FALL 2001

More E-filing Options Available!

Beginning in late October, you will be able to enjoy the ease and convenience of e-filing your general excise tax and transient accommodations tax periodic returns (Forms G-45 and TA-1) 24 hours a day, 7 days a week! Delinquent bill payments for general excise tax, use tax, withholding tax, transient accommodations tax, rental motor vehicle and tour vehicle surcharge tax, and net income tax also can be made online. You also will have the option of making payments by credit card!

Currently, payments are made through an electronic check process called "VirtualPay." A nominal fee of $2.50 is charged for each transaction involving a payment. No fee is charged if a payment is not made. This may change, however, when payment by credit card becomes available in October.

Benefits of e-filing include confirmation that your return and payment were received, quicker return processing, and easy access to your e-filing records.

To register to e-file, go to the State's Internet portal at www.eHawaiiGov.org and select "File Your Taxes Online with E-Filing." Please note that once you register, you simply sign in with your user ID (your social security number or federal employer's identification number) and password on subsequent visits.

The following forms are currently available for e-filing:

- Form A-6, Tax Clearance
- Form G-5, GE Application for a One-Time Event
- Form G-39, GE Extension
- Form HW-26, WH Extension *
- Form TA-8, TA Extension
- Form RV-7, RV Extension
- Form HW-14, WH Period Return
- Form N-1, Estimated Income Tax (Individual)
- Form N-3, Estimated Income Tax (Corporation)
- Form N-5, Estimated Income Tax (Estates/Trusts)
- Form N-100, Automatic Extension (Partnership)

- Form N-101A, Automatic Extension (Individual) *
 - Form N-301, Automatic Extension (Corporation)
- (* Please note that Forms HW-26 and N-101A have been disabled since their due date has passed.)

We are working to add even more forms: Form N-13, Individual Income Tax Return (Resident Short Form) and Form N-15, Individual Income Tax Return (Nonresident and Part-Year Resident) should be available for e-filing in January 2002.

For more information, contact our Electronic Filing Coordinator, Susan Adaniya, at 808-587-1692, or via e-mail at efile@tax.state.hi.us.

Definition of "Real Property" for HARPTA

We have received a number of Forms N-288B, Application for Withholding Certificate for Dispositions by Nonresident Persons of Hawaii Real Property Interest, that have been rejected in part because the basis of the real property sold included furniture.

The issue arises because, for FIRPTA purposes, the definition of "U.S. real property" in section 1445, Internal Revenue Code (IRC), refers to the definition in section 897(c), IRC, which states that "(t)he term 'real property' includes movable walls, furnishings, and other personal property associated with the use of the real property."

The Direct Line ☎

By Director Marie Y. Okamura

In this issue, we are excited to bring you the latest initiative to make filing returns and making payments more convenient: expanded e-filing opportunities through the State's Internet portal! Our front page article provides details on Hawaii's e-file program.

The August 2001 issue of Government Technology ranks Hawaii as 23rd in its Taxation and Revenue category. This reflected a 168% point improvement as we were in 47th place last year. Our continuing efforts will result in an even more marked improvement next year.

E-mail access to the department was featured in our Fall 2000 issue. As a reminder, a detailed listing is provided in our Hawaii Tax Information at a Glance brochure, available on our website at www.state.hi.us/tax.

Real Property

However, for HARPTA purposes, section 235-68, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), does not refer to the definition in section 897(c), IRC, but instead refers to the definition in section 231-1, HRS. That definition does include certain machinery and other items that might be considered personal property in its definition of real property, but only when their removal "cannot be accomplished without substantial damage to the land, buildings, structures, fences, and improvements, excluding, however, any growing crops."

If the sales price includes an amount for furniture or other personal property that is not included in Hawaii's definition of real property, sellers must allocate a part of the sales price to the furniture or other personal property and use the balance to determine whether there is a loss on the sale of the real property. If you are preparing a Form N-288B for a sale involving personal property whose basis must be excluded, you also must attach an explanation of the method used to allocate the sales price between the real property and the furniture or other personal property.

Disability Exemption Forms

The certification and notification forms for Hawaii's income tax and general excise tax disability benefits have been combined into a single form.

