This report was prepared by Robert C. Schmitt, State Statistician, with the assistance of Lynn Y. S. Zane, Roy H. Tsumoto, and Sharon Nishi. The camera-ready copy was typed and proofread by Irene S. Fujimori, Judy F. Noda, Helen T. Nagafuchi, and Cora Choy. All are members of the DPED's Research and Economic Analysis Division, headed by Dr. Richard Y. P. Joun. The maps were drawn by Stewart A. Wastell, illustrator in the DPED's Planning Division. Editing and printing arrangements were handled by the DPED's Information Office.

Copies of this report may be obtained for $5.00 each from the Information Office on the 7th floor of the Kamamalu Building, 250 South King Street, Honolulu, or ordered from out of State by sending $10.00 per copy (postpaid) to the DPED Information Office, P. O. Box 2359, Honolulu, Hawaii 96804.

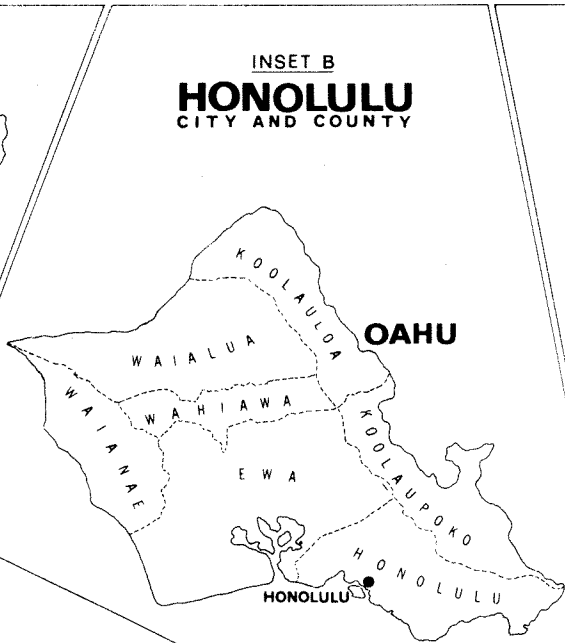

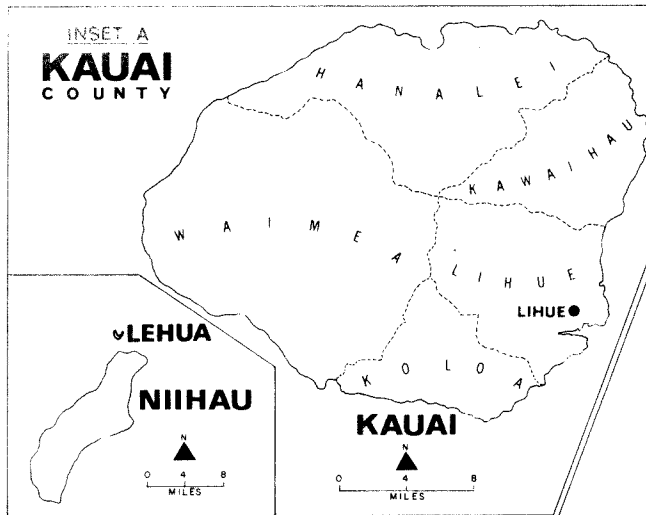

FOREWORD

By George R. Ariyoshi
Governor, State of Hawaii

Accurate, timely and substantial information is essential to sound decision-making. The State of Hawaii has long recognized that orderly State growth and planned prosperity require a continuing, efficient organization of statistical data and other information into forms which are easily used and readily available to all who need them. This State of Hawaii Data Book 1981 is the latest example of the State Administration's constant effort to provide and improve this important service to Hawaii's citizens.

