Docket No. 05-0310

Order No. 23110

ORDER

By this Order, the commission, on its own motion, approves the Stipulation for Protective Order submitted by the Parties on November 28, 2006.¹

I.

Background

On November 3, 2006, the commission issued Stipulated Procedural Order No. 23012, which adopted without change the stipulated procedural order submitted by the Parties.² On November 28, 2006, the Parties submitted their Stipulation for Protective Order for the commission's review and approval.

II.

Discussion

HAR § 6-61-50 provides in relevant part that "[s]tipulations for a protective order, subject to the commission's approval, may be accepted in lieu of motions for protective order." (Emphasis added.)

The scope of this proceeding is governed by Stipulated Procedural Order No. 23012. Pursuant thereto, a party may withhold the production of all or a portion of a document identified as confidential by said party, pending the issuance of a protective order.³ The HECO Utilities, in their response to an information request, have withheld the production of certain materials and information identified as confidential by them, pending the issuance of a protective order.⁴

Upon review, the commission finds that the Parties' Stipulation for Protective Order is generally consistent with the terms and conditions set forth in the commission's ²Stipulated Procedural Order No. 23012, filed on November 3, 2006, as amended by commission letter, dated November 20, 2006.

³See Stipulated Procedural Order No. 23012, Section III.A, Requests for Information, at 4 - 6.

⁴See HECO Utilities' response to DOD-IR-3.

Sample Protective Order, dated August 2005.⁵ Accordingly, the commission, on its own motion, approves the Stipulation for Protective Order submitted by the Parties on November 28, 2006, and attached as Exhibit 1 to this Order.⁶

III.

Order

THE COMMISSION ORDERS:

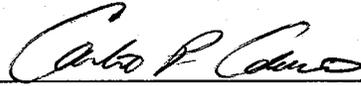

The Stipulation for Protective Order submitted by the Parties on November 28, 2006, attached as Exhibit 1 to this Order, is approved.

⁵See Commission's Notice to All Public Utilities, Affected Agencies and Interested Stakeholders, dated August 26, 2005, enclosing a copy of the commission's Sample Protective Order, dated August 2005.

⁶Motions that do not involve the final determination of a proceeding may be determined by the chairperson or a commissioner. See HAR § 6-61-41(e). The commission construes HAR § 6-61-41(e) as applying in this instance where the commission issues this Order on its own motion, adopting the Parties' Stipulation for Protective Order.

STIPULATION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC COMPANY, INC., HAWAII ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY, INC. and MAUI ELECTRIC COMPANY, LIMITED, referred to herein as the "Applicant" or "Companies", filed an Application on December 8, 2005 for approval to (1) record as a regulatory asset pursuant to the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 71 the amount that would otherwise be charged to equity as required under the provision of SFAS No. 87 as a result of recording a minimum pension liability, (2) allow each of the Companies to continue to maintain in subsequent years, a regulatory asset, for any pension liability that would otherwise be charged to equity and (3) allow each of the Companies to continue to recover its annual cost of providing pension benefits to its employees, as actuarially calculated under the provision of SFAS No. 87;

WHEREAS, the Companies contend that disclosure of certain information in this proceeding, without a protective order ensuring the confidentiality of that information, and limiting its use by those who are permitted to review it solely for purposes of the Application, might trigger requirements under the rules and guidelines of the Securities and Exchange Commission and/or the New York Stock Exchange that such information be publicly disclosed prior to the time that Applicant plans for such information to be disclosed, and that selective release of that information without broad public disclosure could violate such requirements;

WHEREAS, such information is intended to remain confidential;

WHEREAS, the Company maintains that disclosure of certain confidential and proprietary financial information in the course of this proceeding could work to their competitive disadvantage if other parties have access to that information;

WHEREAS, the Division of Consumer Advocacy of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs ("Consumer Advocate") is, ex officio, a party to this proceeding pursuant to the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Public Utilities Commission (the "Commission");

WHEREAS, the Department of the Navy, on behalf of the Department of Defense ("DOD") was made a party to this proceeding pursuant to Order No. 22883, filed September 21, 2006;

WHEREAS, the Consumer Advocate or the DOD may deem confidential information requested during the course of discovery to be necessary to create a complete record in this proceeding;

