Ms. Lee stated that she did not know that she needed to "continually report" her DUI conviction and that her wrongdoing was that she did not report it within thirty (30) days. She expressed her desire to make "young people happy – taking care of their acne".

Mr. Kelly commented that the penalty by RICO is appropriate based on all the facts. Ms. Lee commented that she does not mind paying the monetary fee but wants a reduction in the term of the suspension and does not want any notation of this case on her licensing record.

DAG Tam commented that the Respondent's criminal conviction, Board's decision in this case, and the proceedings at today's meeting cannot be suppressed and would be included in the Respondent's licensing file and record.

At 9:27 a.m., guests were excused from the meeting.

Request from Tram's LLC
(BSC 34) for Board's Approval of Changes to Facility:

Ms. Tram Ngo, owner of beauty school, Tram's LLC, was introduced to the Board. Ms. Ngo submitted a request to switch her current beauty school's layout of the students' practical room to the side of the salon and the salon to the practical room, in order to provide more space for the students. It was noted that the Board, previously approved her to use the salon side for students on certain days. Ms. Ngo provided pictures of her school and salon to Board members.

After discussion, and confirmation by Ms. Ngo that she intends to make this a permanent change in the use of the facility's space, where the beauty school would be located separately from the salon with separate entrances, signage, and reception areas, it was moved by Ms. Howard, seconded by Mr. Choi, and unanimously carried to approve the facility changes to beauty school, Tram's LLC.

Licensure Requirements for Beauty Operators Working in Licensed Beauty Shops as Independent Contractors or "Chair Renters":

RICO attorney, John Hassler, was introduced to the Board. Mr. Hassler was in attendance to participate in discussion with the Board concerning the licensure requirements for beauty operators who work in licensed beauty shops as independent contractors or chair/booth renters. Ms. Kai noted that the Board has consistently interpreted the definition of "beauty shop" as any establishment or place of business wherein the practice of cosmetology is engaged or carried on and is the primary purpose of that establishment or business, to mean that independent contractors (or "chair renters" or "booth renters") are individually holding themselves out as entities or businesses engaged in the practice of cosmetology. Therefore, they are required to hold both an individual license and a shop license.

Ms. Kai stated that the Board's position is being questioned by salon owner Sue Bierman, of Studio B Salon Incorporated, who has stylists who work as independent contractors in her salon, and whose salon was visited by a RICO investigator regarding licensure of the salon and the stylists. A copy of Ms. Bierman's letter of concern was made available to the Board. Ms. Bierman is appealing to the Board to rescind its determination requiring an independent contractor beauty operator to simultaneously hold both an individual and beauty shop license. She believes that this requirement is superfluous because there are already sufficient rules in place regulating beauty operators and beauty salons. She also contends that the requirement is unknown by members of the industry and that compliance is largely unenforceable.

Board members discussed the Board's existing interpretation of the laws and rules, which is to require both licenses to be held by an independent contractor who rents a booth or chair from a salon owner. The Board reiterated its position that the independent contractor does not fit within the commonly-held definition of an "employee", which may be the definition held by the Department of Labor or other regulatory agency. The Board believes that, although sharing the same general overall physical space, each independent contractor typically decides his/her own working schedule, charges for services, and as well as determining his/her own clientele. Also, each independent contractor is typically responsible for compliance with general excise tax requirements and insurance liability requirements.

Mr. Hassler commented that the statute may not be "entirely clear" on the issue of independent contractors; noting that the interpretation would be clearer if the term "employee" was defined in the statute, and RICO may be better able to enforce the Board's laws and rules. Based on the tax forms utilized by beauty operators who are chair/booth renters, a clearer determination could be made on which beauty operators would be required to meet the license requirement.

DAG Tam commented that this situation is no different from that of the massage establishments and massage therapists that are regulated by the Board of Massage Therapy, where both licenses are required in this type of working situation. Ms. Howard commented that she would like to see the statute written in layman's language, thereby eliminating confusion and misinterpretation. Discussion ensued on how the Board's administrative rules would need to be amended to accomplish this, and the Investigative Committee on HAR chapter 16-78 that is working on amendments to the chapter should address this in its review of proposed amendments.

Examinations:      A. Results of Cosmetology Examinations Administered in October 2012

Executive Officer Kai provided the following results of the cosmetology examinations administered October 2012:

	EXAMS ADM	PASSED	FAILED	% PASS	% FAIL
COSMETOLOGY	97	42	55	43%	57%
HAIRDRESSER	33	17	16	51%	49%
NAIL TECHNICIAN	78	26	52	33%	67%
ESTHETICIAN	79	39	40	49%	51%

INSTRUCTOR	2	1	1	50%	50%
TOTALS	289	125	164	43%	57%

B. Updates to Licensing Examinations by Prometric

Executive Officer Kai reported that the Board's testing administrator, Prometric, will be updating all of the licensing exams to be comprised of examination items (questions) with references to the 2012 editions of the required textbooks, to begin with the May 2013 examination.

Legislation and Rules:

A. Hawaii Administrative Rules ("HAR")

- (1) Proposed Amendments to HAR Chapter 16-73 (Barbering)

No report.

- (2) Proposed Amendments to HAR Chapter 16-78 (Cosmetology)

No report.

Discussion continued on beauty operators who are independent contractors or chair/booth renters. The consensus of the Board was that basically "holding yourself out as an independent business" would mean that a beauty shop license is needed.

Ms. Flores commented that the "industry is in the dark" about beauty shop licenses for independent contractors or chair/booth renters. Further discussion ensued on what could be done to inform the licensees that operate in these types of working situations. It was noted that New Jersey does not allow chair renters.

Open Forum:

Vice-Chairperson Apao reminded members that at the Board's October 10, 2012 meeting, she had volunteered along with Mr. Choi, to conduct further research on the beautification and cosmetic treatments involving myopulse and acuscope machines. Ms. Apao reported that most states allow their licensed beauty professionals to use myopulse machines, as they are calibrated to be used on facial muscles, as well as muscles in the neck and upper body. She stated that she believes that operators who provide these services in other states must be certified, but was unsure if the certification was issued by the board of cosmetology or the equipment manufacturer. She further reported that acuscope machines are primarily used in the medical field as they deal with nerve endings and underlying brain cells, which may alleviate a patient's pain for greater relaxation.

Board members agreed that this issue deserves further research and discussion, and requested that it be placed on the agenda for consideration at the Board's next meeting.

Next Board Meeting: Wednesday, February 13, 2013

King Kalakaua Building
