Docket No. 03-0049

Order No. 20050

ORDER

I.

A.

By Order No. 20045, filed on February 26, 2003, the commission suspended section 5.7 of transmittal number 03-01, filed on February 3, 2003, by TIME WARNER TELECOM OF HAWAII, L.P., dba OCEANIC COMMUNICATIONS. The other changes proposed by Oceanic Communications in its transmittal were allowed to take effect, from March 3, 2003. The commission suspended Oceanic Communications' transmittal in response to a timely protest filed by Verizon Hawaii Inc., on February 14, 2003.

As set forth in section 5.7 of Oceanic Communications' transmittal:¹

IBL and VersiPak packages bundle voice and Internet services with discounted pre-packaged long distance plans to create a value-packed solution for small to medium sized business Customers.

¹Oceanic Communications' existing tariff describes Integrated Business Line (IBL) service as "[m]ultiple services provided to a Customer over a single facility to meet Customer's specific needs."

B.

Verizon Hawaii Inc. contends that Oceanic Communications, consistent with Hawaii Administrative Rules (HAR) § 6-80-35(e), must: (1) file an application for its proposed bundled service offerings; and (2) "satisfactorily show that its proposed bundles will not result in cross-subsidization." Verizon Hawaii Inc. reasons that both IBL and VersiPak services are noncompetitive services. Thus, Oceanic Communications must satisfactorily show that its noncompetitive services will not subsidize its Internet and long distance service offerings.

C.

After further review, Oceanic Communications is instructed to promptly file a separate application, with supporting cost data, consistent with HAR § 6-80-35(e).²

II.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS:

1. Oceanic Communications, if it intends to offer the IBL and VersiPak bundled packages, as described in section 5.7 of its suspended transmittal, shall promptly file a new and separate application, with supporting cost data, consistent with HAR § 6-80-35(e). Two copies of the application shall be served upon the Division of Consumer Advocacy.

2. This docket is closed.

²If a new application is filed: (1) Oceanic Communications must pay the requisite filing fee; and (2) a new docket number will be assigned to Oceanic Communications' application.

DONE at Honolulu, Hawaii this 3rd day of March, 2003.