Previously, an individual's disability was certified on Form N-857 (Physician's or Optometrist's Certified Report on Eye or Hearing Examination or Disability for Tax Exemption Purposes), and the individual notified the Department using Form N-172 (Claim for Exemption by Person with Impaired Sight or Hearing or by Totally Disabled Person).

Now, both the certification and notification are done on the Form N-172 (Rev. 2001), Claim for Tax Exemption by Person with Impaired Sight or Hearing or by Totally Disabled Person and Physician's Certification. Part I is completed by the taxpayer to provide information needed to claim the disability benefits allowed under Hawaii's income tax and general excise tax laws. Part II is completed by the appropriate medical practitioner to certify the taxpayer's disability. The original and one copy of the completed Form N-172 (Revised 2001) are then sent to the Department of Taxation. Form N-857 is now obsolete. Persons who previously filed Forms N-172 and N-857 with the Department do NOT need to be re-certified using the new form.

For more information on the disability benefits for qualifying taxpayers, see the instructions for Form N-172 (Rev. 2001) and Tax Information Releases No. 89-3 and No. 94-2.

uses a deduction method for qualified taxpayers with impaired sight, impaired hearing, or other disability, to claim certain allowable tax benefits on their general excise tax returns.

Qualifying taxpayers may exclude up to $2,000 of gross income per year from the general excise tax, and have any remaining amount taxed at a rate of 0.5%. Previously, qualifying taxpayers would compute the general excise tax liability by multiplying the taxable income by 0.5% instead of the 4% rate printed on the tax return. This reporting method caused processing delays.

To reduce errors and ensure the timely processing of returns, Form G-65 uses a deduction method to effect the 0.5% general excise tax rate. Form G-65 does NOT need to be attached to the tax returns, but it does need to be kept in the taxpayer's records.

General Excise Application for a One-Time Event

Form G-5, Application for General Excise/Use One-Time Event Identification Number, is one of the forms taxpayers may file electronically through the eHawaiiGov State portal. Some taxpayers e-file it mistaking it for Form BB-1, State of Hawaii Basic Business Application that licenses regular, on-going businesses in Hawaii.

Form G-5 was created to help out-of-state taxpayers doing business in Hawaii on a one-time basis such as a convention or trade show. It was first developed as a pilot form to assist an out-of-state nonprofit organization and its exhibitors obtain general excise tax licenses and simplify the reporting of the income from their in-Hawaii sales transacted during their Hawaii convention.

Out-of-state vendors who had no knowledge about Hawaii's licensing requirements needed a simple-to-understand form and instructions about filing to encourage them to comply with Hawaii's tax laws and thus, Form G-5 and instructions were developed.

Form G-5 should not be used for rentals or any other type of on-going business activities. Taxpayers receiving income from those types of activities must file Form BB-1, State of Hawaii Basic Business Application.

Fiscal Year Ended 2001 State Tax Collections

(In Millions of Dollars)

	FY 2001	FY 2000	Difference
			Amount	Percent
Individual Income Tax	$ 1,104.8	$ 1,064.6	$ 40.3	3.8%
Corporate Income Tax	60.8	68.2	-7.4	-10.9%
General Excise Tax	1,640.0	1,536.3	103.8	6.8%
Transient Accommodations Tax	177.2	168.6	8.6	5.1%
All Others	695.6	674.0	21.6	3.2%
Total Tax Collections	$ 3,678.4	$ 3,511.6	$ 166.8	4.7%
General Fund Revenues	$ 3,157.7	$ 2,972.3	$ 185.3	6.2%

(Note: Totals may not add up due to rounding.)

Total tax collections for fiscal year 2001 amounted to $3,678.4 million, increasing 4.7% over last fiscal year's total of $3,511.6 million. Fiscal year 2001 general excise tax collections grew by $103.8 million, followed by individual income tax with $40.3 million, and transient accommodations tax (TAT) by $8.6 million. Although visitor arrivals increased a mere 0.1%, fiscal year 2001 TAT collections grew 5.1%, mainly due to an increase in average daily room rates. Fiscal year 2001 corporate income tax collections dropped $7.4 million over the previous fiscal year.

Of the $3,678.4 million in taxes collected for fiscal year 2001, $3,157.7 million was allocated to the state general fund, an increase of $185.3 million from the previous fiscal year. While total tax collections increased by 4.7%, general fund revenues increased by 6.2%, partly because transfers to the special convention center fund ceased effective July 2000.
