FOREWORD

By George R. Ariyoshi
Governor, State of Hawaii

Accurate, timely and substantial information is essential to sound decision-making. The State of Hawaii has long recognized that orderly State growth and planned prosperity require a continuing, efficient organization of statistical data and other information into forms which are easily used and readily available to all who need them. This State of Hawaii Data Book 1980 is the latest example of the State Administration's constant effort to provide and improve this important service to Hawaii's citizens.

The Data Book is invaluable for Government administrators. It is vital to all agencies, companies, organizations and individuals who carry out a great variety of forms of research in the Islands and overseas. It is very useful to other citizens who have only an occasional need for accurate statistics. It is a book which, thanks to the professionalism of its compilers, can be depended upon, and upon which thousands do depend. And it is only one--although perhaps the best one--of a large number of excellent data sources which Hawaii makes available.

Through such reference works, Hawaii is able to go about its myriad tasks with confidence that its information base is sound. This State of Hawaii Data Book 1980 is one of many proofs we have that our people know what they are doing, and where they are going, and are reasonably certain they can achieve their goals.

INTRODUCTION

Department of Planning and Economic Development

The State of Hawaii Data Book: A Statistical Abstract is intended to serve as the standard official summary of statistics on the social, economic, and political organization of the State. Like its long-established counterpart, the Statistical Abstract of the United States, it may be used as either a convenient volume of statistical reference or a guide to other statistical publications and sources.

The present volume, containing statistics available in the summer of 1980, is the fourteenth such abstract to be published by the State of Hawaii. Earlier editions appeared in 1962, 1967, 1968, and annually beginning in 1970. All are now out of print, but copies can be seen in many high school, university, and public libraries in Hawaii.

The Data Book closely follows the organization and format of the U.S. Abstract, in order to facilitate comparison of Hawaii data with corresponding series for the nation and other jurisdictions.

Emphasis in the Data Book is given to the most recent available State data. Historical statistics and information for counties, islands, urban places, and smaller areas receive more limited attention. The publications cited as sources in the introductions to the various sections or at the end of each table usually contain additional statistical detail and a more comprehensive discussion of relevant definitions and concepts than can be presented here. Persons interested in more extensive information should consult these sources or write to the agencies responsible for them.

Many Federal, State, County and private organizations cooperated in the preparation of this report. These agencies are credited in the source references to the tables to which they contributed. Their assistance is gratefully acknowledged.

GUIDE TO TABULAR PRESENTATION

The tables in this report generally follow the principles of tabular presentation used by the U.S. Bureau of the Census in its annual publication, Statistical Abstract of the United States, and described in Bureau of the Census Manual of Tabular Presentation, published by the Bureau in 1950. These principles have been accepted by the Department of Planning and Economic Development for use in its publications and recommended to all other State agencies for official use.

Headnotes immediately below table titles provide information important for correct interpretation or evaluation of the table as a whole or for a major segment of it.

Unit indicators ("In thousands," "In millions of dollars," etc.) are usually given as the first element of the headnote. In tables where several units are used, the unit indicators are generally given in the stub or in the column headings.

Footnotes below the bottom rule of tables give information relating to specific items or figures within the table.

Parallel vertical rules are used to the right of a total column to indicate --

- (1) that the components which follow add to the total;
- (2) in the case of derived figures, that the underlying data are additive to their total.

The following symbols, used in the tables throughout this book, are explained in condensed form in footnotes to the tables where they appear:

- Represents zero or rounds to less than half the unit of measurement shown.
- D Figure withheld to avoid disclosure of information pertaining to a specific organization or individual.
- NA Data not enumerated, tabulated, or otherwise available separately.
- ... Same as NA; used in tables in which a large number of cells lack data.

In many tables, details will not add to the totals shown because of rounding.

Median: The value which divides the distribution into two equal parts--one-half the cases falling below this value and one-half exceeding it.

Geographic coverage should be understood as Statewide, unless otherwise indicated in the table title, headnote, boxhead, or stub. All annual statistics should be understood as referring to calendar years unless otherwise indicated.

This section presents statistics on the growth, geographic distribution, and characteristics of the population of Hawaii, and on the number and characteristics of migrants moving to and from the State.

Preliminary tabulations of the 1980 census indicate a resident population approaching one million. This total includes approximately 61,000 members of the armed forces and 64,000 of their dependents. It excludes more than 100,000 visitors who were present on an average day in 1980, while including around 10,000 residents who were temporarily out of the State. The total population has risen from 58,000 in 1878 to 154,000 in 1900 and 423,000 in 1940 (although a wartime peak of 859,000 was reached in 1944). Approximately four-fifths of the 1980 de facto total lived on Oahu, giving that island a density in excess of 1,300 persons per square mile. The population is young -- the median age in 1979 was 28.3 years -- and racially diversified. The major unmixed groups in 1979 were Caucasians (25.7 percent of the non-barracks, non-institutional population) and Japanese (24.8 percent). In addition, 28.3 percent were of mixed race, primarily part Hawaiian. Migration has been a major factor in the growth of the population: between 1970 and 1979, there was a net in migration (excluding military personnel and dependents) of 61,200, accounting for almost half of the total civilian population growth during that time. Intended residents arriving aboard westbound civilian carriers in fiscal 1978 numbered 47,300, of whom 27,600 were military personnel and dependents and 19,700 were other civilians. Immigrant arrivals in fiscal 1978 exceeded 9,000, mostly from the Philippines and Korea.

The comparison of demographic data from different sources is often complicated by the use of differing definitions and coverage. Some series, for example, refer to resident population, while others pertain to de facto population; the latter includes visitors present but excludes residents temporarily absent. Total population includes armed forces stationed in an area, as well as their dependents in the area; civilian population excludes military personnel but includes their dependents. Perhaps the greatest confusion is that resulting from the arbitrary allocation of persons of mixed race in the 1970 and 1980 U.S. Censuses. Such groups were shown separately in earlier censuses, and are still reported separately in data issued by State agencies.

The principal sources for these data are the decennial population censuses conducted by the U.S. Bureau of the Census, the estimates developed annually by the Hawaii State Department of Health and Department of Planning and Economic Development in cooperation with the Bureau of the Census, the Hawaii Health Surveillance Program conducted regularly since 1969 by the Department of Health, the OEO 1975 Census Update Survey, and the ongoing series on migration maintained by the Hawaii Visitors Bureau and U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. The Department of Planning and Economic Development summarizes these data in two series of reports, both issued annually: The Population of Hawaii and Hawaii's In-Migrants. Another annual report distributed by DPED contains population estimates by census tracts. Much additional information will become available when the final results of the 1980 Census of Population are published in 1981 and 1982. Earlier figures on population and migration are given in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Sections 1 and 3. Comparable national statistics on population and migration appear in sections 1 and 3 of Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979.

1/ The urban population comprises all persons living in urbanized areas (first defined for Hawaii in 1960) and in places of 2,500 or more outside urbanized areas. Statistical boundaries were first established for Honolulu in 1831, Hilo in 1911 (for 1910 census tabulations), and other urban places beginning in 1930.

2/ The rural population includes all persons living outside urban places.

3/ Annual rate since the preceding census, based on the formula for continuous compounding.

4/ Total population also reported as 130,313.

5/ Total population also reported as 108,393 and 108,579.

6/ Preliminary.

Table 7.-- LAND AREA, 1980, AND RESIDENT POPULATION, 1970
AND 1980, OF ISLANDS, CITIES, TOWNS, AND VILLAGES

(This table presents data for the 101 places defined by the Hawaii State Department of Planning and Economic Development, in cooperation with the Bureau of the Census, for the 1980 decennial census, under authority granted by Sec. 26-18, Hawaii Revised Statutes, 1976 Replacement. Boundaries of a large number of places were significantly altered between 1970 and 1980, and the 1970 and 1980 population counts accordingly refer to different areas. Although described in the legislation as "cities, towns, and villages," none of these places is an independent municipality with separate governmental and taxing powers; the boundaries determined for these places are statistical rather than political.)

2/ Preliminary data.

3/ These places were newly defined for 1980.

4/ Aiea was redefined for 1980 to include four places shown separately in 1970: Aiea (12,560), Foster Village (3,755), Halawa Heights (5,809), and Waimalu (2,982). The 1970 population shown here is the sum of the figures for the separate places.

