawful tariff. Order No. 18954 further stated that if Certificate

¹Pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes § 271-19(b), the commission may grant inactive status for a cumulative period not to exceed two years over the life of a certificate.

No. 937-C was not reactivated prior to the expiration of the period of inactivity, the certificate would be deemed to be voluntarily surrendered.

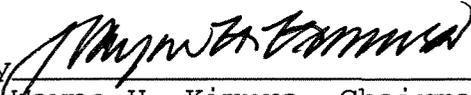

By letter dated September 25, 2002, the commission requested that Petitioner submit the following: (1) proof of insurance; (2) a lawful tariff; (3) a vehicle inventory list; and (4) certificates of registration or ownership. Petitioner was advised that failure to submit the above documents within 30 days of the date of the letter could result in the revocation of Certificate No. 937-C pursuant to HRS § 271-19(b). On October 24, 2002, Applicant filed a request for a one-month extension to comply.

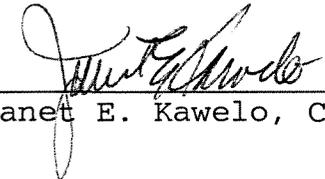

The HRS § 271-19(b) time period has passed and the commission has not received the requested documents. We, thus, find that there is good cause to revoke Certificate No. 937-C.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS that Certificate No. 937-C is revoked, and this docket is closed.

DONE at Honolulu, Hawaii this 31st day of January, 2003.
