OUTLOOK FOR THE ECONOMY

As of the fourth quarter of 2024, Hawai‘i’s real gross domestic product (GDP) rebounded to 1.9 percent above the pre-pandemic level in the fourth quarter of 2019. Tourism-related sectors, including accommodation, transportation, retail trade, recreation, and food services, had only reached 94.3 percent of their pre-pandemic GDP levels by the end of 2024. In contrast, non-tourism sectors grew by 4.4 percent over the same period. Near term economic growth will be impacted by a slowdown in tourism, persistent consumer inflation, and uncertainty at the national and international levels. Hawai‘i’s economic resilience will depend on sustained strength in construction, real estate, health care, and professional services as tourism is projected to recover at a slower pace.

During the first four months of 2025, Hawai‘i’s labor market was one of the best in the nation, with unemployment rate ranked 5th lowest based on the seasonally adjusted rate and ranked 2nd lowest based on the not seasonally adjusted rate. Hawai‘i payroll job growth ranked the 4th highest in the nation during this period.

Construction continues to serve as a key driver of economic growth in Hawai‘i. In January 2025, the latest tax base data available, the contracting tax base increased 43.8 percent as compared with the same month a year ago. The number of residential units authorized statewide, during the first quarter of 2025, increased 89.8 percent from the same period a year earlier, with all counties seeing increases in authorized residential units.

After increasing 15.1 percent in 2024, Hawai‘i home sales decreased 27.2 percent during the first quarter of 2025. Sales of single-family homes decreased 23.7 percent and sales of condominium homes decreased 30.4 percent. The average sale price of single-family homes during the first quarter of 2025 increased 7.8 percent increase compared to the first quarter of 2024 while the average sale price for condominium homes decreased 1.6 percent from the same quarter a year ago.

The visitor industry performed well during the first quarter of 2025 with visitor arrivals increasing 1.7 percent and visitor expenditures increasing 6.5 percent compared to the first quarter of 2024. According to the airline flight schedule, however, the total number of air seats to Hawai‘i is expected to decline by 0.5 percent in 2025. This decrease is primarily driven by fewer international flights, especially from Japan. International seat capacity is projected to drop by 3.5 percent overall. Flights from the continental United States are expected increase by 0.3 percent.

According to the most recent (May 2025) economic projections by the top 50 economic forecasting organizations published in Blue Chip Economic Indicators, U.S. economic growth is expected to be 1.2 percent in 2025 and 1.5 percent in 2026. DBEDT estimates that Hawai‘i’s real GDP will increase by 1.2 percent in 2025. The forecast then projects 1.5 percent growth in 2026, 1.8 percent in 2027, and 1.8 percent in 2028.

Visitor arrivals are projected to decrease by 0.1 percent in 2025, grow by 0.7 percent in 2026, and then grow at around 2 percent each year in 2027 and 2028. Visitor spending is projected to be $21.2 billion in 2025 and to increase to $22.8 billion by 2028.

Non-agriculture payroll jobs are estimated to grow by 0.9 percent in 2025. The forecast projects increases of 0.8 percent in 2026, 1.0 percent in 2027 and 0.9 percent in 2028.

The state unemployment rate is expected to be 2.9 percent in 2025 and 2026. The unemployment rate will improve to 2.8 percent in 2027, and to 2.7 percent in 2028.

Nominal personal income is estimated to increase by 4.6 percent in 2025. The forecast then projects an increase of 4.3 percent in 2026, 4.2 percent in 2027, and 4.3 percent in 2028.

A. LABOR FORCE AND JOBS

Hawai‘i’s labor market conditions improved in the first quarter of 2025 compared to the first quarter of 2024, reflecting the ongoing recovery from the impacts of the August 2023 Maui wildfires. The civilian labor force and civilian employment increased. Civilian unemployment and the unemployment rate decreased. Civilian non-agricultural wage and salary jobs increased in both the private and government sectors compared to the first quarter of 2024.