WHEREAS, Applicant is willing to disclose certain confidential information to the Consumer Advocate, the DOD and the Commission, as long as the information is protected from further disclosure and is used solely for purposes of this proceeding or as provided in paragraphs 16 and 17 below;

WHEREAS, in order to assess the merits of the approvals sought by the Applicant, the Consumer Advocate and the DOD must have access to the information alleged to be confidential;

WHEREAS, Applicant, the Consumer Advocate and the DOD (collectively, the "parties") desire to establish a set of procedures and provisions pertaining to the use and disclosure of information considered to be confidential and any information which a party may in the future contend to be confidential;

WHEREAS, the parties understand that during the course of the evidentiary hearing in this matter, if any, if it becomes necessary to address any information provided pursuant to this protective order during the course of the hearing, that portion of the proceeding will be heard in camera;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, in accordance with Section 6-61-50 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Public Utilities Commission, that the Commission issue a protective order covering the confidential information identified in the course of the proceeding in connection with the Application, as follows:

TERMS OF THE ORDER

1. This protective order governs the classification, acquisition, and use of confidential information produced by any party in this docket.
2. All parties or participants to all or any portion of this docket, including persons who are granted intervention or participation after the effective date of this protective order, shall be subject to this protective order and shall be entitled to all confidential information of a party or participant under the provisions of this protective order to the extent allowed by the Commission.

APPLICATION OF THE UNIFORM INFORMATION PRACTICES ACT

3. To the extent that any of the documents covered by this protective order consist of "government records," as defined in Haw. Rev. Stat. §92F-3, the provisions of Haw. Rev. Stat. Ch. 92F (Uniform Information Practices Act or "UIPA") shall apply to the disclosure of information contained in such documents. In the event any provision of this protective order conflicts with any provision of the UIPA, the UIPA shall control.

CLASSIFICATION

4. Any party may designate as confidential any information it believes, in good faith, contains trade secrets or other confidential research, development, commercial, financial, vendor, or bid information or, in the case of Applicant, contains nonpublic information that should not be disclosed publicly in advance of its disclosure in the Applicant's Form 10-K or other SEC filing. Such information shall be protected against disclosure to a non-qualified person pursuant to the terms of this protective order, unless such information is declassified, or permission to disclose the information to such non-qualified person is granted by the party claiming confidentiality, as provided in paragraph 13 below.

5. If a party designates information as confidential pursuant to paragraph 4 above or 6 below, it shall produce the confidential information in accordance with the procedures described in paragraphs 11 through 14 below, and concurrently provide certain information in writing to the Commission and the other parties. If a party seeks to designate information as confidential, it must: (1) identify, in reasonable detail, the information's source, character, and location, (2) state clearly the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and (3) describe, with particularity, the cognizable harm to the producing party from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information. If the Commission or any party to this docket challenges the claim of confidentiality of the information, the party claiming confidentiality shall bear the burden of proof in supporting its claim of confidentiality, and the Commission will determine whether the information is confidential and whether it should be disclosed under a protective order. Any challenge to the confidentiality of any information shall be made in accordance with paragraph 24 below.

6. Confidential information provided to the Commission or the parties, orally or in any other form, shall be protected as fully as confidential information provided in written form. A party shall notify the Commission and the other parties when information provided orally or in other than written form includes confidential information. At the time of such notification, a party shall, in the manner provided in paragraph 5 above, specify the subject-matter of such confidential information, the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and the cognizable harm to the producing party from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information.

FORMS OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

7. All information claimed to be confidential information shall be subject to the terms of this protective order, and shall be treated by all qualified persons (as defined by this protective order) as constituting confidential information. Unless a different treatment is warranted, any notes, summaries, abstracts, or analyses that are prepared by counsel, experts, or other qualified persons, and that reflect the underlying confidential information, shall also be subject to the terms of this protective order.

DESIGNATION

8. Any party claiming that information is confidential shall place upon all applicable material the following legend:

CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER

Whenever only a portion of a document, transcript, or other material is deemed to contain confidential information, the party shall, to the extent reasonably practicable, limit the claim of confidentiality to only such portion. However, if such limitation is not reasonably practicable, the entire document, transcript, or other material may be designated as confidential information.

9. With respect to any confidential information that is not under the control of the party claiming confidentiality, other persons shall, to the extent requested by that party, cooperate to ensure that all copies of such confidential information bear the legend required in paragraph 8 above.

