- July 1, 2021: At the invitation of the Beijing ETU School, a private K-12 school, SHOB had an opportunity to meet with Chinese educators. The ETU School was founded by ETU Education, an education innovation project with founding roots in Silicon Valley and Beijing. ETU Education is dedicated to offering a student-centered whole-person education by combining progressive pedagogy, including social emotional learning, project/phenomenon-based learning, and real-world inputs. Together with China's culturally rich curriculum, it is intended to cultivate active lifelong learners with high self-efficacy and innovative spirits who have passion to make changes in their communities.

Since the opening of the first school in Beijing in 2016, ETU has now built a global family of progressive schools in Palo Alto (imagination lab school-Global ETU Family), Beijing and Guangzhou in China. Through the partnership with the 25-year-old Beijing BISS International School (BISS) that offers all three International Baccalaureate (IB) programs, ISS will become a new addition to ETU's global network of partners.

PART 3. PROMOTED TRADE

In support of DBEDT's Hawaii State Trade Expansion Program (HiSTEP), SHOB researched and conducted a market analysis of Hong Kong and Mainland China for the Hawaii coffee industry.

In June 2021, SHOB identified two Hawaiian coffee growers who are currently exporting their products to China -- the Kona Hills Coffee and the Hawaiian Queen's Coffee. SHOB reached out to these companies and continued to dialogue with them about opportunities and issues.

SHOB also reached out to the China Tourist Hotels Association (CTHA), and Shanghai Sinoexpo Informa Markets International Exhibition Co., Ltd., organizers of the Hospitality Equipment & Foodservice Expo (HOTELEX) to discuss the possibilities to help Hawaii's coffee industry to enter the China market. HOTELEX is based on hotel catering, coffee, baking, bars, clubs, and supermarkets, to provide a high-quality "procurement hall" that explores the domestic catering industry via global consulting and product development. Promoting the development of the domestic catering industry is an important platform to understand. HOTELEX Shanghai has been held in China 30 times and is currently the world's largest hotel catering exhibition and known as one of the most influential expos in China.

PART 4. SUPPORTED DIFFERENT ORGANIZATIONS AND AGENCIES IN HAWAII AND MAINTAINED RELATIONSHIP WITH ORGANIZATIONS IN CHINA

- Continued to provide support to the Study Hawaii Consortium by representing schools at education fairs, organizing online webinars, and by distributing information and Study Hawaii's printed literature to schools, students, and parents in China.

Study Hawaii Strategic meeting via Zoom.

- SHOB provided support to the Hawaii Tourism Authority (HTA) to maintain Hawaii's tourism destination brand to the Chinese market. SHOB also supported HTA by attending travel fairs, maintained contacts within the industry, and assisted with branding through social media platforms.

- SHOB continued to have interactions with the Ministry of Culture and Tourism (MCT) and the Ministry of Education (MOE) after businesses reopened in 2021.

PART 5. LOOKING AHEAD

Travel and Tourism

When focusing on travel to Hawaii, there are few locations that compete with Hawaii. Hawaii has established a strong image as a quality destination. HTA's emphasis on new branding strategies that focuses on cultural content for Chinese travelers will likely stimulate and create demand from this market.

Chinese travelers are more experienced in international travel so are less attracted to island destinations such as in Southeast Asia. However, Hainan Province in China could be one of Hawaii's competitors. Hainan Province rolled out several ambitious plans to develop Hainan as the number one island travel destination, not only for domestic travelers, but also for travelers from Northeast Asia and from Far East Russia.

SHOB suggests that Hawaii should take the advantage of the Hawaii-Hainan Sister-State relationship to actively seek "coopetition" with Hainan Province. SHOB believes there are favorable opportunities for Hawaii to benefit from developments being made in Hainan Province.

Student Attraction

Concerns about safety and racism issues became more apparent for Chinese students seeking study abroad opportunities. Hawaii is in a better position in comparison to other U.S. states regarding these issues.

Beginning in 2021, China has drastically reduced the enrollment rate for high school and college admissions. It was estimated that 50% of middle school students are not able to enroll in high school in China. Some students may choose to attend a professional school, however, many would prefer to study abroad in order to complete high school and/or pursue higher educational opportunities. SHOB believes that K-12 education in Hawaii would definitely benefit from China's new policy.

According to SHOB's research efforts, the average expenditure from a K-12 Chinese student would be approximately $65,000 a year in Hawaii. This amount does not include funding support from parents while students are studying in Hawaii.

Other survey and research findings have indicated that over 90% of Chinese students who plan on studying abroad will not change their decision once it has been made.

Exporting coffee to China

There is no doubt that China is still a booming market for Hawaii's coffee industry. Coffee is considered as a posh drink in China representing a high-end lifestyle and consumption in society. Many specialty coffee shops in China are in the most expensive real estate areas in the city, and all the high-end coffee beans are imported from foreign countries giving the Hawaii coffee industry an opportunity to export their coffee to China. SHOB has compiled reports on Hawaii coffee in China and is looking forward to the Shanghai Coffee Mart that will be held in mid-December 2021 to confirm its research and observations.
