for
Chief Clerk of the Commission

DIV. OF REGULATORY AND

RECEIVED

services ("TRS") contribution that was due on July 26, 2006, pursuant to Order No. 20193, filed on May 23, 2003, and as amended by Decision and Order Nos. 21049, 21847, 22536, and 23481.

On November 20, 2007, Jose Dydasco, Respondent's General Manager, appeared at the above-referenced hearing and requested that Respondent be allowed to enter into a payment plan that would enable it pay its Fees to the commission. The duly appointed hearings officer directed Respondent to work out a payment plan with the commission audit personnel present at the hearing. No payment plan, however, was proposed by Respondent at the hearing and Respondent failed to respond to a commission e-mail sent November 28, 2007, requesting that Respondent contact the commission to set up a payment plan to avoid revocation of Respondent's COR and advising Respondent to make arrangements to pay its TRS contribution.

II.

Findings and Conclusions

As more than sixty (60) days have passed since the November 20, 2007 hearing, and Respondent has failed to (1) file its 2005 AFR, (2) pay its public utilities fees that were due on July 31, 2006, and December 31, 2006, and (3) pay the TRS contribution that was due on July 26, 2006, the commission finds that Respondent has not complied with the commission's applicable orders, laws, rules, and regulations, and thus concludes that Respondent's COR should be revoked.

III.