In the first quarter of 2025, the civilian labor force averaged 690,050 people, an increase of 11,400 people or 1.7 percent from the same quarter of 2024 (Table A-1). In 2024, the civilian labor force increased 2,300 people or 0.3 percent from the previous year.

Civilian employment averaged 671,700 people in the first quarter of 2025, an increase of 12,100 people or 1.8 percent compared to the same quarter of 2024 (Table A-2). In 2024, average civilian employment increased 1,900 people or 0.3 percent from the previous year.

In the first quarter of 2025, the number of civilian unemployed averaged 18,350, a decrease of 700 people or 3.7 percent from the same quarter of 2024 (Table A-3). In 2024, the number of unemployed increased 450 people or 2.3 percent from the previous year.

The unemployment rate (not seasonally adjusted) was 2.6 percent in the first quarter of 2025, 0.2 of a percentage point lower compared to the first quarter of 2024 (Table A-4). In 2024, the unemployment rate increased by 0.1 of a percentage point from the previous year’s 2.9 percent to 3.0 percent.

In the first quarter of 2025, Hawai‘i’s non-agricultural wage and salary jobs averaged 647,800 jobs, an increase of 11,600 jobs or 1.8 percent from the same quarter of 2024 (Table A-6). In 2024, average non-agricultural wage and salary jobs increased 1.1 percent or 6,700 jobs from the previous year.

The job increase in the first quarter of 2025 was due to job increases in both the private sector and the government sector. In this quarter, the private sector added about 8,700 non-agricultural jobs compared to the first quarter of 2024. The majority of private sector industries added jobs in the quarter. The number of jobs increased the most in Health Care & Social Assistance, which added 2,100 jobs or 2.8 percent (Table A-16), followed by Food Services & Drinking Places, which added 1,500 jobs or 2.3 percent (Table A-19), Other Services, which gained 1,200 jobs or 4.5 percent (Table A-20), and Arts, Entertainment, and Recreation, which added 1,000 jobs or 7.6 percent (Table A-17).

The Government sector added 2,900 jobs or 2.3 percent (Table A-21) in the first quarter of 2025 compared to the same quarter of 2024. The Federal Government lost 400 jobs or 1.1 percent (Table A-22), the State Government added 2,800 jobs or 3.9 percent (Table A-23), and the Local Government added 500 jobs or 2.7 percent (Table A-24), compared to the first quarter of 2024.

Chained (2012) dollar Gross Domestic Product by State (GDP) [Note: formerly called 'Gross State Product'] series are calculated (using national chain-type implicit price deflators) as the product of the chain-type quantity index and the 1996 current-dollar value of the corresponding series, divided by 100. Because the formula for the chain-type quantity indexes uses weights of more than one period, the corresponding chained-dollar estimates are usually not additive; that is, state totals usually do not add to regional totals or to U.S. totals, and regional totals usually do not add to U.S. totals.

Civilian Employment – Persons 16 years of age or older who, during the survey week containing the 12th of the month, were either at work for pay or profit, or worked without pay for 15 hours or more on a family farm or business, or were with a job but not at work. Both permanent and temporary employees and those who are working either full- or part-time are included.

Civilian Labor Force –Total of employed and unemployed persons, excluding those in the armed forces and 16 years of age or under. U.S. Census Bureau does surveys for the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Consumer Price Index: Honolulu (Urban Hawai'i) or U.S. – Measure of the average change in prices over time for a fixed market basket of goods and services. It is compiled by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. The index measures changes from a reference date, i.e., 1982-84, which is designated as 100.0. For example, a Honolulu CPI-U (where U refers to All Urban Consumers), All Items, of 171.5 as the annual average for 1998 indicates the average prices of that group's basket was 71.5 percent higher than the weighted average of those same goods and services in 1982-84. Data are published monthly for the U.S. and semi-annually for Honolulu. As of January 1998, BLS updated the reference basket based on 1982-84 consumer expenditures, but the base remains 1982-84 = 100.0. The BLS Internet site has more information about the CPI at http://www.bls.gov/cpi/home.htm.

