GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

NOTE: For transfers before January 26, 2012, use Form M-6GS (Rev. 2010)

NOTE: References to the federal Generation-Skipping Transfer (GST) Tax means the tax as determined under federal law as it read on December 31, 2011.

NOTE: Effective January 1, 2012, pursuant to Act 1, Session Laws of Hawaii 2011, civil unions are recognized in Hawaii. Provisions that apply to a husband and wife, spouses, or person in a legal marital relationship shall be deemed to apply to partners in a civil union with the same force and effect as if they were "husband and wife", "spouses", or other terms that describe persons in a legal marital relationship. Accordingly, references to "married", "unmarried", and "spouse" also means "in a civil union", "not in a civil union", and "civil union partner", respectively."

1. Purpose of Form — Section 236E-17, Hawaii Revised Statutes, provides for a state GST tax. The tax is imposed on all generation-skipping transfers of property in Hawaii or property from a resident trust. The tax is due on a GST (other than a direct skip) that occurs at the same time as, or as a result of, the death of an individual. Property subject to Hawaii GST tax includes all real and personal property subject to the federal GST tax.

A credit is allowed for GST taxes paid to another state. A GST is exempt from Hawaii's GST tax if the GST is exempt from the GST tax imposed by another state. The exemption must specifically reference Hawaii, or must contain a reciprocal provision under which the transfers would otherwise be subject to the jurisdiction of that state. The amount of the tax due is credited with the lesser of (1) the amount of the tax paid to the other state; or (2) an amount computed by multiplying the Hawaii GST tax by a fraction, the numerator of which is the taxable transfer subject to the GST tax paid to the other state, and the denominator of which is the total amount of the taxable transfers subject to the federal GST tax.

2. Who Must File —The Form M-6GS is filed by the person(s) responsible, or who would be responsible, for filing the federal GST tax return.

3. Time to File — Form M-6GS is due on or after January 1 but no later than April 15 of the year following the calendar year when the distributions were made. An automatic six-month extension to file the return will be granted if an extension has been granted by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). If the date for filing Form 706-GS(D) or Form 706-GS(T) has been extended by the IRS, Form M-6GS will be due on the date that is specified by the IRS. An IRS approved copy of federal Form 7004 must be submitted with Form M-6GS. If a request for extension has been denied by the IRS, there will be no penalty assessed if Form M-6GS is filed within the time specified by the IRS. Attach a copy of federal Form 7004 showing the date on which the return may be filed without penalty.

An extension of time to file is not an extension of time to pay the tax. Any request for an extension of time to file Form M-6GS must be accompanied by payment of the tax. Interest will be owed on any additional amount of tax over the amount paid with the extension to file.

4. Where to File —The completed return is mailed to the Hawaii Department of Taxation, P. O. Box 259, Honolulu, HI 96809-0259.

5. Payment of Tax — Due date of payment is the same as time for filing. However, any tax due but not paid by the due date will incur interest from the due date, regardless of any extension of time to file the return. For taxable distributions, the GST tax is paid by the transferee; in the case of a taxable termination or a direct skip from a trust, the tax is paid by the trustee. For a direct skip other than a direct skip from a trust, the transferor is liable for paying the tax.

6. Amount Paid with Extension — Persons who will be filing Form M-6GS after the filing deadline (by April 15 of the year following the calendar year when the distributions were made or the termination occurred) because they have an extension, must make a tax payment prior to filing Form M-6GS by submitting a copy of the extension filed with the IRS, Form VP-2, and payment for the taxes due. Include this amount on line 17.

7. Federal Form Requirement — A complete true copy of the appropriate federal Generation-Skipping Tax Return Form 706-GS(D) or Form 706-GS(T) must be filed with this return. Complete federal Form 706-GS(D) through line 7, or federal Form 706-GS(T) through line 10. The federal GST tax is to be determined under federal law as it read on December 31, 2011.

8. Amended Return — If changes need to be made to Form M-6GS, an amended return must be filed. Check the box at the top of page 1 to indicate that it is an amended return. Complete Form M-6GS with all of the corrected information and attach Schedule AMD, Explanation of Changes on Amended Return, to the return. Attach any federal Form 706-GS(D) or 706-GS(T) schedules affected by the corrections or changes.

An amended return must be filed anytime Form M-6GS needs an adjustment. In the case of property located in states other than Hawaii, an amended Form M-6GS must be filed when the tax paid to other states changes. Interest and/or penalties paid to other states for delinquent tax payments cannot be included on line 11.

9. Penalty and Interest —

(a) Penalty for failure to file is equal to 5% of the tax due for each month or part of a month that the report is delinquent, up to a maximum of 25% of the tax payable.

(b) Penalty for failure to pay after filing timely report is 20% of the tax unpaid within 60 days of the prescribed due date. The 60-day period is calculated beginning with the prescribed due date even if the prescribed due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

(c) Interest at the rate of 2/3 of 1% per month or part of a month shall be assessed on unpaid taxes and penalties after April 15 of the year following the calendar year when the distribution or termination occurs, whether or not that first calendar day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.