10. Any party may request the Commission to designate as confidential information any document or other information previously produced but not designated as confidential, provided that the party, in the manner provided in paragraph 5 above, specifies the subject-matter of such confidential information, the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and the cognizable harm to the producing party from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information. In addition, the party claiming confidentiality shall substitute the previously-produced but not designated as confidential material with the identical material under designation as required in Paragraph 8 above.

DISCLOSURE

11. Except as provided in paragraph 13 below, confidential information shall not be made available or disclosed to any person who is not a "qualified person" as defined in paragraph 12 below.

12. "Qualified person," as used in this protective order, means any one of the following:

- a. The author(s), addressee(s), or originator(s) of the confidential information;
- b. The Commission, its staff, its counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by the Commission for this proceeding;
- c. The Consumer Advocate, its staff, its counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by the Consumer Advocate for this proceeding;
- d. Applicant, their officers and employees, their counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by Applicant for this proceeding;
- e. Any other party or participant to this proceeding, its staff, its counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by it for this proceeding, to the extent allowed by the Commission;
- f. Any other person approved by the party asserting the claim of confidentiality; and

- g. Any other person designated as a qualified person by order of the Commission.

13. When a qualified person wishes to disclose confidential information to a non-qualified person, the qualified person must request permission from the party claiming confidentiality. The request shall identify the non-qualified person to whom disclosure is desired; disclose any past, present, or anticipated affiliation between the qualified person and the non-qualified person; specify the exact information to be disclosed; and state the reasons for disclosure. If permission is granted by the party claiming confidentiality, disclosure of the confidential information shall be made to such non-qualified person in the same manner as provided for qualified persons in paragraph 14 below.

PROCEDURE FOR OBTAINING ACCESS

14. Prior to disclosing confidential information to a qualified person other than the Commission and its staff, the qualified person shall read a copy of this protective order, complete a copy of the agreement attached as Exhibit A to this protective order, and sign the completed copy of the agreement. A copy of the executed agreement shall be delivered to the party claiming confidentiality and the Commission.

USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

15. Any confidential information obtained under this protective order shall be used solely in connection with this proceeding and any related administrative and judicial proceedings (at which time the information will continue to be treated as confidential), and shall not be used for any other purpose, including business, governmental or commercial purposes (including trading in the securities of Applicant or Hawaiian Electric Industries, Inc.), except as provided in paragraphs 16 and 17, and except as may be directed by (a) an order of court, (b) an order of the Commission, or (c) the UIPA (in the case of any "agency" as defined in Haw. Rev. Stat. §92F-3), including any ruling of the Office of Information Practices.

16. Any confidential information obtained under this protective order may be used by the Commission and its staff in any proceeding pending before the Commission involving the producing party or its affiliates or where the intended use of such confidential information is for the purpose of assisting the Commission in fulfilling its statutory duties and responsibilities with respect to the producing party or its affiliates. The confidential information shall continue to be treated as confidential until the protection conferred by this protective order (or any other applicable protective order) is terminated by the producing party, or until further order of the Commission.

17. Any confidential information obtained under this protective order may be used by the Consumer Advocate, its staff, its consultant and its counsel in any proceeding pending before the Commission involving the producing party or its affiliates, or where the intended use of such confidential information is for the purpose of assisting the Consumer Advocate in fulfilling its statutory duties and responsibilities with respect to the producing party or its affiliates. The confidential information shall continue to be treated as confidential until the protection conferred by this protective order (or any other applicable protective order) is terminated by the producing party, or until further order of the Commission.

Any confidential information obtained under this protective order may be used by the DOD, its staff, its consultant and its counsel in any proceeding pending before the Commission involving the producing party or its affiliates. The confidential information shall continue to be treated as confidential until the protection conferred by this protective order (or any other applicable protective order) is terminated by the producing party, or until further order of the Commission.

18. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, if a party desires to file written testimony, exhibits or pleadings which contain or reflect the confidential information, the page(s) or portions of the page(s) containing or reflecting such information shall be treated as confidential, and that part of any hearing at which such information is discussed shall be held in camera, or under other conditions imposed by the Commission to prevent unnecessary public disclosure of such information. A copy of any confidential page, with any such information deleted, shall be filed to be included in the public record, and each such page shall contain the following designation in the upper left hand corner:

Confidential Information Deleted Pursuant To Protective Order No. _____.

