ORDER

By this Order, the commission revokes certificate of public convenience and necessity number 1071-C ("Certificate No. 1071-C") held by TAE SIK HA ("Respondent").

I.

Introduction

On September 30, 2002, the commission issued Order No. 19608, which ordered Respondent to appear before the commission on October 29, 2002, at 9:00 a.m., to show cause why Respondent's Certificate No. 1071-C should not be suspended or revoked for failure to pay civil penalties totaling $9,000 for nine outstanding civil citations, pursuant to Hawaii Revised Statutes § 271-19 and Hawaii Administrative Rules § 6-68-32(b).

On October 29, 2002, Respondent appeared at the above-referenced hearing and requested that he be allowed to enter into a payment plan that would enable him to pay off his citation obligations. On May 2, 2003, the duly appointed hearings officer issued Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Recommended Decision and Order of Hearings Officer ("Recommended Decision"). The hearings officer recommended that the commission accept and approve Respondent's proposed payment plan in which Respondent would pay his penalties in three monthly installments of $3,000. Respondent's first payment would be due at the end of May 2003, and the last payment would be made at the end of July 2003. In the event that Respondent did not complete payment of his civil penalties within ten (10) days after the last payment was due, the hearings officer recommended that Respondent's Certificate No. 1071-C be suspended or revoked.

On June 20, 2003, the commission issued Decision and Order No. 20250, which adopted the Recommended Decision as the final decision and order in this matter. Decision and Order No. 20250 also provided that if Respondent failed to complete payment of his civil penalties within ten (10) days after the last payment was due, Certificate No. 1071-C would be immediately revoked.

II.

Findings and Conclusions

Respondent did not make any installment payments as ordered in Decision and Order No. 20250. The commission, thus, finds good cause to revoke Certificate No. 1071-C.

III.

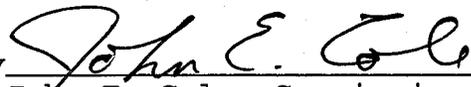

Orders