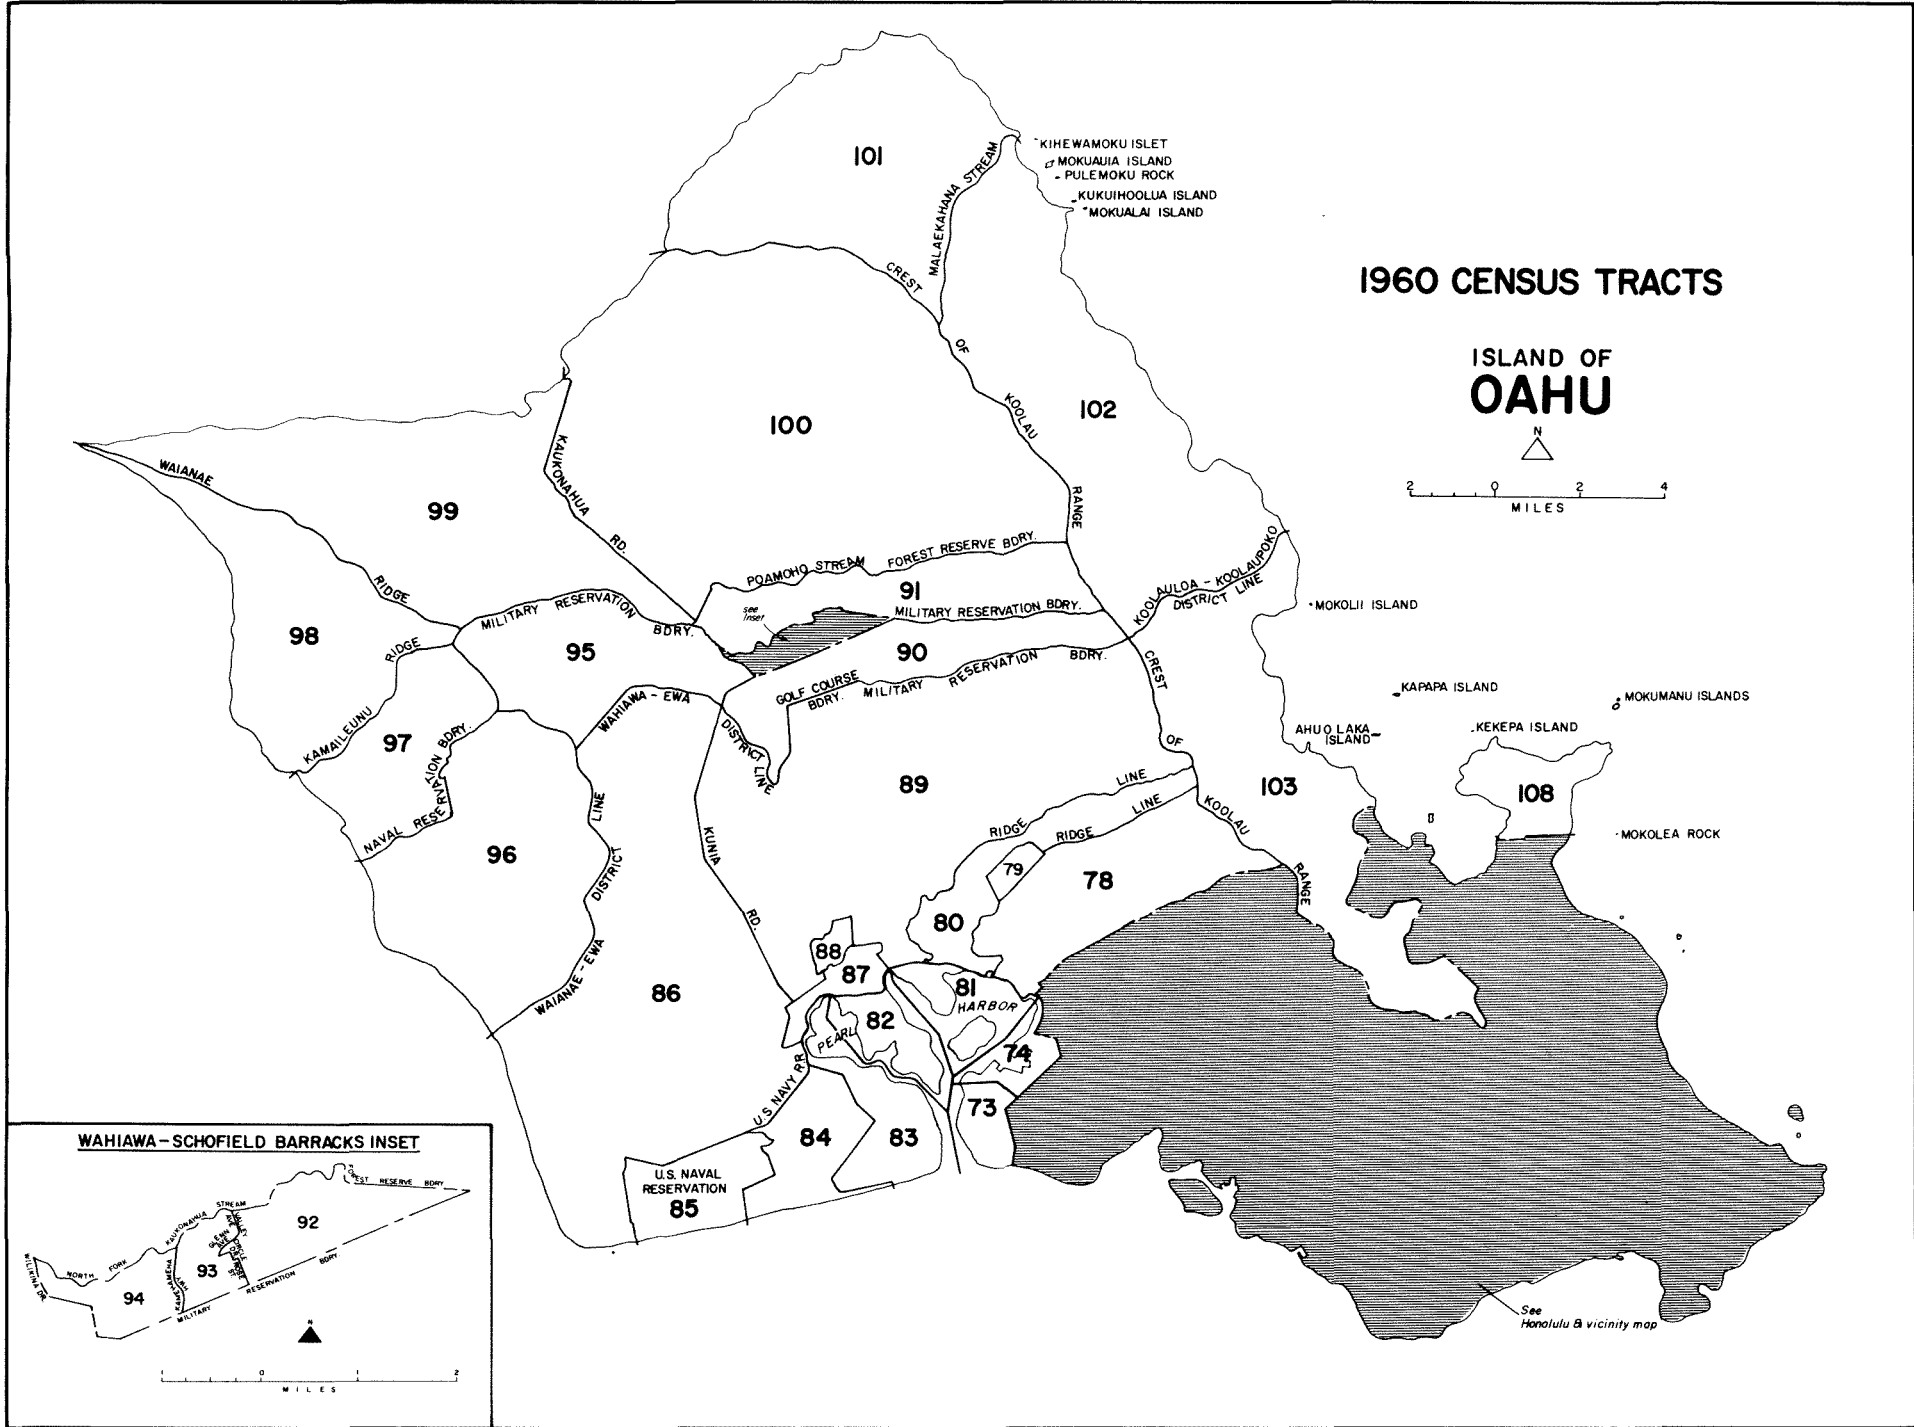

5/ Excluding the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands (1,895 acres; 31 inhabitants in both 1970 and 1980), legally part of Honolulu. Including the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands, Honolulu had a land area of 53,723 acres and a population of 324,871 in 1970 and 365,114 in 1980.

6/ Pearl City was redefined for 1980 to include two places shown separately in 1970: Pacific Palisades (7,846) and Pearl City (19,552). The 1970 population shown here is the sum of the figures for those two places.

Table 8.-- POPULATION, 1979 AND 1985, HOUSING UNITS, 1979, AND EMPLOYMENT, 1975, FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU, BY CENSUS TRACTS -- Con.

1/ By place of work. Data include armed forces as well as civilian workers, and are on a job rather than person basis. Workers with more than one job are accordingly counted more than once.

2/ As defined for statistical purposes under the provisions of Act 25, Session Laws of Hawaii, 1963. This area, extending from Honolulu International Airport to Makapuu Point (plus the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands), is coterminous with Honolulu District. Although Honolulu is the largest urban concentration in the City and County of Honolulu (the legal municipality, which encompasses the entire island), it lacks any separate governmental identify or powers.

3/ The Northwestern Hawaiian Islands, from Nihoa to Kure Atoll (but excluding Midway), which are legally part of the City and County of Honolulu.

1/ Years ended June 30, 1971 through 1976; three-month period ended September 30, 1976; years ended September 30, 1977 forward.

2/ The 1975 figure excludes approximately 2,000 Vietnamese refugees still in parole status at the end of the fiscal year; these immigrants were counted in later years upon admission under the regular immigration program.

3/ Implicit change resulting from emigration and interstate migration. Calculated as a residual from data on net change (as interpolated from the January alien address reports), immigration, naturalization, and alien deaths. These estimates are affected by both underreporting in the alien address reports and delayed inclusion of refugee aliens in the annual immigration totals.

Source: Aliens who reported under the alien address program, immigrants admitted, and aliens naturalized from the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, Annual Report (annual) and records; alien deaths from the Hawaii State Department of Health, records; other components of change calculated as a residual by the Hawaii State Department of Planning and Economic Development.

VITAL STATISTICS AND HEALTH

This section presents data on births, deaths, marriages, divorces, morbidity, drug abuse, hospitals, and health personnel.

Vital indexes generally reflect the high health standards of Hawaii. Expectation of life at birth was 74 years for males and 78 years for females in 1975. The crude death rate in 1979 was only 5.6 per 1,000 resident population. Deaths under one year of age per 1,000 live births numbered 12.0 in 1978. Diseases of the heart have accounted for almost a third of all deaths in recent years; cancer, for over one-fifth. The 1979 crude birth rate was 19.2 per 1,000 resident population. The total fertility rate for civilians fell from 3,360 per 1,000 women in 1960 to 2,461 in 1970 and 1,821 in 1975. Over 98 percent of all babies were born in hospitals in 1978, and over one-fifth were born to military couples. One out of six births was illegitimate. There were 7,273 fetal deaths in 1978, including 5,806 elective abortions. Marriages numbered 11,679 in 1979, with about 22 percent accounted for by nonresidents. Divorces reached a 1979 total of 5,056. The State had 22 acute care civilian hospitals (with 2,260 beds), 32 skilled nursing and intermediate care facilities (with 2,355 beds), and 264 care homes (with 1,460 beds) in 1978. There were 1,643 physicians and surgeons, 616 dentists, 5,583 professional nurses, and 364 pharmacists licensed and living in Hawaii as of May 1980. Acute conditions per 100 persons averaged 170 per year in 1977-1978, with respiratory conditions the most common complaint (at 112 cases per 100 persons). Among chronic conditions reported in the 1977-1978 survey data, the most frequently mentioned were hypertension without heart involvement (6.4 per 100 persons), hay fever (5.0), and asthma (3.6). The most common communicable disease reported to authorities in 1978 was scarlet fever with 4,959 cases. State mental health facilities served 11,642 patients in 1978, but the number of in-patients at the end of the year was only 263. Dental health was only fair: the average number of decayed, missing or filled teeth when last surveyed was 6.85 for intermediate school students and 10.61 for those in high school.