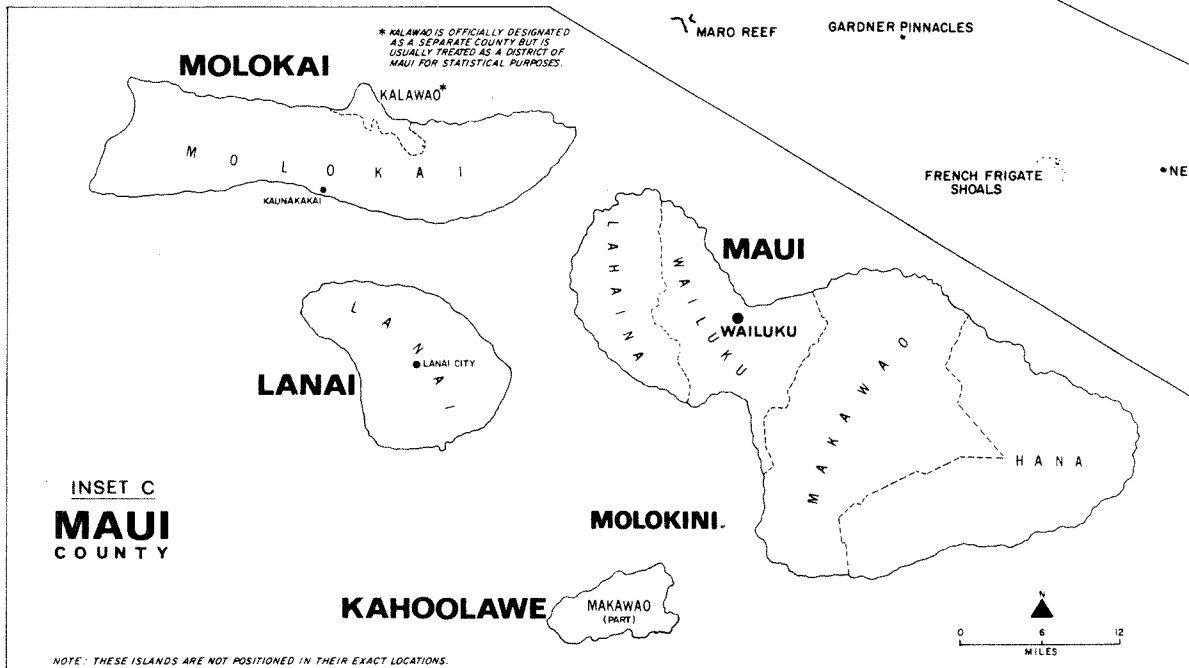

The Data Book is invaluable for Government administrators. It is vital to all agencies, companies, organizations and individuals who carry out a great variety of forms of research in the Islands and overseas. It is very useful to other citizens who have only an occasional need for accurate statistics. It is a book which, thanks to the professionalism of its compilers, can be depended upon, and upon which thousands do depend. And it is only one--although perhaps the best one--of a large number of excellent data sources which Hawaii makes available.

Through such reference works, Hawaii is able to go about its myriad tasks with confidence that its information base is sound. This State of Hawaii Data Book 1981 is one of many proofs we have that our people know what they are doing, and where they are going, and are reasonably certain they can achieve their goals.

INTRODUCTION

By Hideto Kono, Director
Department of Planning and Economic Development

The State of Hawaii Data Book: A Statistical Abstract is intended to serve as the standard official summary of statistics on the social, economic, and political organization of the State. Like its long-established counterpart, the Statistical Abstract of the United States, it may be used as either a convenient volume of statistical reference or a guide to other statistical publications and sources.

The present volume, containing statistics available in the summer of 1981, is the fifteenth such abstract to be published by the State of Hawaii. Earlier editions appeared in 1962, 1967, 1968, and annually beginning in 1970. All are now out of print, but copies can be seen in many high school, university, and public libraries in Hawaii.

The Data Book closely follows the organization and format of the U.S. Abstract, in order to facilitate comparison of Hawaii data with corresponding series for the nation and other jurisdictions.

Emphasis in the Data Book is given to the most recent available State data. Historical statistics and information for counties, islands, urban places, and smaller areas receive more limited attention. The publications cited as sources in the introductions to the various sections or at the end of each table usually contain additional statistical detail and a more comprehensive discussion of relevant definitions and concepts than can be presented here. Persons interested in more extensive information should consult these sources or write to the agencies responsible for them.

Many Federal, State, County and private organizations cooperated in the preparation of this report. These agencies are credited in the source references to the tables to which they contributed. Their assistance is gratefully acknowledged.

GUIDE TO TABULAR PRESENTATION

The tables in this report generally follow the principles of tabular presentation used by the U.S. Bureau of the Census in its annual publication, Statistical Abstract of the United States, and described in Bureau of the Census Manual of Tabular Presentation, published by the Bureau in 1950. These principles have been accepted by the Department of Planning and Economic Development for use in its publications and recommended to all other State agencies for official use.

Headnotes immediately below table titles provide information important for correct interpretation or evaluation of the table as a whole or for a major segment of it.

Unit indicators ("In thousands," "In millions of dollars," etc.) are usually given as the first element of the headnote. In tables where several units are used, the unit indicators are generally given in the stub or in the column headings.

Footnotes below the bottom rule of tables give information relating to specific items or figures within the table.

Parallel vertical rules are used to the right of a total column to indicate --

- (1) that the components which follow add to the total;
- (2) in the case of derived figures, that the underlying data are additive to their total.

