Department of Taxation announces
2011 Summer Workshop Series

HONOLULU — Hawaii's tax professionals and the public is invited to attend a series of workshops to provide more information on filing taxes online and review of tax law changes adopted during the 2011 legislative session.

The workshop series will be conducted on Oahu, Maui, Kaua'i and Hawai'i Island from Aug. 11 to Aug. 23.

"These workshops promote our desire to partner with our community's tax professionals to educate and increase awareness of new tax law changes," said Director of Taxation Fred Pablo. "We want to ensure that the tax laws are applied consistently, uniformly, and fairly for taxpayers."

All workshops begin at 8:30 a.m. and end at 12:30 p.m. Registration begins at 8 a.m. This year's topics include information on Director Pablo's strategic plan, an update on efforts to provide more e-filing services, and a review of tax law changes adopted during the 2011 Legislative Session.

The cost for each workshop is $80 for those who register at least two weeks ahead; and $85 for those who register after that. The cost includes a continental breakfast and all workshop materials. Attendees can also receive four hours of Continuing Professional Education credit. Workshop materials may also be purchased separately for $25 each.