Major sources for data on vital statistics and health are the annual statistical reports of the Hawaii State Department of Health and various publications of the U.S. Public Health Service. Long-term trends are traced in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 2. Sections 2 and 4 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979 contain similar data for the nation as a whole.

EDUCATION

This section presents statistics on enrollment in public and private schools, colleges and universities; students graduated and degrees awarded; the highest grade of school completed; school facilities, personnel, and expenditures; and libraries.

Enrollment in elementary, intermediate and high schools in 1979-1980 totaled 205,580, about 0.6 percent less than in the preceding year and 4.6 percent below the all-time high reached in 1971-1972. There were 229 public schools with 8,291 classroom teachers and 168,393 students (81.9 percent of the total). There were also 140 private schools with 2,059 teachers and 37,187 pupils. Students graduating from public and private high schools in 1978-1979 numbered 14,097. Some 49,508 students attended colleges and universities in the State in 1979-1980, including 20,833 on the Manoa Campus of the University of Hawaii, 258 at West Oahu College, 3,099 at UH-Hilo, 19,185 at six community colleges, and 6,133 in four private colleges and universities. Eighty-seven percent of the children 5 and 6 years old were in school in 1970 (compared with 68 percent in 1950), and 53 percent in the 18- and 19-year-old group were enrolled (compared with 36 percent twenty years earlier). The expenditure per pupil in public schools rose from $818 in 1969-1970 to $1,981 in 1978-1979. Among adults, the illiteracy rate dropped from 8.4 percent in 1950 to 1.9 percent in 1970, and by 1979 approximately 21.3 percent of all residents 25 years of age or more could report having completed four or more years of college. The Hawaii State Library System, with 46 locations in all four counties, had 3.15 million books, film reels, phonorecords, and other collections in 1979, with an annual circulation of 5.01 million; the University of Hawaii libraries in the same year counted 2.00 million volumes.

The principal sources of data on education are the U.S. Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Hawaii State Department of Education, University of Hawaii and private colleges and universities. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 9, contains Island data back to 1820. Section 5 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979 presents comparable information for the nation as a whole.

Section 4

LAW ENFORCEMENT, COURTS, AND CORRECTIONS

Statistics in this section refer to crime and delinquency, the police, the judiciary system, prisons, and youth correctional facilities.

Major offenses reported to the police in 1979 numbered 66,000, or almost twice as many as in 1969. The rate per 1,000 population has increased from 48 in 1969 to 72 in 1979. Eighty percent of the 1979 total occurred on Oahu. For the State as a whole, major offenses known to police in 1979 included 66 murders or cases of non-negligent manslaughter, 296 rapes, 1,688 robberies, 597 aggravated assaults, 16,522 burglaries, 40,534 cases of larceny, and 6,542 auto thefts. Organized crime accounted for 55 murders in a ten-year period. The value of property reported stolen in 1979 amounted to $25 million, exclusive of motor vehicles; only 10.6 percent was recovered. In 1977, when asked "Have you or your immediate family been a victim of crime (burglary, assault, etc.) in Hawaii since 1970?," forty percent of all Oahu adults and a fourth of all Neighbor Island adults answered affirmatively. Twenty percent of the major offenses known to police were cleared by arrest or otherwise in 1979. Fifty percent of the persons arrested for major crimes and 35 percent of those arrested for lesser offenses in 1979 were less than eighteen years of age. Inmates of the ten State correctional institutions averaged 698 during 1979; of this number, 412 were adults serving time for felonies. Cases filed in the State Supreme Court, four circuit courts, and four district courts and their divisions during fiscal 1979 numbered 819,000, including 733,000 traffic cases. Filings in the United States District Court for Hawaii included 577 civil cases, 1,699 criminal cases, and 582 bankruptcy cases. The last legal execution in Hawaii took place in 1944. Governmental expenditures on the criminal justice system in 1977 amounted to $89 million, more than half of the total going for police protection.

Statistics on law enforcement, courts, and corrections in Hawaii appear in the annual reports of the county police departments, the State Judiciary, the Department of Social Services and Housing, and the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The Hawaii Criminal Justice Statistical Analysis Center issues quarterly and annual reports titled Crime in Hawaii. Figures on crime, the courts, and corrections in earlier years appear in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 10. National data are summarized in the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Section 6.

Section 5

GEOGRAPHY AND ENVIRONMENT

This section relates to area, climatologic, topographic, hydrologic, noise and other geographic and environmental measurements of Hawaii.

The State consists of eight major islands and 124 minor islands with a total land area of 6,425 square miles and a general coastline of 750 miles. Honolulu is 214 miles from Hilo, 1,367 miles from Kure Atoll (the westernmost end of the State), 2,397 miles from San Francisco, and 4,829 miles from Washington, D.C. The highest peak in the State is Mauna Kea, 13,796 feet above sea level; the longest stream is Kaukonahua Stream, Oahu, 33 miles in length; the biggest lake is Halalii, on Niihau, 841 acres; and the highest named waterfall is Kahiwa, Molokai, a 1,750-foot cascade. Various measures of air pollution, such as suspended particulate matter, indicate that Honolulu is one of the cleanest cities in the nation. There is also relatively little water pollution: sixteen major Oahu beaches surveyed in 1979 were found to have coliform levels per 100 ml. ranging from 3.7 to 94.8, and all were well within EPA standards. More than 1,100 species, subspecies, and varieties of native flora were endangered, threatened, or extinct, according to a 1977 survey. Climatically, Hawaii is marked by remarkably balmy temperatures and wide variations in rainfall. The all-time temperature range at Honolulu International Airport, for example, was from 53° to 92°F. Normal precipitation, however, ranges from 5.7 inches near Kawaihae, South Kohala, to 486 inches atop Waialeale. The longest volcanic eruption in Island history lasted 867 days, the worst earthquake attained 7.5 on the Richter scale, and the highest tsunami wave reached 56 feet. Water withdrawn for use in 1975 averaged 2.5 billion gallons per day, compared with 2.7 billion in 1970 and 2.0 billion in 1965. Among thirty neighborhoods on Oahu, median noise levels in 1974 ranged from 44.7 decibels (in Pearl City) to 61.5 decibels (in Waikiki).

Important sources of data include the U.S. Geological Survey, National Ocean Survey, National Weather Service, U.S. Bureau of the Census Geography Division, the Division of Water and Land Development of the State Department of Land and Natural Resources, the State Department of Health, and the University of Hawaii Institute of Geophysics. Detailed information is given in Atlas of Hawaii, published by the University Press of Hawaii in 1973, and Hawai'i, the Natural Environment, issued by the Department of Planning and Economic Development in 1974. National data are reported in Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Section 7.

1/ Figures are lengths of general outline of seacoast. Measurements were made with a unit measure of 30 minutes of latitude on charts as near the scale of 1:1,200,000 as possible. Coastline of bays is included to a point where they narrow to width of unit measure, and includes the distance across at such point. Figures for the islands of Maui County are not consistent with the published county total.

2/ Figures obtained in 1939-1940 with a recording instrument on the largest-scale charts and maps then available. Shoreline of outer coast, offshore islands, bays, rivers, and creeks is included to the head of tidewater or to a point where tidal waters narrow to a width of 100 feet.

3/ Derived from data expressed in statute miles; independently rounded and accordingly may not add exactly to indicated totals and subtotals. 1 mi. = 1.609 km.

4/ Among the States and Territories, Hawaii ranks fourth in general coastline and seventeenth in tidal shoreline.

5/ Excludes the Midway Islands, which are part of the Hawaiian Archipelago but not legally part of the State of Hawaii. Midway has a general coastline of 20 miles and a tidal shoreline of 33 miles.

1/ Areas in square kilometers and acres were calculated directly from the figures shown for square miles (except for Molokini, Lehua, Kaula, and the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands, for which square miles calculated to three decimal places were used); these equivalents were independently rounded, and hence may not add exactly to the indicated totals and subtotals. 1 sq. mi. = 640 A. = 2.58999 sq. km.

2/ Dry land and land temporarily or partially covered by water, as marshland, swamps, etc.; streams and canals under one-eighth statute mile wide; and lakes, reservoirs, and ponds under 40 acres of area.

3/ Permanent inland water surface, such as lakes, reservoirs, and ponds having 40 acres or more of area; streams, sloughs, estuaries, and canals one-eighth of a statute mile or more in width; deeply indented embayments and sounds, and other coastal waters behind or sheltered by headlands or islands separated by less than one nautical mile of water; and islands having less than 40 acres of area.

4/ More exactly, the area of Molokini is 18.6 acres (equivalent to 0.03 square miles or 0.075 square kilometers).

5/ Exclusive of the Midway Islands, which are part of the Hawaiian Archipelago but not legally part of the State of Hawaii. Islands included in the State and their land areas in square miles are: Nihoa, 0.298; Necker Island, 0.091; French Frigate Shoals, 0.088; Gardner Pinnacles, 0.004; Maro Reef, awash; Laysan Island, 1.312 (plus 0.220 of inland water, for a total area of 1.533); Lisianski Island, 0.675; Pearl and Hermes Atoll, 0.122; and Kure Atoll, 0.371.

Endemic birds are those peculiar to a particular region, in this case Hawaii, and therefore found nowhere else in the world; indigenous birds are those native to a given region, in this case Hawaii, but with a total range of distribution encompassing a much wider area. The classification is that in Andrew J. Berger, Hawaiian Birdlife (1972).

LAND USE AND OWNERSHIP

General statistics on the use, ownership, and tenure of land appear in this section. Information on specific use or ownership categories is given elsewhere: parks in section 7, military land in section 10, farms in section 19, and forests in section 20.

