* For Form N-11 filers, if your federal Schedule K-1 (Form 1120S) and Hawaii Schedule K-1 (Form N-35) amounts are different, the necessary adjustments are to be made in the Hawaii Additions Worksheet and/or Hawaii Subtractions Worksheet in the Form N-11 Instructions. For Form N-15 filers, the referenced worksheets are located in the Form N-15 Instructions.

Purpose of Schedule K-1 — The S corporation uses Schedule K-1 (Form N-35) to report to you your share of the corporation's income (reduced by any tax the corporation paid on the income), credits, deductions, etc. Please keep it for your records.

Although the corporation is subject to a built-in gains tax, an excess net passive income tax, and a LIFO recapture tax, you are liable for the income tax on your share of the corporation's income, whether or not distributed, and you must include your share on your tax return.

Use these instructions to help you report the items shown on Schedule K-1 on your Hawaii income tax return. Where "(attach schedule)" appears on lines 10, 12, 13, 14, and 22a, it means the information for these lines (if applicable) will be shown on line 29, or if additional space was needed, the corporation will have attached a statement to your Schedule K-1 to show the information. The notation "(See Instructions for Schedule K-1)" in item A is directed only to the corporation.

Schedule K-1 does not show the amount of actual dividend distributions the corporation paid to you. The corporation must report to you such amounts on Form 1099-DIV. Resident shareholders' actual dividend distributions are already included in federal adjusted gross income (federal AGI) for Form N-11 filers.

Schedule K-1 now provides you with information relating to the source of your share of the income of the S corporation. This is required under provisions of section 235-128, Hawaii Revised Statutes. How this income is reported by you to the State of Hawaii depends on your residency status. Shareholders who are Hawaii residents are to report the total sum of the income, deductions, and credits attributable to Hawaii and the income, deductions, and credits attributable elsewhere. Shareholders who are not residents of Hawaii or who are part-year residents of Hawaii are to use amounts attributable to Hawaii and the total sum of amounts attributable to Hawaii and amounts attributable elsewhere in preparing their Hawaii income tax returns. Income attributable to Hawaii is reported by all shareholders net of adjustments allowed to corporations. The total of your share of these adjustments is shown on line 22a and are explained on line 29. Items of income or deductions should be reported on your return net of these adjustments. Resident shareholders may make an adjustment to income reported on their net income tax return for interest penalty on early withdrawal of savings, if a penalty was imposed on the early withdrawal of savings by the S corporation and the interest income is not attributable to Hawaii. The amount of this deduction appears on line 23.
