Responses to Supplemental Information Requests, the Parties will meet informally to attempt to reach a stipulation on issues where there is agreement, and/or to establish additional procedural steps, which may include a contested case hearing, as required."

On November 25, 2003, the commission held a status conference where the Parties orally agreed to confer or meet informally subsequent to the status conference to attempt to reach a stipulation on the issues where there is agreement and/or to establish additional procedural steps, as required, in this docket. The Parties further orally agreed that they would either file their Stipulation for commission review and approval and/or a written report describing, among other things, the status of their negotiations by December 12, 2003.

Upon review, we find good cause to approve the Parties' agreements set forth above, and conclude that the Parties should either file their Stipulation for commission review and approval and/or a written report describing, among other things, the status of their negotiations by December 12, 2003.