Out of the 4,128,000 acres in the State, almost 2,200,000 are in unused open space. Other major categories include agriculture, with 1,356,000 acres, services (including military installations), with 125,000, and recreation, with 273,000. In the Honolulu Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area (which is coterminous with Oahu), land in residential use increased from 16,500 acres in 1964 to 27,100 in 1978; during the same 14-year span, agricultural land declined from 94,500 to 75,600 acres. For the State as a whole, the Land Use Commission has zoned 152,000 acres as "urban," 1,976,000 as "conservation," 1,974,000 as "agricultural," and 9,000 as "rural."

Recent data on land ownership indicate that the Federal government owns 7.3 percent of all land, the State and counties own 34.8 percent, and private owners (chiefly large estates) have 57.9 percent. Total Federal holdings reported by the General Services Administration come to 402,900 acres, exclusive of leased land (48,500 acres); most of the Federal land is in park and military use. The State Department of Hawaiian Home Lands holds about 190,000 acres, divided among 3,052 lessees. Total land parcels in the State number 366,000.

Considerable caution is necessary in comparing statistics from different sources on land use, ownership, or tenure. Variations in definitions and survey dates seriously affect comparability in many instances, even where terminology is relatively unambiguous and misinterpretation seems unlikely. An example of such difficulties is the wide range in estimates of Federal land, with Federal totals ranging from 297,000 acres to 403,000. Recent statistics on military land use are likewise confusing, going as high as 175,000 acres and as low as 56,000.

Reports of the U.S. Department of Agriculture and General Services Administration, Hawaii State Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, Department of Land and Natural Resources, Department of Planning and Economic Development, Department of Taxation, and Land Use Commission, and county planning departments provided the data for this section. Greater detail appears in DPED Statistical Report 98, Land Use and Ownership Trends in Hawaii, issued December 28, 1973. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 12, contains limited information for earlier years. Statistics for the nation as a whole are available in Sections 8 and 24 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979.

1/ Because of the omission of public thoroughfares and for other reasons, totals by island may differ considerably from official area estimates in other tables in this volume.

2/ State land ceded by presidential proclamation or governor's executive order to the federal government appears in most cases to have been classified for this table as federal land, even though title to it technically remains with the state. Land ceded by the state to the counties, in contrast, has probably been classified as state land. For both types of ceded land, treatment may have varied from parcel to parcel, and no firm statement is possible.

3/ For data on the leasehold status of privately owned land, see the two following tables.

4/ Lehua, Kaula, and the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands other than Midway. Source follows next table.

Section 7

RECREATION AND TOURISM

Statistics on tourism, recreation, cultural activities, and parks appear in this section. Information on recreational land use is given in Section 6; on transportation, in Section 18; on hotels, in Section 23.

Tourism has shown impressive growth in recent decades. Approximately 3,961,000 visitors stayed overnight or longer in Hawaii during 1979, compared with 1,527,000 in 1969 and only 243,000 in 1959. The average number present at any given time during 1979 was 105,000, almost three times the 1969 average. Total visitor expenditures (exclusive of trans-Pacific fares) in 1979 amounted to $2.6 billion, compared with $550 million a decade earlier. The 1979 visitor total included 2.6 million from other States, 300,000 from Canada, and 580,000 from Japan. Expenditures per visitor day in 1977 averaged $54.62 for westbound visitors and $146.85 for the Japanese. Visitor spending in 1978 resulted in tax revenues of $235 million and generated 108,000 jobs, either directly, indirectly, or induced.

Both visitors and residents have access to a wide range of recreational and cultural facilities. The State has five national parks, 65 State parks, 595 County parks, 39 civilian golf courses, 242 public tennis courts, 2,018 small-boat moorages, 1,600 recognized surfing sites, and 24.4 miles of safe, sandy, accessible beach. Recreational and cultural facilities reporting more than a million annual visitors include seven National or State parks, the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, U.S.S. Arizona Memorial, the Honolulu Zoo, and Polynesian Cultural Center. Total visits to 32 museums, state monuments and similar attractions in 1979 numbered 10.6 million. Over 130,000 Hawaii residents traveled to the Mainland in 1979 and half of them were absent more than 11.7 days. Eleven theatrical groups on Oahu reported 850 performances of 114 productions for the 1978-1979 season, with a combined audience of 312,000. During the same period, the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra gave 118 concerts, with a total attendance of 192,000. Professional baseball drew 176,000 fans in 1979, and during the 1979-1980 school year, attendance at UH-Manoa varsity baseball, basketball and football home games exceeded 431,000. Approximately 85,000 dogs and 66,000 cats were owned in 1970.

Information on recreation and tourism is issued periodically by the Hawaii Visitors Bureau (chiefly in its monthly and annual research reports), the State Parks Division of the Department of Land and Natural Resources, the U.S. National Park Service, U.S. Passport Office, County park and recreation departments, and other organizations. An extensive compilation of statistics on recreational facilities and behavior was issued by DPED in December 1975 in its State Comprehensive Outdoor Recreation Plan Technical Report. Long-term trends are summarized in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 11. National statistics are given in Section 8 of Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979.

Table 134.-- TRAVEL BY U.S. RESIDENTS TO AND THROUGH HAWAII: 1977

[In thousands. This table refers to nonlocal travel by the civilian noninstitutional population of the United States during 1977. Nonlocal travel was defined as any trip extending 100 miles or more from origin to destination. Specifically excluded from the survey was (1) travel taken as part of an operating crew on a plane, ship, bus, or truck, (2) travel by students between home and school, and (3) travel by the armed forces while on active duty. Travel by military dependents was included, however. Based on a nationwide sample of approximately 25,000 households. For standard errors, see source, table F4, p. xv.]

1/ The sample for Hawaii was limited to Oahu residents; consequently, the data on trips originated in Hawaii include interisland travel by Oahu residents but generally exclude interisland travel by Neighbor Island residents. Moreover, the survey excluded travel under 100 miles from home to destination, and thus excluded any trips by Oahuans to Molokai (54 miles, airport to airport) or Lanai (72 miles) where ground travel did not bring the total mileage up to the cut-off point.

2/ Person trips by Mainland residents destined for Hawaii in 1977, reported as 1,734,000 by this survey, were estimated at 2,046,566 by the Hawaii Visitors Bureau (1977 Annual Research Report, table 12).

GOVERNMENT FINANCES AND EMPLOYMENT

This section presents statistics relating to the financial structure and civilian employment of Federal, State and County governments in Hawaii.

Local government is vested in one combined city-county (Honolulu, consisting of the Island of Oahu and several outlying islets), three non-metropolitan counties (Hawaii, Kauai, and Maui), and one area (Kalawao County) administered by the State Department of Health. Separate municipal governments do not exist.

Tax collections by Federal, State and County governments in fiscal 1979 reached $2,620 million, almost triple the level reported ten years earlier. The 1979 total included $1,455 million in U.S. taxes, $1,128 million in State taxes, and $37 million in County taxes, licenses and fees. Individual income taxes accounted for 83 percent of Federal collections and 23 percent of State collections in Hawaii in 1979. State revenue receipts totaled $1,578 million, chiefly from the General Excise and Use Tax ($431 million) and Federal grants-in-aid ($337 million). The largest expenditure item in the State accounts for 1979 was education, with $471 million (out of $1,483 million) going to the University of Hawaii and public schools and libraries. The counties, in contrast, depended largely on the real property tax (assessed and collected by the State) and grants-in-aid for their revenues, and reported police and fire protection as their largest single expenditure item. The estimated 1978 tax burden for a four-person family with per capita personal income equal to the State average was $12,308, including both direct taxes ($8,921) and employment taxes paid by employers ($3,596).

Assessed valuation of the State tripled between 1970 and 1980, reaching $21.9 billion by the end of the decade; of this total, $7.0 billion was exempt from taxation. Public bonded debt outstanding at the end of 1979 exceeded $1.97 billion. Average government employment reported for April 1980 was 92,000, about 25 percent over the 1970 average. The April 1980 total included 30,000 Federal workers, 49,000 persons employed by the State, and 13,000 persons on County payrolls. State civil service employees as of mid-1979 numbered 17,000.

Important sources for statistics on government in Hawaii include the U.S. Census of Governments and various annual publications of the Bureau of the Census, reports of the U.S. Treasury Department, Hawaii State Departments of Accounting and General Services, Budget and Finance, and Taxation, and the County auditors and finance directors, and an annual compilation issued by the Tax Foundation of Hawaii, Government in Hawaii: A Handbook of Financial Statistics. Data extending back to the middle of the 19th century are summarized in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 25. Comparable Mainland statistics appear in the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Sections 9 and 10.

SOCIAL INSURANCE AND WELFARE SERVICES

This section presents data related to governmental programs for old-age, survivors, disability and health insurance; public employees retirement; unemployment insurance; aid to the needy; and maternal, child, and other welfare services. Also included here are selected statistics on private charity and welfare programs.

Total public welfare costs reached $245 million in fiscal 1979, compared with $36 million a decade earlier. About 59 percent of the 1979 total came from State funds and the remainder from the Federal government. The monthly average number of persons served by major welfare programs in 1979 was 72,928, or 8.1 percent of the resident population of the State at the beginning of the year. Two-thirds of all public assistance payments and one-half of all recipient cases were accounted for by aid to families with dependent children. About 6.6 percent of all welfare cases receiving financial assistance early in 1980 were recent migrants to Hawaii. The average monthly payment per case for public assistance was $335, almost twice as much as in 1970. Participation in the food stamp program included 34,000 households and 90,000 persons. Among workers receiving unemployment compensation in 1979, weekly benefits averaged $93. Almost 106,000 Hawaii residents were receiving Social Security benefits as of the end of 1978, and about 67,000 were enrolled for Medicare. There were also 11,382 State and County government pensioners in 1979, with annual benefits in excess of $74 million. The Aloha United Way reported agency allocations of $7.0 million on Oahu and $1.2 million on the Neighbor Islands in 1979.

Major data sources include reports and records of the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Hawaii State Department of Social Services and Housing, the Hawaii State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, the Hawaii State Employees' Retirement System, and the Aloha United Way. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 8, contains data for earlier years. Section 11 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979 presents comparable Mainland data.