The following symbols, used in the tables throughout this book, are explained in condensed form in footnotes to the tables where they appear:

- Represents zero or rounds to less than half the unit of measurement shown.
- D Figure withheld to avoid disclosure of information pertaining to a specific organization or individual.
- NA Data not enumerated, tabulated, or otherwise available separately.
- ... Same as NA; used in tables in which a large number of cells lack data.

In many tables, details will not add to the totals shown because of rounding.

Median: The value which divides the distribution into two equal parts--one-half the cases falling below this value and one-half exceeding it.

Geographic coverage should be understood as Statewide, unless otherwise indicated in the table title, headnote, boxhead, or stub. All annual statistics should be understood as referring to calendar years unless otherwise indicated.

This section presents statistics on the growth, geographic distribution, and composition of the population of Hawaii, and on the number and characteristics of migrants moving to and from the State.

The 1980 census reported a resident population of 965,000. This total included approximately 61,000 members of the armed forces and 64,000 of their dependents. It excluded more than 97,000 visitors who were present on an average day in 1980, while including around 10,000 residents who were temporarily out of the State. The total population has risen from 58,000 in 1878 to 154,000 in 1900 and 423,000 in 1940 (although a wartime peak of 859,000 was reached in 1944). Almost four-fifths of the 1980 de facto total lived on Oahu, giving that island a density of 1,386 persons per square mile. The population is young -- the median age in 1980 was 28.4 years -- and racially diversified. The major unmixed groups in 1979 were Caucasians (25.7 percent of the non-barracks, non-institutional population) and Japanese (24.8 percent). In addition, 28.3 percent were of mixed race, primarily part Hawaiian. Migration has been a major factor in the growth of the population: between 1970 and 1980, there was a net in-migration (excluding military personnel and dependents) of 101,000, accounting for 54.1 percent of the total civilian population growth during that time. Intended residents arriving aboard westbound civilian carriers in fiscal 1978 numbered 47,300, of whom 27,600 were military personnel and dependents and 19,700 were other civilians. Immigrant arrivals in fiscal 1979 exceeded 8,900, mostly from the Philippines and Korea.

The comparison of demographic data from different sources is often complicated by the use of differing definitions and coverage. Some series, for example, refer to resident population, while others pertain to de facto population; the latter includes visitors present but excludes residents temporarily absent. Total population includes armed forces stationed in an area, as well as their dependents in the area; civilian population excludes military personnel but includes their dependents. Perhaps the greatest confusion is that resulting from the arbitrary allocation of persons of mixed race in the 1970 and 1980 U.S. Censuses. Such groups were shown separately in earlier censuses, and are still reported separately in data issued by State agencies.

The principal sources for these data are the decennial population censuses conducted by the U.S. Bureau of the Census, the estimates developed annually by the Hawaii State Department of Health and Department of Planning and Economic Development in cooperation with the Bureau of the Census, the Hawaii Health Surveillance Program conducted regularly since 1969 by the Department of Health, the 1976 Survey of Income and Education, and the ongoing series on migration maintained by the Hawaii Visitors Bureau and U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. The Department of Planning and Economic Development summarizes these data in two series of reports, both issued annually: The Population of Hawaii and Hawaii's In-Migrants. Another annual report distributed by DPED contains population estimates by census tracts. Much additional information will become available when the detailed results of the 1980 Census of Population are published in 1982 and 1983. Earlier figures on population and migration are given in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Sections 1 and 3. Comparable national statistics on population and migration appear in sections 1 and 3 of Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980.

1/ The urban population comprises all persons living in urbanized areas (first defined for Hawaii in 1960) and in places of 2,500 or more outside urbanized areas. Statistical boundaries were first established for Honolulu in 1831, Hilo in 1911 (for 1910 census tabulations), and other urban places beginning in 1930.

2/ The rural population includes all persons living outside urban places.

3/ Annual rate since the preceding census, based on the formula for continuous compounding.

4/ Total population also reported as 130,313.

5/ Total population also reported as 108,393 and 108,579.

6/ The Statewide total is a corrected figure. The urban and rural populations are unrevised.

Table 8.-- LAND AREA, 1980, AND RESIDENT POPULATION, 1970
AND 1980, OF ISLANDS, CITIES, TOWNS, AND VILLAGES

[This table presents data for the 101 places defined by the Hawaii State Department of Planning and Economic Development, in cooperation with the Bureau of the Census, for the 1980 decennial census, under authority granted by Sec. 26-18, Hawaii Revised Statutes, 1976 Replacement. Boundaries of a large number of places were significantly altered between 1970 and 1980, and the 1970 and 1980 population counts accordingly refer to different areas. Although described in the legislation as "cities, towns, and villages," none of these places is an independent municipality with separate governmental and taxing powers; the boundaries determined for these places are statistical rather than political.]