The major portion of this sector comprises establishments that rent, lease, or otherwise allow the use of their own assets by others. The assets may be tangible, as is the case of real estate and equipment, or intangible, as is the case with patents and trademarks. Excluded from this sector are real estate investment trusts (REITS) and establishments primarily engaged in renting or leasing equipment with operators. In many cases, such as the rental of heavy construction equipment, the operator is essential to operate the equipment.

Food services and drink activities at hotels and motels; amusement parks, theaters, casinos, country clubs, and similar recreational facilities; and civic and social organizations are included here only if these services are provided by a separate establishment primarily engaged in providing food and beverage services. Excluded are establishments operating dinner cruises which are classified as scenic and sightseeing transportation because those establishments utilize transportation equipment to provide scenic recreational entertainment.

Gross Domestic Product by State (GDP) [Note: formerly called 'Gross State Product'] – GDP is the value added in production by the labor and property located in a state. GDP for a state is derived as the sum of the GDP originating in all industries in the state. The estimates of real GDP are derived by applying national implicit price deflators by detailed industry to the current-dollar GDP estimates by detailed industry. Then, in order to capture the differences across states that reflect the relative differences in the mix of goods and services that the states produce, the same chain-type index formula used in the national accounts is used to calculate the estimates of total real GDP and real GDP by major industry.

Health Care & Social Assistance Jobs – This industry includes establishments that provide both health care and social assistance for individuals. Both are included as it is sometimes difficult to distinguish between the boundaries of these two activities starting with those establishments providing medical care exclusively, continuing with those providing health care and social assistance, and finally finishing with those providing only social assistance. These services are delivered by trained professionals and the industries are defined based on the educational degree held by its practitioners. Excluded are aerobic classes and nonmedical diet and weight reducing centers. Although these can be viewed as health services, these services are not typically delivered by health practitioners.

Hotel Occupancy Rate – The percentage of occupied rooms in a hotel. Hotel occupancy rates depend not only on the number of visitors and their length of stay, but also on the hotel room inventory, e.g., a large increase in new hotel units results in a drop in occupancy rates, until such time as visitor traffic builds up enough to fill them. Rates are obtained from a sample survey conducted on a monthly basis.

Hotel Rental Tax Base – is the economic base from which all hotel business activity is taxed. It includes the furnishing of temporary accommodations in a hotel, or other place in which lodgings are regularly furnished to transients for compensation.

For the purpose of developing NAICS, it is the transformation of information into a commodity that is produced and distributed by a number of growing industries that is at issue. The Information sector groups three types of establishments: (1) those engaged in producing and distributing information and cultural products; (2) those that provide the means to transmit or distribute these products as well as data or communications; and (3) those that process data. Many of the industries in the NAICS Information sector are engaged in producing products protected by copyright law, or in distributing them (other than distribution by traditional wholesale and retail methods). Examples are traditional publishing industries, software and directory and mailing list publishing industries, and film and sound industries. Broadcasting and telecommunications industries and information providers and processors are also included in the Information sector, because their technologies are so closely linked to other industries in the Information sector.

Local Government Jobs – Includes those in the county governments.

Manufacturing Jobs – Are in establishments engaged in the mechanical, physical, or chemical transformation of materials, substances, or components into new products. The assembling of component parts of manufactured products is considered manufacturing, except in cases where the activity is appropriately classified as construction. Included in manufacturing are plants, factories, or mills and characteristically use power-driven machines and materials-handling equipment. However, establishments that transform materials or substances into new products by hand or in the worker's home and those engaged in selling to the general public products made on the same premises from which they are sold, such as bakeries, candy stores, and custom tailors, may also be included in this sector. Manufacturing establishments may process materials or may contract with other establishments to process their materials for them.

Both types of establishments are included in manufacturing. The following activities are considered manufacturing in NAICS: milk or water bottling and pasteurizing; fresh fish packaging; printing and related activities; ready-mixed concrete production; ship repair and renovation; machine shops; and tire retreading.