NATIONAL DEFENSE

This section presents statistics relating to the armed forces and their dependents, national guard strength, civilian employment in national defense, veterans, military housing, and expenditures by the armed forces.

There were approximately 57,900 officers and enlisted men (including 13,000 aboard ships homeported in Hawaii) and 64,500 military dependents in the Islands as of July 1, 1979. This number has been relatively stable in recent years, but at the height of World War II more than 400,000 uniformed personnel were present. The Navy alone accounts for about two-fifths of the current total. More than 11,000 Hawaii residents were in the armed forces worldwide in 1979. The importance of national defense in Hawaii can be further measured by total expenditures ($1.22 billion), military prime contract awards ($307 million), civilian employment (19,000), veterans in civil life (94,000), military personnel receiving retired or retainer pay (9,000 men, receiving $7.7 million monthly), federally-connected pupils in public schools (43,500), military housing (19,000 units), and land controlled by the armed forces (223,000 acres). Defense expenditures are second only to tourism as a source of income to Hawaii.

The Department of Planning and Economic Development has, since 1959, issued periodic reports on Military Personnel and Dependents in Hawaii. Other published sources include reports of the U.S. Bureau of the Census, the Administrator of Veterans Affairs, the U.S. Department of Defense, the Hawaii State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, Department of Defense, and Department of Education, the Hawaii State Census Statistical Areas Committee, and the Honolulu Department of Housing and Community Development. Definitions used by these sources frequently differ to some degree, and care is accordingly necessary in comparing data issued by two or more agencies. In mid-1978, for example, the number of armed forces in Hawaii was reported as 55,692 by DOD, 58,267 by the Bureau of the Census, 47,995 by the Bureau of Economic Analysis (which excludes ships crews) and 58,106 by the local commanding officers reporting to DPED. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 26, includes series dating back to 1795. Section 12 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979 presents data on national defense and veterans affairs for other States and the entire nation.

LABOR FORCE, EMPLOYMENT, AND EARNINGS

This section presents statistics on the size and composition of the labor force, employment by sex, occupation, and industry, work disability, wage rates, payrolls, hours, turnover, industrial safety, unionization, and strikes.

The civilian labor force averaged 399,000 in 1979; of this total, 374,000 persons were employed and 25,000 were unemployed and seeking work. The civilian jobcount rose from 318,000 in 1969 to 437,000 a decade later, an increase of 37 percent. (The jobcount differs from employment because the latter counts multiple jobholders -- "moonlighters" -- only once.) The unemployment rate averaged 6.3 percent in 1979, with island levels ranging from 5.6 to 11.3 percent. In 1976, 57.9 percent of all females 16 years old and over were in the civilian labor force -- the third highest ratio in the nation. By occupation, one out of six civilian workers is classified as professional or technical. Activities with especially large numbers of employees include government (86,000 in 1979, about 34 percent of them in federal jobs), services (98,000), and retail trade (86,000). The average annual earnings of wage and salary workers under the Hawaii Employment Security Law reached $12,400 in 1979, almost twice the 1969 average. Average weekly hours in 1979 ranged from 31.8 (for retail trade) to 44.2 (for communications and utilities). Labor union membership was estimated at 134,000 in 1978. Work stoppages in 1979 involved 10,380 workers.

Analyzing labor force trends is greatly complicated by recent shifts in sources and estimating methods. Prior to 1970, the number of employed civilians was estimated from data on the number of jobs covered by the Hawaii State Employment Security Law; workers holding more than one job were accordingly counted more than once. From 1970 to 1975, the same source was used, but the totals were adjusted to exclude the double-counting thought to be present. Then, beginning in 1976, the labor force estimates were based on the Current Population Survey, a relatively small household survey subject to considerable sampling variation. The 1970-1975 estimates were later revised for greater comparability with the 1976-1979 data.

Principal sources for the data on labor force, employment, hours, earnings, unions and strikes are the decennial reports of the U.S. Bureau of the Census, the same agency's 1976 Survey of Income and Education, various studies by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, monthly and annual tabulations by the Hawaii State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, the OEO 1975 Census Update surveys, and annual surveys by the Hawaii Employers Council. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 4, includes figures for earlier years. Statistics for the nation as a whole are published in Section 13 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979.

3/ Interstate agent initial claims (regular only) as a percent of interstate liable initial claims (regular only). Ratios under 100 suggest a net out-migration of workers.

4/ Regular and extended claims. Extended claims were included from February 1975 through March 1978.

5/ The method of counting liable and agent initial claims was revised effective October 1979. Data for 1979 are accordingly not directly comparable with figures for earlier years.

INCOME, EXPENDITURES, AND WEALTH

This section presents statistics on two different aspects of income and expenditures, one relating to the State income and product system and the other to the distribution of income to families and individuals. Specifically, information is given on gross state product, industrial income, personal income, family income, poverty, personal wealth, and family expenditures. Data on wage rates, salaries, and earnings appear in Sections 3, 8, 11, and 22; on industrial payrolls, in Sections 11, 15, 20, 22, and 23; on the family income of homeowners, renters, and visitors, in Sections 7 and 21; on retirement payments and public assistance, in Sections 9 and 10; on taxable income, in Section 8; on agricultural income, in Section 19.

Gross state product in 1977 amounted to approximately $8 billion, or about triple the 1966 total. The major sources of outside income to Hawaii in 1979 were defense expenditures ($1.2 billion), pineapple production ($190 million), sugar production ($346 million), and visitor expenditures ($2.6 billion). Personal income in 1979 was $8.4 billion, compared with $3.1 billion only ten years earlier, and per capita personal income was $9,223, more than twice the 1969 level. The per capita figure for Hawaii exceeded the national average by 5 percent, and thus failed to compensate for the Islands' 26-31 percent higher cost of living. The median annual income of families, based on data for 1975, was $18,228 on Oahu, $15,923 on the Neighbor Islands, and $17,770 Statewide; for unrelated individuals, the all-island median was $6,180. The official poverty threshold for a 4-person nonfarm family in Hawaii was set in April 1980 at $8,570. Top wealthholders in Hawaii -- those with gross assets of $60,000 or more -- numbered 11,323 in 1962 and 53,700 in 1972. Total assets of this group in the latter year amounted to $7.9 billion, 40 percent of which was in real estate. The most recent family expenditure survey, taken in 1972 and 1973, reported that the largest items in the family budget on Oahu were housing (accounting for 33.8 percent of spending for current consumption), food (20.4 percent) and transportation (19.1 percent).

The chief sources of data shown in this section are the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis, U.S. Bureau of the Census, U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Community Services Administration, Internal Revenue Service, Hawaii State Department of Agriculture, Hawaii State Department of Planning and Economic Development, and Hawaii Visitors Bureau. Sections 6 and 7 of Historical Statistics of Hawaii present data for earlier years. Comparable data for the country as a whole are given in Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Section 14.

PRICES

This section presents indexes of consumer prices for Honolulu, average prices for selected foods, and a comparison of Honolulu family budgets with those in other metropolitan areas. Other statistics on prices are reported in Sections 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, and 23.

In June 1980, the Honolulu all-items consumer price index for all urban consumers stood at 227.5, with the 1967 level equal to 100. The index had increased 11.3 percent in the preceding 12 months, 48.1 percent since June 1975, and 98.9 percent since June 1970. Prices have risen most rapidly since 1967 for gas and electricity (200.9 percent), food at home (159.9 percent), medical care (156.8 percent) and restaurant meals (up 153.5 percent), and least for women's and girls' apparel (up 67.7 percent).

An "intermediate" budget for a four-person family living on Oahu was estimated at $25,799 as of the Autumn of 1979. This family budget was 26 percent higher than the corresponding urban United States average, and was second only to Anchorage among major American metropolitan areas. The "lower" budget was 31 percent above the national figure; the "higher" budget, also 31 percent. Oahu-Mainland differentials in the intermediate budget were greatest for rents and personal income taxes and least for food away from home and automobile transportation. An "intermediate" budget for a retired couple in Honolulu came to $9,972 in the Autumn of 1979, 16 percent above the U.S. urban average.

The Honolulu consumer price index has been compiled by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics since December 1963. This index measures the average change in prices of goods and services purchased by urban families and single persons living alone. Prices are expressed as a percent of the average levels reported in 1967, the base date. Current data for Honolulu and other cities are published in the Monthly Labor Review and CPI Detailed Report, issued monthly by BLS. A similar series for Honolulu was maintained by the Hawaii State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations from March 1943 to December 1963, using March 1943 as the base date.

Important changes were made in the consumer price index at the beginning of 1978. The existing index, covering urban wage earner and clerical families and single persons living alone, had been based on spending patterns observed in a 1961 survey and had been issued at three-month intervals. This index was discontinued after June 1978. Beginning in February 1978, two new indexes were published, both based on the findings of a 1972-1973 survey and both issued at two-month intervals. The first of these new indexes covered the same population as the older index, that is, urban wage earner and clerical families and individuals; the second covered all urban consumers. The new indexes were linked to the existing index for December 1977 (174.9) and, like the latter, expressed as a percent of the 1967 annual average. The June 1978 all-items index was 182.1 according to the old coverage and weights, 184.1 based on the previous coverage and revised weights, and 183.9 with the expanded coverage and new weights.

Comparisons of family budgets between Honolulu and various Mainland communities have most recently been made for the Fall of 1979. These data were compiled and published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. Similar comparisons go back a number of years, and include a Honolulu-Los Angeles comparison for 1945, Honolulu-Washington comparisons for 1951 and 1955-1979, and a 40-area comparison for various dates since Autumn 1966. Budget costs for a retired couple have been prepared by BLS for Honolulu and the Mainland as of 1966, 1967, and annually since 1969. Cost of living adjustments for Federal employees in Hawaii are based on the Honolulu-Washington comparisons.

In addition to these data, the Bureau of Labor Statistics until recently published monthly and annual data on average prices for a wide variety of foods, and occasional data on a number of non-food items. The food price series were suspended after June 1978 but may be resumed at a later time.

No composite wholesale price index, comparable to the all-items consumer price index, is available for Hawaii. Average wholesale prices of agricultural products are reported in Statistics of Hawaiian Agriculture, issued by the Hawaii Agricultural Reporting Service, and Honolulu Prices: Wholesale Eggs, Poultry, Pork, Beef and Rice and Wholesale Prices: Wholesale Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, publication of the State Department of Agriculture, Market News Service. Wholesale price statistics of other commodities are less readily available, and in most cases totally lacking.