^{1/} Unless otherwise indicated, the 1970 totals shown here refer to the area as bounded for the 1970 census rather than the area defined for 1980.

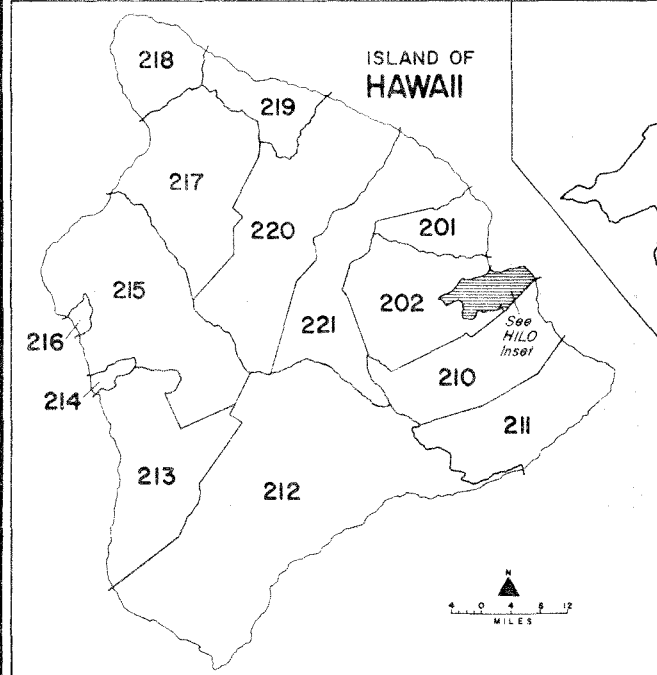

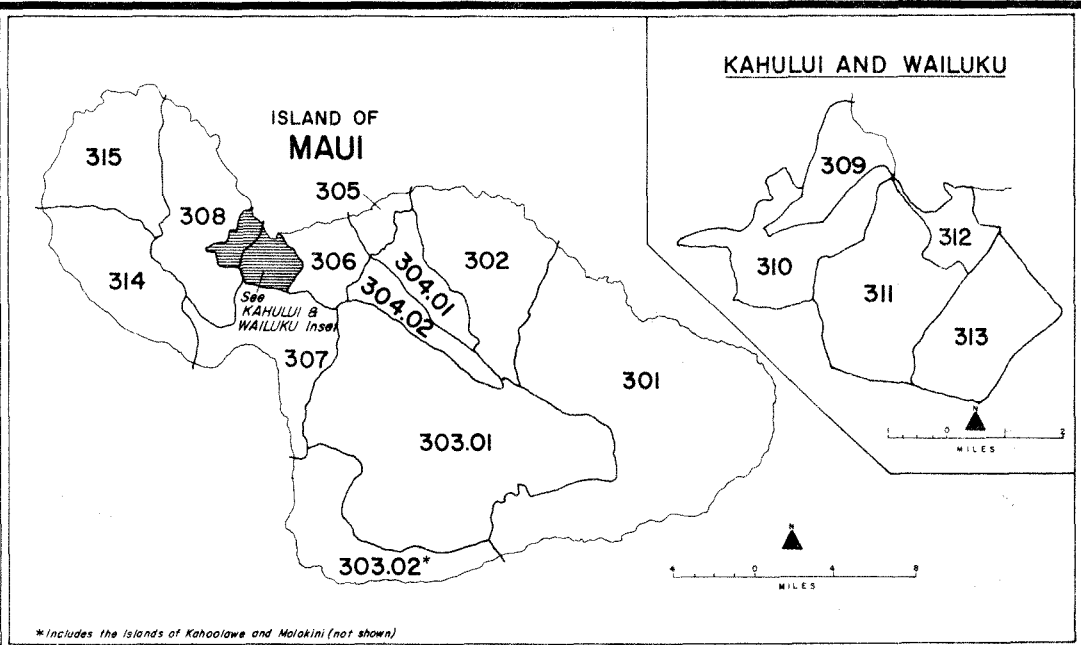

^{2/} These places were newly defined for 1980.

^{3/} Aiea was redefined for 1980 to include four places shown separately in 1970: Aiea (12,560), Foster Village (3,755), Halawa Heights (5,809), and Waimalu (2,982). The 1970 population shown here is the sum of the figures for the separate places.

