^{1/} The military families figure is comprised of military personnel accompanied by dependents (i.e. spouses, children).

^{2/} Both spouses are permanent-party military personnel and form one family. Only one spouse is counted in the military families column and the other spouse is counted in the military couples category unless otherwise specified.

^{3/} Includes both single personnel as well as married personnel who do not have family members living with them.

^{4/} No figures were available separately for military couples. Both spouses were counted under the military families category.