Data on prices and living costs for the nation as a whole and other areas are summarized in Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Section 15. Long-term trends for Hawaii are traced in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 5.

2/ Housing includes shelter, housefurnishings and household operations. The higher budget also includes an allowance for lodging away from Oahu.

3/ The average costs of shelter were weighted by the following proportions: lower budget, all families living in rented dwellings; intermediate budget, 25 percent in rented dwellings; higher budget, 15 percent renters.

4/ Includes average contract rent, heating fuel, gas, electricity, water, specified equipment, and insurance on household contents.

5/ Includes interest and principal payments plus taxes; insurance on house and contents; water, refuse disposal, heating fuel, gas, electricity, and specified equipment; and home repair and maintenance costs.

6/ Based on 65 percent of the lower budget families and all of the intermediate and higher budget families owning automobiles.

7/ Based on 30 percent of all families paying full cost of medical insurance 26 percent paying half cost, and 44 percent covered by noncontributory insurance plans (paid by employer).

8/ Includes reading, recreation, tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, education, and miscellaneous expenditures.

9/ Includes gifts and contributions, life insurance and occupational expenses.

Section 14

ELECTIONS

This section presents data on the number and characteristics of election districts, registered voters, votes cast, elected officials, and legislative bills.

More than 395,000 persons were registered to vote in the general election of November 7, 1978, and more than 292,000 actually voted. The number voting amounted to 40 percent of the 631,000 Hawaii residents of voting age at that time. The latter figure included numerous aliens, inmates of mental and penal institutions, and members of the armed forces and their dependents, groups that are either ineligible or unlikely to vote in Island elections. Among registered voters, females slightly outnumbered males and Democrats were far more numerous than Republicans.

A constitutional convention was convened on July 5, 1978. All of the constitutional amendments proposed by the convention were subsequently approved by the electorate.

Hawaii has 2 Congressional, 8 Senatorial, 27 Representative, and 12 Councilmanic districts. It also contains 15 Soil Conservation districts, 32 Neighborhood Board areas, and 241 election precincts.

Elective offices in Hawaii include the President, 2 U.S. Senators, 2 U.S. Representatives, the Governor, 25 State Senators, 51 State Representatives, and various county officials. The minimum voting age is 18 years.

The 1980 State Legislature, with 76 members, included 66 males, 30 persons under 40 years of age, 34 persons of Japanese ancestry, 11 persons born in places other than Hawaii, and 60 Democrats.

In its 1979 session, the State Legislature considered 3,584 bills; 230 were passed and 216 became law. The Legislature also considered 1,533 resolutions, of which 749 were approved.

The official results of primary, general, and special elections are published by the Office of the Lieutenant Governor. Additional information is often available from the various County clerks. In October 1978, the Department of Planning and Economic Development issued its Statistical Report 127, Potential Voters in Hawaii, November 1978. Characteristics of individual precincts are described in 1976 Hawaii Voting Behavior, compiled by Daniel W. Tuttle, Jr., and published by the Public Affairs Advisory Services, Inc., on May 31, 1978. Earlier figures for Hawaii appear in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 24. National statistics appear in the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Section 16.

1/ The First District consists of the area southwest of the crest of the Koolau Mountains, between Kalauao Stream and Makapuu Point, and includes Aiea, Hickam Housing, and Honolulu. The Second District includes the remainder of Oahu and the Counties of Hawaii, Kalawao, Kauai, and Maui. See HRS, 1976, Section 18-1.

2/ Based on 1978 boundaries. The boundary between the First and Second Districts was shifted in 1972 from Aiea Stream to Kalauao Stream, thus transferring Aiea from the Second District to the First. Percentages refer to a 99-month period (April 1, 1970 to July 1, 1978) for population and a 96-month period (November 3, 1970 to November 7, 1978) for registered voters.

BANKING, INSURANCE, AND BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

Statistics in this section relate to banks and other financial institutions, stocks and bonds, insurance, fires, and business firms.

There were nine banks with 170 branches, nine savings and loan associations with 128 branches, three trust companies, and 243 industrial loan or small loan licensees in Hawaii as of June 30, 1979. Deposits in Island banks reached $3.9 billion in 1979, compared with $1.5 billion a decade earlier. Assets of savings and loan associations stood at $3.4 billion in mid-1979, more than five times their 1969 level. There were 159 credit unions with combined assets of $755 million at the end of 1979.

The market value of stocks and bonds traded on the Honolulu Stock Exchange in 1977 amounted to $298,000, the lowest total on record, and the Exchange discontinued operations at the end of the year. Approximately 58,000 Hawaii residents held shares in U.S. public corporations or investment companies in 1975.

Life insurance in force in Hawaii at the end of 1978 amounted to $15.8 billion, triple the figure reported ten years earlier. For all 556 insurance companies doing business in the Islands, Hawaii premiums amounted to $555 million in 1978 and losses, claims, and benefits paid came to only $240 million. Oahu fire losses amounted to $8.0 million in fiscal 1978. Persons covered by the two major prepaid health insurance plans as of December 31, 1979, numbered 644,000, with membership dues of $181 million.

By mid-1979, more than 31,200 corporations and partnerships were registered to do business in Hawaii: 21,100 local ("domestic") corporations, 3,100 out-of-State ("foreign") corporations, and 7,000 partnerships. Business units with one or more employees in 1977 numbered 18,660; 92 had 250 or more employees. During fiscal 1979, 3,233 new local corporations were formed and 1,168 existing local corporations were dissolved or merged. Business receipts of corporations approached $9.6 billion in 1976; business receipts of proprietorships in 1977 amounted to $840 million. Hawaii's largest corporation, Amfac, Inc., reported 1979 sales of $1.7 billion, with a net profit of $56 million.

Sources for statistics on these subjects include the Hawaii State Department of Regulatory Agencies (specifically its Bank Examination, Insurance, and Business Registration Divisions), the State Department of Taxation, the Honolulu Fire Department, the New York Stock Exchange, the Health Insurance Institute and two major local health insurance plans, the Hawaii Credit Union League, and the annual report on County Business Patterns issued by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Sections 22 and 23, provides information for earlier periods. Comparable Mainland data appear in Sections 17 and 18 of Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979.

Table 294.-- CHARACTERISTICS OF BUSINESS UNITS OR ESTABLISHMENTS:
1968 TO 1977 -- Con.

NA Not available.

1/ Data refer to business units (1973 and earlier years) or establishments (1973 and later) with taxable payrolls during the first quarter of the year. An "establishment" is a single physical location where business is conducted or where service or industrial operations are performed. The reporting units prior to 1974 were defined similarly for manufacturing industries but differently for nonmanufacturing industries; for the latter category, a group of similar establishments or an employer located in the same county was counted as a single reporting unit. Coverage in all years excludes government and self-employed workers.

2/ For week including March 12.

4/ 4 to 7 prior to 1974.

5/ 8 to 19 prior to 1974.

6/ Totals for number of employees, payroll, and number of establishments are revised figures, but data on number of establishments are unrevised and add to 16,961 rather than 16,957.

Section 16

COMMUNICATIONS

This section presents statistics on the various communications media: postal service, telephone, telegraph, radio, television, newspaper, and books.

Hawaii is served by all major communications media. In 1979 it had 76 post offices handling 276 million pieces of mail and accounting for postal receipts in excess of $55 million. There were 685,000 telephones in service (double the number a dozen years earlier), 296,000 telephone homes, 1.8 billion local calls originated, 10 million completed interisland calls, and 28 million incoming and outgoing transpacific calls. Telegraph messages to and from Hawaii in 1978 totaled 272,000. The 35 commercial and educational radio stations in the Islands early in 1980 included 25 on the regular broadcast band and 10 FM stations. The State also had 12 television stations (10 commercial and 2 educational), including satellites but excluding translators. Ten cable TV companies served 115,000 subscribers. More than 96 percent of all households had television sets, and half of the adults surveyed watched three or more hours daily. Island publishers printed six daily newspapers, numerous magazines and other periodicals, and a wide diversity of books. Newspaper circulation reported by the three English-language dailies averaged 216,500 in 1979, compared with 203,500 a decade earlier.

The major sources for statistics on communications are the reports and records of the U.S. Postal Service, Federal Communications Commission, CATV Division of the Hawaii State Department of Regulatory Agencies, Hawaiian Telephone Company, Audit Bureau of Circulations, and Hawaii Media Guide. Earlier figures appear in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 18. Data on communications for other States and for the nation as a whole are carried in Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Section 19.

ENERGY AND SCIENCE

This section presents statistics relating to electrical, gas and petroleum power and energy, and to research and development and scientific resources.

Electricity sales exceeded 6.2 billion kilowatt-hours in 1979, a total that has doubled since 1968. Manufactured gas sales reached 35.3 million therms in 1979, 37 percent above the figure ten years earlier. Residential rates in 1979 averaged 6.4 cents per kilowatt-hour and $1.09 per therm, both well above the corresponding rates several years earlier. Average residential use (7,321 kWh and 253 therms in 1979) has declined significantly in recent years.

The liquid fuel tax base for 1979 was approximately 961 million gallons, compared with 825 million in 1974 and 743 million in 1969. The 1979 total included 324 million gallons of gasoline, 507 million of aviation fuel, and 125 million of diesel oil. The average price for leaded premium gasoline rose from 48.7 cents per gallon in October 1973 to $1.387 in April 1980.

Total energy consumption in 1978 amounted to 253 trillion British thermal units, compared with 196 trillion BTU a decade earlier. Transportation accounted for 58 percent of the 1978 total.

The State is well served with scientific resources. A 1976 inventory reported 384 companies and agencies with research or scientific capabilities. Employment in these organizations was more than 34,000. Federal research and development obligations in Hawaii exceeded $44 million in 1978. Thirty-two patents were granted to Hawaii residents in 1979.