^{4/} Excluding the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands (1,895 acres; 31 inhabitants in both 1970 and 1980), legally part of Honolulu. Including the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands, Honolulu had a land area of 53,723 acres and a population of 324,871 in 1970 and 365,048 in 1980.

^{5/} Pearl City was redefined for 1980 to include two places shown separately in 1970: Pacific Palisades (7,846) and Pearl City (19,552). The 1970 population shown here is the sum of the figures for those two places.

1/ Most tract boundaries either remained unchanged between 1970 and 1980 or underwent only minor changes. In cases where the 1970 tracts were split or merged for 1980, however, the 1980 tract designation is followed in parentheses by the 1970 designations. The census tract maps preceding this table show the 1980 tract numbers and boundaries.

2/ The ".99" census tracts consist of vessels anchored off the indicated tract; for example, persons living aboard ships in Kewalo Basin, adjacent to tract 38, are assigned to tract 38.99.

1/ The 1980 Statewide total shown here was later corrected to 964,691.

2/ The Honolulu Urbanized Area consists of Honolulu proper (the area southwest of the crest of the Koolau Mountains, between Red Hill and Makapuu Point) and the adjacent urbanized territory circling Pearl Harbor, as far north and west as Waipahu in 1960, Ewa and Ewa Beach in 1970, and Whitmore Village in 1980.

3/ The Kailua-Kaneohe Urbanized Area was initially defined as of 1980. It includes Kailua, Kaneohe, and the adjacent urbanized territory on the windward side of Oahu, from Kahaluu to Waimanalo Beach.

4/ The 1960 totals for Kailua and Kaneohe have been adjusted to the 1970 boundaries.

^{2/} The 1975 figure excludes approximately 2,000 Vietnamese refugees still in parole status at the end of the fiscal year; these immigrants were counted in later years upon adjustment under the Immigration and Nationality Act.

^{3/} Implicit change resulting from emigration and interstate migration. Calculated as a residual from data on net change (as interpolated from the January alien address reports), immigration, naturalization, and alien deaths. These estimates are affected by both underreporting in the alien address reports and delayed inclusion of refugee aliens in the annual immigration totals.

1/ Data exclude Vietnamese refugees still in parole status at the end of each reporting period. Such persons are counted when adjusted under the Immigration and Nationality Act.

2/ Because of a change in tabulation procedures in 1970, officials have noted the possibility of some double-counting in the data for this year.

Section 2

VITAL STATISTICS AND HEALTH

This section presents data on births, deaths, marriages, divorces, diseases and accidents, nutrition, substance abuse, hospitals, dental care, and health personnel.

Vital indexes generally reflect the high health standards of Hawaii. Expectation of life at birth was 74 years for males and 78 years for females in 1975. The crude death rate in 1980 was only 5.4 per 1,000 resident population. Deaths under one year of age per 1,000 live births numbered 10.8 in 1979. Diseases of the heart have accounted for almost a third of all deaths in recent years; cancer, for over one-fifth. The 1980 crude birth rate was 18.7 per 1,000 resident population. The total fertility rate for civilians fell from 3,360 per 1,000 women in 1960 to 2,461 in 1970 and 1,821 in 1975. Over 99 percent of all babies were born in hospitals in 1979, and over one-fifth were born to military couples. One out of six births was illegitimate. There were 8,238 fetal deaths in 1980, including 6,462 elective abortions. Marriages numbered 11,856 in 1980, with about 23 percent accounted for by nonresidents. Divorces reached a 1980 total of 4,438. The State had 24 acute care civilian hospitals (with 2,330 beds), 49 skilled nursing and intermediate care facilities (with 3,185 beds), 22 special treatment facilities (with 531 beds) and 277 care homes (with 1,444 beds) in 1979. There were 1,781 physicians and surgeons, 627 dentists, 6,024 professional nurses, and 384 pharmacists licensed and living in Hawaii as of March 1981. Acute conditions per 100 persons numbered 209 in 1979, with respiratory conditions the most common complaint (at 139 cases per 100 persons). Among chronic conditions reported in the 1979 survey data, the most frequently mentioned were hypertension without heart involvement (6.7 per 100 persons), hay fever (5.4), and asthma (3.7). The most common communicable disease reported to authorities in 1979 was gonorrhea, with 4,373 cases. State mental health facilities served 10,713 patients in 1979, but the number of in-patients at the end of the year was only 333. Dental health was only fair: according to a 1979 survey, 275,000 had not visited a dentist within the previous year, and 176,000 persons reported one or more dental problems, chiefly cavities. Among persons 12 years old and over in 1979, 55 percent had used alcohol in the preceding month, 33 percent had smoked cigarettes, 14 percent had used marijuana, and 5 percent had used cocaine.