RETENTION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

19. Confidential information shall be retained in a locked cabinet dedicated to the storage of confidential information, or otherwise secured to ensure that access to and disclosure of the confidential information is limited to a qualified person.

20. Confidential information that is given to or filed with the Commission or its staff shall be separately bound and placed in a sealed envelope or other appropriate sealed container on which shall appear the following legend:

THIS ENVELOPE IS SEALED PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER NO. _____ AND CONTAINS DOCUMENTS WITH _____ CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. IT IS NOT TO BE OPENED OR THE CONTENTS OF THIS ENVELOPE DISPLAYED OR REVEALED EXCEPT TO QUALIFIED PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO INSPECT THE ENCLOSED DOCUMENTS.

21. Confidential information shall not be reproduced or duplicated, except to make working copies and copies to be filed with the Commission under seal. If a document contains information so sensitive that it should not be copied by anyone, it shall bear the following legend: "Copying Prohibited."

22. If a court or other administrative agency requests, subpoenas, or orders production of confidential information that a party or person has obtained under this protective order, that party or person, prior to disclosure, shall promptly notify the party claiming confidentiality of the request, subpoena, or order.

DURATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

23. The confidentiality of the information produced pursuant to this protective order shall be preserved until all interested parties, by written stipulation, terminate the protection conferred by this protective order, or until further order of the Commission.

APPEAL TO THE COMMISSION

24. If any interested person disagrees with the designation of information as confidential, the party claiming confidentiality and the person so disagreeing shall first make a good faith attempt to resolve the dispute on an informal basis. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the person contesting the confidentiality of the information shall file a motion to compel disclosure or any other appropriate motion with the Commission. The party claiming confidentiality shall bear the burden of proof in supporting its claim, and the Commission will determine whether the information shall continue to be designated as confidential under this protective order. Pending a disposition of the motion, the information in question shall be treated as confidential information and shall not be disclosed except as permitted in this protective order.

NONWAIVER OF OBJECTIONS AND RIGHTS

25. The parties retain the right to contest any assertion or finding of confidentiality or of non-confidentiality.

26. The parties retain the right to question, challenge, and object to the admissibility of confidential information on the grounds of relevancy or materiality.

MODIFICATION OF THE PROTECTIVE ORDER

27. This Stipulation for Protective Order shall control the subsequent course of events pertaining to the use and disclosure of information considered to be confidential, unless modified by the Parties in writing and approved by the Commission. The Commission may modify this protective order on the motion of any party, or on its own motion, upon reasonable notice to the parties and an opportunity for hearing.

DISPOSAL OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

28. Except as provided in paragraphs 29 and 30 below, within 90 days after the conclusion of this proceeding, persons in possession of confidential information shall, at the option of the party producing the confidential information, return or destroy all such materials and all copies, notes, tapes, papers, or other medium containing, summarizing, excerpting, or otherwise embodying any confidential information. If the party producing the confidential information requests destruction, the person destroying the information shall certify its destruction to the producing party, indicating the name of the person destroying the documents, the method of destruction, and the identity of the specific documents destroyed.

29. Counsel and the representatives of record for a party shall be entitled to retain memoranda, pleadings, exhibits of record, written testimony, and transcripts embodying information derived from or incorporating confidential information to the extent reasonably necessary to preserve files on this proceeding.

30. Confidential information produced in this proceeding shall remain in the possession of the Commission, the Consumer Advocate, and counsel for the Consumer Advocate for the duration required by applicable statutes, rules and administrative directives, and may remain in the possession of DOD and its counsel for the same period of time.

SANCTIONS

31. Any person violating this protective order shall be subject to sanctions imposed by the Commission.

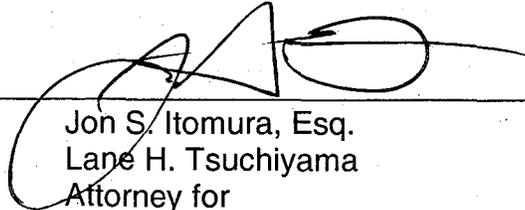

COUNTERPARTS

32. This Stipulation for Protective Order may be executed by the parties in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument. The parties may execute this Stipulation for Protective Order by facsimile for initial submission to the Commission to be followed by the filing of originals of said facsimile pages.
