ORDER

I.

By application filed on June 6, 2003, and amended on July 18, 2003, PUNA KAMALI'I FLOWERS, INC. ("Applicant") requests a certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate as a common carrier of passengers by motor vehicle over irregular routes on the island of Hawaii, excluding Waipio Valley, in the (1) 1-to-7 passenger classification, and (2) 8-to-25 passenger classification.

On August 27, 2003, a motion for enlargement of time to file a motion to intervene ("Motion for Enlargement of Time")¹ in this proceeding was filed by Jack's Tours, Inc. ("Jack's Tours").²

¹Jack's Tours' Motion for Enlargement of Time consisted of a motion to intervene and a letter to the commission explaining its tardiness and requesting that the commission accept the motion to intervene. We, thus, will treat Jack's Tours' letter as a motion to enlarge the time for filing its motion to intervene.

²Pursuant to Hawaii Administrative Rules ("HAR") § 6-61-57(2), the deadline for intervention is not later than 20 days after a notice of pending application has been published in a newspaper of general circulation within the State of Hawaii, or within the county or counties affected by the application. Notice of Applicant's pending application was published in the Hawaii Tribune Herald and West Hawaii Today newspapers on July 7, 2003. The last day for intervention was July 28, 2003, pursuant to HAR § 6-61-22.

Jack's Tours states that its lack of knowledge regarding the intervention process caused it to miss the filing deadline.

II.

Pursuant to HAR § 6-61-23(a)(2), we may, in our discretion, grant a request for an enlargement of time upon a showing of excusable neglect. Jack's Tours asserts that because of its inexperience with the intervention process, it neglected to serve the commission with its motion to intervene.³ We find that Jack's Tours' reason for failing to serve the commission with a timely motion to intervene does not rise to the level of excusable neglect. Ignorance of the rules governing practice and procedure before the commission or mistakes construing such rules is not "excusable neglect". Enos v. Pacific Transfer & Warehouse Inc., 80 Hawaii 345, 351-354, 910 P.2d 116. 122-125 (1996). We, therefore, conclude that Jack's Tours has not met the standard of excusable neglect required for the granting of an enlargement of time, and, accordingly, we must deny its Motion for Enlargement of Time.

III.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS that Jack's Tours' Motion for Enlargement of Time to file a motion to intervene, filed on August 27, 2003, is denied.

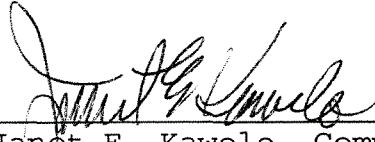

³Jack's Tours represents that it timely served the Division of Consumer Advocacy, Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs and Applicant with the motion to intervene.

DONE at Honolulu, Hawaii this 25th day of September, 2003.