Information on energy and science can be obtained from reports and records of the U.S. Department of Energy, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, National Science Foundation, Hawaii State Department of Taxation, Hawaii State Department of Regulatory Agencies, Public Utilities Division, and individual utility companies. Detailed statistics on energy consumption, with special emphasis on petroleum products, appear in Energy Use in Hawaii, published by the State Energy Office of the Department of Planning and Economic Development in November 1977. Hawaii's Scientific Resources, 1977 Directory, issued by DPED in 1977, contains information on scientific organizations and facilities in the Islands. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 19, presents data for earlier years. Data for the nation as a whole can be found in the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Sections 20 and 21.

TRANSPORTATION

This section presents statistics relating to public roads, motor vehicles, bicycles, traffic accidents, local public transit, civil aviation, harbors, and water traffic.

Motor vehicle registration in Hawaii increased from 413,000 in 1970 to 506,000 in 1975 and 611,000 in 1979. Vehicle miles rose during the same period from 3.4 billion to 4.8 billion. Hawaii residents purchased 48,000 new passenger cars in 1979 and scrapped or shipped out approximately 21,000. By the end of 1979, 543,000 licensed drivers had access to 3,874 miles of streets and highways throughout the State. Bus passengers carried by the Honolulu Mass Transit Lines increased from 19.4 million in 1971 to 68.8 million in 1979. Registered bicycles numbered 108,000 in 1974 and 78,000 in 1979.

All scheduled interisland travel is now by air. Interisland steamer service was discontinued in 1949; hydrofoil service was initiated between Honolulu and other Island ports in 1975 and suspended early in 1978. In 1979, the two scheduled airlines and a number of air taxis reported 7.6 million interisland passengers, almost three times their 1969 total, and carried 59,000 tons of cargo. The State has 10 commercial airports, 15 general aviation, military or semi-private airports, 13 civilian heliports, 3,972 active pilots, and 18 active civil aircraft operated by air carriers.

Rapid growth is similarly evident in transpacific travel. Although surface passenger arrivals dropped from 54,000 in 1959 to 4,800 in 1978, air passengers increased during the same 19-year span from 224,000 to 9.04 million. Overseas cargo received in the State in 1977 amounted to 66,000 tons by air and 9.5 million tons by ship.

Undocumented State-registered vessels as of December 31, 1979 numbered 13,678, compared with 8,042 in 1970. Median length was 18 feet, and four-fifths were stored on land. There were also 996 documented vessels in the State in 1979, almost double the 1970 total.

The chief source for transportation statistics is the Hawaii State Department of Transportation and its Highways, Harbors and Airports Divisions and Motor Vehicle Safety Office. Other sources include the U.S. Coast Guard, Civil Aeronautics Board, Federal Aviation Administration, Army Corps of Engineers, Honolulu Department of Transportation Services and Department of Data Services, County finance departments, Cardinal Mailing Services, and individual transportation companies. Data for the entire period of record appear in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 17. Similar statistics for other areas are reported in Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Sections 22 and 23.

This section presents statistics on agricultural land, farms, and specific crops, livestock, dairy products, and poultry. Related information appears in Section 6 (on land use), 11 and 15 (agricultural employment and earnings), and 22 (food processing).

There were 3,900 farms in Hawaii as of 1979, with a total area of 2,290,000 acres. Both figures have declined during the past decade. The value of crop sales in 1979 was $361 million, or 126 percent higher than the total for 1969. Livestock sales amounted to $78 million, or 98 percent more than the 1969 level. Combined crop and livestock sales ranged from $55 million in Kauai County to $146 million on the Big Island. Net farm income in 1978 was $107 million. Major crops in 1979 were sugar ($218 million in sales, up 107 percent over the decade), pineapple ($69 million, or 96 percent over the 1969 total), and flowers and nursery products ($21 million, or 431 percent more than in 1969). Diversified agriculture, defined as all crops other than sugar and pineapple, rose from $19 million in 1969 to $74 million in 1979, or approximately 284 percent. About 580 farms sold $21 million of flowers and nursery products in 1979, chiefly anthuriums, potted foliage, orchids, and ornamentals and trees. Important products of livestock farms as of 1979 included cattle ($28 million in sales), milk ($25 million), and eggs ($14 million). Coffee sales have fluctuated sharply during the past decade, but macadamia nuts and horticultural specialties have increased rapidly. In 1979, Hawaii produced 40 percent of the fresh market vegetables consumed locally, 29 percent of the fresh market fruits, 32 percent of the beef and veal, 23 percent of the chickens, none of the rice, and 91 percent of the eggs.

Aquaculture has been growing in importance in recent years. Freshwater prawn production was expected to exceed a quarter of a million pounds in 1979, with a value of more than $1 million. Only five years earlier the corresponding figures had been only 11,000 lb. and $38,500.

Statistics on Hawaiian agriculture exclude pakalōlō (marijuana) and other illicit plants. The police chiefs of the Big Island and Kauai have estimated the total cultivation of marijuana in their counties in 1979 at 125 and 12.8 tons, respectively, with values of $50 million and $5.1 million, but such figures are necessarily quite speculative.

Important sources for data on agriculture include the United States Census of Agriculture, generally conducted at five-year intervals, the annual report on Statistics of Hawaiian Agriculture issued by the Hawaii Agricultural Reporting Service, and data compiled by the Hawaii Agricultural Experiment Station, Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, and Pineapple Growers Association of Hawaii. Agricultural data for earlier years are summarized in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 13. National statistics appear in Section 24 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979.

FORESTS, FISHERIES, AND MINING

This section presents data on forests and forest products, commercial fishing, and mining and mineral products. Other statistics on forest products appear in Section 19.

The most recent available statistics show 1.2 million acres of forest and water reserve and 948,000 acres of commercial forest in the State, most of it on the Big Island. More than 49,000 acres had been planted in eucalyptus and other species of trees by mid-1979. Forest products harvested in 1977 had a value of $3.5 million, including $2.3 million from logs for fiber. More than 370 forest and brushland fires burned 2,017 acres in 1979. According to a 1974 compilation, the tallest tree in the State is a 203-foot eucalyptus saligna.

The commercial fish catch in calendar year 1978 amounted to 13.3 million pounds and had a value of $12.2 million. Aku (Skipjack) accounted for 36 percent of the total value. Other important species are ahi, ahipalala, akule, opelu and opakapaka. Commercial fishermen numbered 2,409; they operated 1,377 fishing vessels, serving 35 fishery wholesaling and processing establishments.

The value of mineral production reached $55 million in 1979, most of it in cement ($32 million) and stone ($20 million). The 1979 total, an all-time high, was double the level of the early 1970's.

Important sources of data on these subjects are the United States Census of Agriculture, United States Census of Mineral Industries, and reports and records of the U.S. Bureau of Mines, National Marine Fisheries Service, and Hawaii State Department of Land and Natural Resources, Fish and Game Division and Forestry Division. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 14, summarizes the data for earlier periods. Comparable Mainland statistics are reported in the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Sections 25, 26 and 27.

2/ A vessel is defined as a craft with a capacity of 5 net tons or more; a boat, as a craft with a capacity of less than 5 net tons. Data on vessels and boats refer to June 30 of the following year.

3/ Fishery wholesaling and processing establishments, as of June 30 of the year indicated.

4/ Data may differ from corresponding totals reported by the State Fish and Game Division, which, unlike the NMFS series shown here, include unsold fish.

5/ Methods of collecting data on operating units were changed in 1974.

6/ Data for vessels and boats are preliminary. Data for fishery establishments may reflect lack of current data on small operations, such as processors who make poki, lomilomi salmon, etc.

Section 21

CONSTRUCTION AND HOUSING

This section presents statistics on construction activity and costs, the size and composition of the housing inventory, occupancy of housing, sales, and residential financing.

There were 26,515 building permits issued in 1979, with an estimated value of $985 million. The total included $589 million for private residential construction and $290 million for private nonresidential structures. The value of government construction contracts awarded was $389 million. Construction put in place, as indicated by the contracting tax base, totaled $625 million in 1969 and $1.33 billion in 1979. The value of land transfers in fiscal 1980 was $4.5 billion. Mortgage loans outstanding at the end of 1978 amounted to $5.3 billion. The May 1980 construction cost index for Honolulu (1967=100) was 275.6 for single-family residences and 285.5 for high-rise buildings.

The number of housing units in the State increased from 217,000 in 1970 to 334,000 in 1980. Owner occupied units numbered 89,000 in 1970 and 137,000 in 1980; the latter total included 100,000 on land owned in fee simple and 37,000 on leased land. Condominium units, first authorized in 1961, numbered 70,000 at the end of 1979. Military and public housing accounted for 26,000 units as of 1980. Housing was in short supply throughout most of the past decade: on Oahu, the vacancy rate in March 1980, according to the Federal Home Loan Bank, was only 1.3 percent. The average selling price of single family homes on Oahu during the year ended February 29, 1980, based on Multiple Listing Service data, was $152,000. The median gross monthly rent for Oahu rose from $140 in 1970 to $234 in 1976, and the median value of owner occupied units in the latter year was well above $75,000.

The principal sources for these data are the 1970 U.S. Census of Housing, the 1975 OEO Census Update Survey, the 1976 Honolulu Housing Survey, postal vacancy surveys issued by the Federal Home Loan Bank, various series compiled by State and County agencies (primarily the Hawaii Housing Authority, Hawaii State Department of Planning and Economic Development, Department of Regulatory Agencies, Department of Taxation, and Bureau of Conveyances, Honolulu Department of Housing and Community Development, and the four County building departments), the construction cost indexes prepared by the First Hawaiian Bank, and the Honolulu Board of Realtors reports on Multiple Listing Service activity. Many of these series are summarized in reports published by the Honolulu Department of Housing and Community Development, the Bank of Hawaii (particularly Construction in Hawaii, issued annually), and the First Hawaiian Bank. Additional information will be provided by the 1980 Census of Housing when detailed reports are released in 1981 and 1982. Persons interested in figures for earlier periods should consult Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 15. Mainland statistics appear in Section 28 of Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979.

1/ As of April 1. Estimates for 1971-1979 will be revised after the release of 1980 census totals.

2/ As indicated by the number of taxpayers claiming home exemptions. The number of owner occupied housing units reported by the U.S. Census of Housing is somewhat higher than the corresponding number based on taxpayer home exemptions, chiefly because of differences in definitions. Data for 1977-1980 refer to January 1; data for 1970-1976, to July 1.

3/ Calculated as a residual after accounting for the known components, some of which pertain to dates other than April 1, and thus not attributable to any specific date.