Major sources for data on vital statistics and health are the annual statistical reports of the Hawaii State Department of Health and various publications of the U.S. Public Health Service. Long-term trends are traced in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 2. Sections 2 and 4 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980 contain similar data for the nation as a whole.

Section 3

EDUCATION

This section presents statistics on enrollment in public and private schools, colleges and universities; students graduated and degrees awarded; the highest grade of school completed; school facilities, personnel, and expenditures; and libraries.

Enrollment in elementary, intermediate and high schools in 1980-1981 totaled 202,972, about 1.3 percent less than in the preceding year and 5.8 percent below the all-time high reached in 1971-1972. There were 230 public schools with 8,113 classroom teachers and 165,094 students (81.3 percent of the total). There were also 141 private schools with 2,211 teachers and 37,878 pupils. Students graduating from public and private high schools in 1979-1980 numbered 14,013. Some 49,871 students attended colleges and universities in the State in 1980-1981, including 20,319 on the Manoa Campus of the University of Hawaii, 247 at West Oahu College, 3,504 at UH-Hilo, 19,472 at six community colleges, and 6,329 in four private colleges and universities. Eighty-seven percent of the children 5 and 6 years old were in school in 1970 (compared with 68 percent in 1950), and 53 percent in the 18- and 19-year-old group were enrolled (compared with 36 percent twenty years earlier). The expenditure per pupil in public schools rose from $818 in 1969-1970 to $2,164 in 1979-1980. Among adults, the illiteracy rate dropped from 8.4 percent in 1950 to 1.9 percent in 1970, and by 1979 approximately 21.3 percent of all residents 25 years of age or more could report having completed four or more years of college. The Hawaii State Library System, with 47 locations in all four counties, had 3.3 million books, film reels, phonorecords, and other collections in 1980, with an annual circulation of 5.0 million; the University of Hawaii libraries in the same year counted 2.1 million volumes.

The principal sources of data on education are the U.S. Bureau of the Census, Hawaii State Department of Education, University of Hawaii and private colleges and universities. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 9, contains Island data back to 1820. Section 5 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980 presents comparable information for the nation as a whole.

Section 4

LAW ENFORCEMENT, COURTS AND CORRECTIONS

Statistics in this section refer to crime and delinquency, the police, the judiciary system, prisons, and youth correctional facilities.

Major offenses reported to the police in 1980 numbered 71,000, or almost twice as many as in 1970. The rate per 1,000 population has increased from 53 in 1970 to 72 in 1980. Eighty percent of the 1980 total occurred on Oahu. For the State as a whole, major offenses known to police in 1980 included 84 murders or cases of non-negligent manslaughter, 334 rapes, 1,835 robberies, 634 aggravated assaults, 17,811 burglaries, 45,501 cases of larceny, and 5,903 auto thefts. The value of property reported stolen in 1980 amounted to $32 million, exclusive of motor vehicles; only 6.6 percent was recovered. In 1977, when asked "Have you or your immediate family been a victim of crime (burglary, assault, etc.) in Hawaii since 1970?," forty percent of all Oahu adults and a fourth of all Neighbor Island adults answered affirmatively. Twenty percent of the major offenses known to police were cleared by arrest or otherwise in 1980. Forty-seven percent of the persons arrested for major crimes and 21 percent of those arrested for lesser offenses in 1980 were less than eighteen years of age. Inmates of the ten State correctional institutions averaged 817 during 1980; of this number, 480 were adults serving time for felonies. Cases filed in the State Supreme Court, Intermediate Court of Appeals, four circuit courts, and four district courts and their divisions during fiscal 1980 numbered 760,000, including 727,000 traffic cases. Filings in the United States District Court for Hawaii included 722 civil cases, 1,318 criminal cases, and 670 bankruptcy cases. The last legal execution in Hawaii took place in 1944. Governmental expenditures on the criminal justice system in 1978 amounted to $106 million, more than half of the total going for police protection.

Statistics on law enforcement, courts, and corrections in Hawaii appear in the annual reports of the county police departments, the State Judiciary, the Intake Service Center, and the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The Hawaii Criminal Justice Statistical Analysis Center issues quarterly and annual reports titled Crime in Hawaii. Figures on crime, the courts, and corrections in earlier years appear in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 10. National data are summarized in the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Section 6.

Section 5

GEOGRAPHY AND ENVIRONMENT

This section relates to land and water areas, physical geography, climate, air and water quality, noise and other geographic and environmental measurements of Hawaii.

