STATE REAL ESTATE COMMISSION ANNOUNCES FREE SEMINAR FOR CONDOMINIUM OWNERS AND BOARD MEMBERS

HONOLULU - The Hawaii State Real Estate Commission is offering a free seminar on Thursday, May 27, at the State Capitol Auditorium, from 1:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. The seminar will provide information to: 1) condominium owners about their rights and responsibilities and 2) board members about their powers and duties, under the condominium law HRS, Chapter 514B.

The commission recently created two booklets on these subjects: "Condominium Property Regimes: Owner's Rights and Responsibilities," and "Condominium Property Regimes: Board Members Powers and Duties."

The booklets may be downloaded from the commission's website at:
http://hawaii.gov/dcca/real/condo\_ed/condo\_gen/condo\_bod.

The commission recommends that persons review the booklets prior to attending the seminar. There will be a question/answer period following the seminar. Seating is limited to the first 200 people.

For more information about the free seminar, contact the Real Estate Commission at 586-2643.

The Real Estate Commission administers the Condominium Education Trust Fund for educational purposes. Condominium owners in registered condominium associations contribute $4.00 to this fund on a biennial basis. The expenses of this free seminar and the drafting and publication of the educational booklets have been paid with monies from this educational fund.