4/ As of April 1. Data include housing units leased from private owners.

1/ As of April 1. The 1970 data are census counts corrected for the misclassification of governmental units on Oahu and in Kalawao, as published by the Honolulu Department of Housing and Community Development. The 1980 data are preliminary 1980 census counts.

2/ As of July 1, 1970 and January 1, 1980. Based on the number of taxpayers claiming home exemptions, rather than on the census tabulations on tenure.

3/ Calculated as a residual and not attributable to any specific month.

4/ As of April 1.

5/ Includes Kalawao County (117 units in 1970 and 122 units in 1980, all owned by the State).

Section 22

MANUFACTURES

This section presents statistics on the manufacturing segment of the economy, including sugar processing and pineapple canning.

The number of manufacturing establishments in Hawaii increased from 672 in 1963 to 773 in 1972 and 946 in 1977. The value added by manufacture rose from $326 million in 1967 to $410 million in 1972 and $791 million in 1977. Three-fourths of all manufacturing activity in the State was on Oahu in 1977. Food processing -- mostly sugar and pineapple -- accounted for more than 44 percent of the value added by manufacture in that year. Between 1969 and 1979, the general excise and use tax base increased 55 percent for sugar processing, 41 percent for pineapple canning, and 102 percent for all other manufacturing. There were three pineapple canneries and 14 sugar mills in Hawaii in mid-1979, in each case about half as many as ten years earlier. The production of canned pineapple fruit and juices in 1979 amounted to 19 million actual cases, well below the levels of earlier years. Sugar production in 1979 amounted to 1.06 million short tons, about the same level as in other recent years. The value of sugar production (including commercial molasses) was $346 million, well below the record set in 1974 but still the third best year in Island history. Important manufactures other than food processing include apparel ($45.5 million in value added in 1977), printing and publishing ($94.4 million), and prefabricated metal products ($22.8 million).

Sources for data on this subject include the United States Census of Manufactures, most recently conducted for 1977, the Annual Survey of Manufactures, and publications of the Hawaii State Department of Agriculture and Department of Taxation, Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, and Pineapple Growers Association of Hawaii. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 16, reviews the figures for earlier years. Statistics for the nation as a whole appear in Section 29 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979.

Section 23

DOMESTIC TRADE AND SERVICES

This section presents statistics relating to retail and wholesale trade; hotels; and selected personal, business, automotive, repair, and amusement services.

These activities have undergone rapid growth in recent decades, in part because of higher prices. Retail sales increased from $1.1 billion in 1967 to $1.9 billion in 1972 and $3.3 billion in 1977. Wholesale sales rose from $1.0 billion in 1967 to $2.6 billion in 1977. Hotels, amusements, and other services reported receipts of $1.3 billion in 1977, compared with $310 million in 1967. General excise and use tax base data for more recent years indicate continued increases; between 1977 and 1979, the retailing tax base rose 31 percent, the wholesaling base by 41 percent, and the base for services by 29 percent. Major retail concentrations include Ala Moana Center, Waikiki, Pearlridge Center, and downtown Honolulu. The 19 department stores on Oahu reported sales of $404 million in 1979. In addition to civilian retail outlets, there are 81 commissaries, exchanges, clubs, and food services maintained by the armed forces; these facilities had sales of $267 million in 1979.

Growth has been especially rapid for hotels. The number of units in the State rose from 6,800 in 1959 to 27,500 in mid-1970 and 54,200 in February 1980. There were 387 hotels, motels and apartment-hotels in the State on the latter date, including 227 on the Neighbor Islands. Occupancy rates averaged 77.1 percent in Waikiki and 70.2 percent on the Neighbor Islands during 1979. The average daily room rate was $44.41 in 1979. The hotel payroll in 1978 totaled $196 million, compared with $47 million ten years earlier.

Fifty-four feature motion pictures and television specials and series were filmed in Hawaii in 1979, accounting for local expenditures of $35 million.

The major source of these data is the United State Census of Business, most recently conducted at the end of 1977. Statistics on the retailing, wholesaling, and services tax bases are available from the Hawaii State Department of Taxation. Data on hotel room counts, occupancy and other characteristics are published by the Hawaii Visitors Bureau and the firm of Pannell Kerr Forster. The Hawaii Film Office in the Department of Planning and Economic Development compiles data on motion picture and television production. A summary of figures on trade and services in earlier years appears in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 20. The Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979, Section 30, presents similar data for other states and the nation as a whole.

Section 24

FOREIGN AND INTERSTATE COMMERCE

This section includes data on the flow of goods, services, and capital between Hawaii and the rest of the world, with particular emphasis on trade and investment involving foreign countries.

Imports to Hawaii from foreign nations rose from $171 million in 1969 to $1.3 billion in 1979. Exports to foreign countries amounted to only $46 million in 1969, but by 1979 exceeded $176 million. (These figures, it should be noted, refer to merchandise imports and exports through the Honolulu Customs District. They do not necessarily represent exports of commodities originating in Hawaii, nor imports for direct consumption within the State.)

Trade with the Mainland United States has similarly risen in the past decade. Merchandise received from the Mainland increased from $822 million in 1967 to $2.0 billion in 1977. Merchandise exported to the Mainland rose from $325 million in 1967 to $817 million in 1974, then slipped back to $471 million in 1977.

Among the foreign nations, Hawaii's leading trading partners in 1978 were Indonesia for imports and Australia for exports. Imports from Indonesia amounted to $247 million, or 22 percent of the total, while exports to Australia reached $43 million or 33 percent of all foreign exports. The Indonesian imports consisted mostly of crude oil.

Honolulu Foreign Trade Zone No. 9 handled merchandise valued at $34.9 million in fiscal 1979. Merchandise handled by Subzone No. 9A, the PRI refinery, was valued at $863 million, almost all of it in petroleum and petroleum products.

Foreign-owned U.S. firms in Hawaii operated 138 establishments in 1976, and employed 7,729 persons with an annual payroll of $71 million. Out of 39,782 hotel rooms in the State as of July 1978, 8,381 (or 21.1 percent) were foreign owned.

Sources for statistics on interstate and foreign commerce include the U.S. Bureau of the Census (for foreign trade), the Bank of Hawaii (for interstate trade and balance of payments), Foreign Trade Zones No. 9 and 9A, the Hawaii International Services Agency, and recent studies of Foreign Investment in Hawaii and Selected Characteristics of Foreign-Owned U.S. Firms issued by the U.S. Department of Commerce. Further information appears in cargo data by origin and destination, compiled by the Army Corps of Engineers and cited in Section 18.

Comparable data for the nation as a whole appear in Section 31 of Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1979. Long-term Island trends are summarized in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 21.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

This volume is the fourteenth in a series published by the Hawaii State Department of Planning and Economic Development and its predecessor agencies. The first was Statistical Abstract of Hawaii, 1962, issued by the Department of Planning and Research in 1962. After a four-year hiatus, updated versions titled The State of Hawaii Data Book were published by the Department of Planning and Economic Development in 1967, 1968, and annually beginning in 1970. Most of the volumes issued prior to the present edition are now out of print, but copies can be consulted in the DPED Library, Hawaii State Library, University of Hawaii and community college libraries, Honolulu Municipal Reference Library, and other collections throughout the State.

Additional information regarding specific statistical sources can be found in the introductory statements to each section of the Data Book, in footnotes and source references to the various tables, and in other DPED publications. Three of these DPED reports cover statistical sources in considerable detail: Statistics in Hawaii: 34 Papers Prepared for the Hawaii Statistical Reporting System Workshop, February 18-20, 1970, at Waikiki (1970), Proceedings of the Conference on Socio-Environmental Indicators, March 15-17, 1971, Honolulu, Hawaii (1971), and Inventory of Hawaii Planning Information (1973). The first two are reports of statistical symposia. The third is a 164-page reference work prepared for the Hawaii Urban Planning Information Center, containing detailed geographic and subject-matter indexes and source listings. These reports are now out of print, but copies can be consulted in most Hawaii libraries.

Although most of the series in the Data Book are shown only for recent years, earlier figures in many cases can be found in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, by Robert C. Schmitt. This book, published by the University Press of Hawaii in 1977, contains 711 pages of narrative and tables on the development of statistics in Hawaii since the 18th century. Copies are available from the University Press and various book stores for $25.00.

Another useful publication is Statistical Sources in Hawaii: Reference Guide to Materials Available at the Hawaii State Library, compiled by Masae Gotanda and published by the Office of Library Services of the Hawaii State Department of Education in November 1978.

Privately published works of general statistical reference include Hawaii Facts and Figures and All About Business in Hawaii. Hawaii Facts and Figures is a publication of the Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii, first issued (under a different title) more than forty years ago. The most recent edition appeared early in 1980, with statistics through 1979; copies are available from the Chamber for $2.00. All About Business in Hawaii, 1980 Edition, is the eighth in an annual series published by Crossroads Press. The current edition costs $2.95.

Two other privately published reports containing useful statistics are the annual economic reviews of the two largest banks in the State. The current editions are Hawaii '80, published by the Bank of Hawaii in August 1980, and Hawaii in 1979, issued by the First Hawaiian Bank as a supplement to its monthly Economic Indicators for April 1980. Greater detail appears in Hawaii's Economic Indicators: Sources, Definitions, and Trends, published by the First Hawaiian Bank in March 1980.

The County of Hawaii, Department of Research and Development, has published its own County of Hawaii Data Book 1979, presenting 256 pages of statistics for the Big Island. This report, dated September 1979, was released in March 1980.

A similar report for Kauai, County of Kauai's Statistical Review: An Annual Report of the County's Economic Indicators, is issued by the Kauai Office of Economic Development. The most recent edition, presenting data for 1979, was released in May 1980 and contains 15 pages of tables.

Persons interested in comparisons between Hawaii and other States or the nation as a whole should consult the Statistical Abstract of the United States and its companion volume, the County and City Data Book. The Abstract is an annual publication of the U.S. Bureau of the Census, initiated in 1878. The current edition is the 100th, dated 1979; copies are available for $12.00 (cloth) or $9.00 (paper) from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402. The County and City Data Book, most recently issued for 1977, is sold by the same agency for $19.50. Both volumes are on the shelves of most libraries.
