

Table 1.04-- RESIDENT AND DE FACTO POPULATION, BY RESIDENCE
STATUS: 2010 TO 2023

[As of July 1. The de facto population is defined as the number of persons physically present in an area, regardless of usual place of residence. It includes visitors present but excludes residents temporarily absent, both calculated as an average daily census. The estimates in this table may differ from earlier figures due to revised population and visitor estimates released during the year]

1/ The resident population is defined as the number of persons whose usual place of residence is in an area, regardless of physical location on the estimate or census date. It includes military personnel stationed or homeported in the area and residents temporarily absent, but excludes visitors present. The estimates for 2010-2019 are DBEDT estimates and the estimates for 2020-2023 are estimates by the Census Bureau (vintage 2023 estimates)

2/ Average daily census of visitors who came by air or by ship.

Source: De facto population are DBEDT estimates based on population estimates by the U.S. Census Bureau (Table co-est2023-pop-15) for 2020-2023; population estimates by DBEDT for 2010-2019 (<http://dbedt.hawaii.gov/economic/datawarehouse>); and DBEDT tourism research, Annual Visitor Research Report, and records.
