

Updates to American FactFinder

March 2015

American Factfinder is now available at factfinder.census.gov

- During the transition from the previous version of American FactFinder that began in 2011, this site has used the web address factfinder2.census.gov. We have completed the transition, and have changed the web address for American FactFinder to factfinder.census.gov. The old factfinder2 URL, as well as any links and bookmarks that were created using factfinder2 will continue to work, but any new links into American FactFinder should be created using factfinder.census.gov.

- Popular table links are now available from the American FactFinder Main Page.

The screenshot shows the American FactFinder website interface. At the top, there is a header with the U.S. Department of Commerce, United States Census Bureau logo, and the 'AMERICAN FactFinder' title with a magnifying glass icon. Navigation links include 'MAIN', 'COMMUNITY FACTS', 'GUIDED SEARCH', 'ADVANCED SEARCH', and 'DOWNLOAD CENTER'. A search bar is present with the text 'Enter a state, county, city, town, or zip code' and a 'GO' button. Below the search bar, there are links for 'Community Facts', 'Guided Search', 'Advanced Search', and 'Download Center'. A large image of a smiling woman is featured on the right side. A red box highlights the 'Popular Tables' section, which lists various data tables categorized by 'Population and Housing', 'Poverty and Income', and 'Age, Race, Sex and Education'. At the bottom, there is a 'News and Notes' section with a date of January 22, 2015, and a link to 'GET EMAIL UPDATES'.

Other Search Updates and Improvements

We have made several changes in the way search results are ranked in Advanced Search.

- Occurrence of certain keywords in a text search and selected product filters will make certain tables “super relevant”, and those tables are placed at the top of the search results.
- Past versions of American FactFinder prioritized certain table types (Data Profiles, Detailed Tables, etc.) in the search results. For example, Data Profiles were ranked higher than Subject Tables. For this release, we have modified the table type weighting to make search results more relevant to your query.
- When using table identifiers in text search, American FactFinder will now try to match variations of the table ID. For example, if you search for “DP1”, results for “DP-1” and “DP01” will also display.

Load Search and Save Search

- Use "Save Search" from the "Your Selections" box in Advanced Search to save your search criteria to a file on your local drive. This option does not save the actual search results, but saves the search criteria contained in "Your Selections" used for the current search.
- To retrieve a saved search, use the "Load Search" button from the "Your Selections" box in Advanced Search, or use the "Load Search/Query" button from the American FactFinder Main Page.

The screenshot shows the American FactFinder interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'U.S. Department of Commerce', 'United States Census Bureau', and 'AMERICAN FactFinder'. Below this is a search bar and navigation links like 'MAIN', 'COMMUNITY FACTS', 'GUIDED SEARCH', 'ADVANCED SEARCH', and 'DOWNLOAD CENTER'. The main content area is titled 'Advanced Search - Search all data in American FactFinder'. It shows a search for 'DP03 SELECTED ECONOMIC CHARACTERISTICS 2006-2012 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates'. The 'Table Viewer' tab is active, showing a table of data for the United States. To the left of the table, a 'Versions of this table' selector is highlighted, showing links for 2012, 2011, and 2010. The table itself has columns for 'Subject', 'Estimate', 'Margin of Error', 'Percent', and 'Percent Margin of Error'. The data is organized into sections: 'EMPLOYMENT STATUS', 'Population 16 years and over', 'In labor force', 'Civilian labor force', 'Employed', 'Unemployed', 'Armed Forces', 'Not in labor force', 'Civilian labor force', and 'Percent Unemployed'.

Versions of this table are available from the following years:

- Note that this feature provides links to tables for other years based on business rules. These rules use the table's program, dataset, ID, and name to try to find versions of the same table from other years. Results may not be complete. For example, if a table name is different between years, it might not be listed in the Year Selector.
