MEMORANDUM

TO: Candidates for Prelicensing Schools or Anyone Considering a Real Estate License

FROM: Real Estate Commission

SUBJECT: Persons with a Questionable Background Issue(s)

Do you have a questionable background issue? Questionable background issues include, but is not limited to, criminal convictions (felony, misdemeanor, or court martial), or any civil/administrative/government action, against you, including DUIs, drug/alcohol issues, abuse situations, tax liens, unpaid tax obligations, judgments, unpaid judgments, disciplinary action (for another licensing area or from another state or country), applicants currently serving parole or probation, violations of administrative laws/court orders/government sanctions, etc. If you have a questionable background issue, the Commission highly recommends you review the attached application. If your answer to any of the questions from 1.b) through 5 will be "yes", immediately contact the Real Estate Branch at the above address or at (808) 586-2643. Do not enroll in any Prelicensing Real Estate course until you secured advice on how to proceed and/or, if applicable, submit the attached "Request for Preliminary Decision" application.

Although a good number of applicants with questionable background issues have been granted licenses or conditional licenses, a good number of applicants with questionable background issues have been denied licenses. Denied applicants have spent monies for the prelicensing school, taking and passing the examination, and submitting an application, as well as expending a lot of time studying, attending classes, and taking the examination. Therefore, prior to expending monies and time on the process to eventually submit an application for a real estate license that may be denied, the applicant should submit a Request for Preliminary Decision Application to the Commission.

Upon receipt of a Request for Preliminary Decision application and prior to inclusion on the Commission's meeting agenda, the Real Estate Branch staff gathers all pertinent documentation from the applicant to support and explain any and all "yes" answer(s). The Commission then reviews each application on a case by case basis at its monthly meeting. The applicant is invited to appear at the Commission's meeting to answer questions the Commissioners may have, and/or to provide oral testimony. The Commission then decides whether they would most likely approve or most likely deny a real estate license application with the affected background issues. Although the Preliminary Decision is a non-binding decision and subject to further review upon receipt of the license application, the decision should provide the candidate with a fair indication as to how the Commission may vote on the actual license application.

Lastly, Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 467-20 states that any false statement provided by the applicant to the Commission is an unlawful act subject to administrative sanctions and constitutes a misdemeanor criminally punishable under the laws of the State of Hawaii. In the electronic age of the internet, open records law by federal, state, and county governments, various private services, and with governmental agencies sharing information, access to background information on individuals and entities are easier to obtain. Therefore, the worst act by an applicant for licensure would be to answer the questions in the application falsely or basically lie.

Please contact the Real Estate Branch at the above address or telephone (808) 586-2643, between 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. HST, Monday to Friday.

INSTRUCTIONS

This is NOT an application for license. This is a request for a preliminary decision to provide advisory guidance only and is not binding or subject to appeal. You are NOT considered an applicant for licensure. A preliminary decision that is unfavorable to you does not prevent you from submitting a complete license application and fees following successful completion of the precicensing requirements. If a preliminary decision is favorable to you, you must still successfully complete the precicensing requirements before applying for a license. If your application for license is received within six months of the preliminary decision, the preliminary decision will be considered together with your application for license.

2. Complete the application form, being sure to answer ALL questions.
3. Attach supporting documents, as described below.
4. Submit the application form, supporting documents, and a $25 nonrefundable fee to:

NOTE: One of the numerous legal requirements that you must meet in order for your new license to be issued is the payment of fees as set forth in this application. You may be sent a license certificate before the payment you sent us for your required fees is honored by your bank. If your payment is dishonored, you will have failed to pay the required licensing fee and your license will not be valid, and you may not do business under that license. Also, a $25.00 service charge shall be assessed for payments that are dishonored for any reason.

5. All applications must be reviewed and decided upon by the Real Estate Commission. The Commission meets once each month. The Commission will not review incomplete applications. Therefore, submitting a request without all applicable information and documents as described below will delay processing.