The State consists of eight major islands and 124 minor islands with a total land area of 6,425 square miles and a general coastline of 750 miles. Honolulu is 214 miles from Hilo, 1,367 miles from Kure Atoll (the westernmost end of the State), 2,397 miles from San Francisco, and 4,829 miles from Washington, D.C. The highest peak in the State is Mauna Kea, 13,796 feet above sea level; the longest stream is Kaukonahua Stream, Oahu, 33 miles in length; the biggest lake is Halalii, on Niihau, 841 acres; and the highest named waterfall is Kahiwa, Molokai, a 1,750-foot cascade. Various measures of air pollution, such as suspended particulate matter, indicate that Honolulu is one of the cleanest cities in the nation. There is also relatively little water pollution: 39 major beaches surveyed in 1980 were found to have fecal coliform levels per 100 ml. ranging from 2.1 to 195.5, and all were within EPA standards. More than 1,100 species, subspecies, and varieties of native flora were endangered, threatened, or extinct, according to a 1977 survey. Climatically, Hawaii is marked by remarkably balmy temperatures and wide variations in rainfall. The all-time temperature range at Honolulu International Airport, for example, was from 53° to 92°F. Normal precipitation, however, ranges from 5.7 inches near Kawaihae, South Kohala, to 451 inches atop Waialeale. The longest volcanic eruption in Island history lasted 867 days, the worst earthquake attained 7.5 on the Richter scale, and the highest tsunami wave reached 56 feet. Water withdrawn for use in 1975 averaged 2.8 billion gallons per day, compared with 2.7 billion in 1970 and 2.0 billion in 1965. Among thirty neighborhoods on Oahu, median noise levels in 1974 ranged from 44.7 decibels (in Pearl City) to 61.5 decibels (in Waikiki).

Important sources of data include the U.S. Geological Survey, National Ocean Survey, National Weather Service, U.S. Bureau of the Census Geography Division, the Division of Water and Land Development of the State Department of Land and Natural Resources, the State Department of Health, and the University of Hawaii Institute of Geophysics. Detailed information is given in Atlas of Hawaii, published by the University Press of Hawaii in 1973, and Hawai'i, the Natural Environment, issued by the Department of Planning and Economic Development in 1974. National data are reported in Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Section 7.

2/ Width measured in statute miles between designated points on National Ocean Survey and Coast and Geodetic Survey charts. Width in kilometers calculated from miles (1 mile = 1.60934 km.).

3/ Depths given are the deepest soundings noted at or near the line joining the two designated points, on National Ocean Survey and Coast and Geodetic Survey charts. Depths measured in fathoms and converted to feet and meters (1 fathom = 6 feet = 1.8288 meters).

1/ Figures are lengths of general outline of seacoast. Data for the four islands of Maui County are not consistent with the reported county total.

2/ Shoreline of outer coast, offshore islands, bays, rivers, and creeks is included to the head of tidewater or to a point where tidal waters narrow to a width of 100 feet.

3/ Derived from data expressed in statute miles; independently rounded and accordingly may not add exactly to indicated totals and subtotals.

1 mi. = 1.609 km.

4/ Among the States and Territories, Hawaii ranks fourth in general coastline and seventeenth in tidal shoreline.

5/ Data are not available for five minor islands: Molokini, Lehua, Gardner Pinnacles, Maro Reef, and Pearl and Hermes Atoll.

6/ Excludes the Midway Islands, which are part of the Hawaiian Archipelago but not legally part of the State of Hawaii. Midway has a general coastline of 20 miles and a tidal shoreline of 33 miles.

Table 102.-- LAND AND WATER AREA OF COUNTIES AND ISLANDS -- Con.

1/ Areas in square kilometers and acres were calculated directly from the figures shown for square miles (except for Molokini, Lehua, Kaula, and the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands, for which square miles calculated to three decimal places were used); these equivalents were independently rounded, and hence may not add exactly to the indicated totals and subtotals. 1 sq. mi. = 640 A. = 2.58999 sq. km.

2/ Dry land and land temporarily or partially covered by water, as marshland, swamps, etc.; streams and canals under one-eighth statute mile wide; and lakes, reservoirs, and ponds under 40 acres of area.

3/ Permanent inland water surface, such as lakes, reservoirs, and ponds having 40 acres or more of area; streams, sloughs, estuaries, and canals one-eighth of a statute mile or more in width; deeply indented embayments and sounds, and other coastal waters behind or sheltered by headlands or islands separated by less than one nautical mile of water; and islands having less than 40 acres of area.

