Attachment to Gift Disclosure for Catapult Learning National Institute dated 3/2/15:

I do not consider the participation in the National Institute organized by Catapult Learning as a gift; but am reporting them as gifts in an abundance of caution.

The cost for CAS participation to the National Institute is embedded as part of the services that were paid for by Kalihi Elementary. The CAS is a part of the school team; Catapult Learning is not providing this travel and conference as a gift or means of solicitation. I attend many of the school team and provider events as part of my duties to monitor implementation and application of new leadership strategies learned at the conference; the implication for attendance is also to leverage and to build capacity and leadership knowledge for the CAS to help all of their schools in the school improvement process.
