

IMPORTANT NOTICE
REGARDING THE RESTORATIVE TECHNIQUE EXAMINATION
FOR GRADUATES OF FOREIGN DENTAL SCHOOLS
NOT ACCREDITED BY THE AMERICAN DENTAL ASSOCIATION

Pursuant to Act 69, effective May 12, 2004, the Board of Dental Examiners will no longer accept applications for the restorative technique examination for graduates of foreign dental schools not accredited by the American Dental Association (“bench exam”). Act 69 repealed the provision allowing for the bench exam. Accordingly, all applicants must be graduates of dental colleges accredited by the American Dental Association.
