Findings

THERE WAS ONE MATERIAL WEAKNESS and one significant deficiency in internal controls over financial reporting that were required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards. The material weakness is described on page 9 of the single audit report, and the significant deficiency is described on pages 10-11 of the single audit report.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

There were no findings that were considered material weaknesses in internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance. However, the auditors identified two significant deficiencies in internal control over compliance. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. The deficiencies are described on pages 12-14 of the single audit report.