4/ More exactly, the area of Molokini is 18.6 acres (equivalent to 0.03 square miles or 0.075 square kilometers).

5/ Exclusive of the Midway Islands, which are part of the Hawaiian Archipelago but not legally part of the State of Hawaii. Islands included in the State and their land areas in square miles are: Nihoa, 0.298; Necker Island, 0.091; French Frigate Shoals, 0.088; Gardner Pinnacles, 0.004; Maro Reef, awash; Laysan Island, 1.312 (plus 0.220 of inland water, for a total area of 1.533); Lisianski Island, 0.675; Pearl and Hermes Atoll, 0.122; and Kure Atoll, 0.371.

LAND USE AND OWNERSHIP

General statistics on the use, ownership, and tenure of land appear in this section. Information on specific use or ownership categories is given elsewhere: parks in section 7, farms in section 19, forests in section 20, cane land and industrial parks in section 22, and shopping centers in section 23.

Out of the 4,128,000 acres in the State, almost 2,200,000 are in unused open space. Other major categories include agriculture, with 1,347,000 acres, services (including military installations), with 123,000, and recreation, with 280,000. In the Honolulu Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area (which is coterminous with Oahu), land in residential use increased from 16,500 acres in 1964 to 27,200 in 1979; during the same 15-year span, agricultural land declined from 94,500 to 75,100 acres. For the State as a whole, the Land Use Commission has zoned 154,000 acres as "urban," 1,976,000 as "conservation," 1,972,000 as "agricultural," and 9,000 as "rural."

Recent data on land ownership indicate that the Federal government owns 7.3 percent of all land, the State and counties own 34.8 percent, and private owners (chiefly large estates) have 57.9 percent. Total Federal holdings reported by the General Services Administration come to 402,900 acres, exclusive of leased land (48,500 acres); most of the Federal land is in park and military use. The State Department of Hawaiian Home Lands holds about 192,000 acres, divided among 3,004 lessees. Total land parcels in the State number 370,000.

Considerable caution is necessary in comparing statistics from different sources on land use, ownership, or tenure. Variations in definitions and survey dates seriously affect comparability in many instances, even where terminology is relatively unambiguous and misinterpretation seems unlikely. An example of such difficulties is the wide range in estimates of Federal land, with Federal totals ranging from 297,000 acres to 403,000. Recent statistics on military land use are likewise confusing, going as high as 175,000 acres and as low as 56,000.

Reports of the U.S. Department of Agriculture and General Services Administration, Hawaii State Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, Department of Land and Natural Resources, Department of Planning and Economic Development, Department of Taxation, and Land Use Commission, and county planning departments provided the data for this section. Greater detail appears in DPED Statistical Report 98, Land Use and Ownership Trends in Hawaii, issued December 28, 1973. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 12, contains limited information for earlier years. Statistics for the nation as a whole are available in Sections 8 and 24 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980.

1/ Because of the omission of public thoroughfares and for other reasons, totals by island may differ considerably from official area estimates in other tables in this volume.

2/ State land ceded by presidential proclamation or governor's executive order to the federal government appears in most cases to have been classified for this table as federal land, even though title to it technically remains with the state. Land ceded by the state to the counties, in contrast, has probably been classified as state land. For both types of ceded land, treatment may have varied from parcel to parcel, and no firm statement is possible.

1/ Corrected from published data, which overstated Navy acreage and the State total by 195,359.7 acres.

2/ Data for 1979 are not comparable to figures for earlier years. According to a letter from the General Services Administration, "this increase of nearly 258,000 acres is almost entirely due to a correction of acreage holdings submitted by the U.S Fish and Wildlife Service. That office revised a Hawaiian Islands National Wildlife Refuge holding from 1,906.5 acres to 254,418.1 acres to include the lagoon water acreage of the circular reefs and shoals."

3/ At time of acquisition. Includes estimated equivalent cost of properties acquired through donation, exchange, devise, forfeiture, or judicial process.

4/ Figure for 1969 refers to all Department of Defense land used for military functions.

Section 7

RECREATION AND TOURISM

Statistics on tourism, recreation, sports, museums, the performing arts, pets and parks appear in this section. Information on recreational land use is given in Section 6; on transportation, in Section 18; on hotels, in Section 23.

Tourism has shown impressive growth in recent decades. Approximately 3,935,000 visitors stayed overnight or longer in Hawaii during 1980, compared with 1,747,000 in 1970 and only 297,000 in 1960. The average number present at any given time during 1980 was 96,000, almost three times the 1970 average. Total visitor expenditures (exclusive of trans-Pacific fares) in 1980 amounted to $3.0 billion, compared with $595 million a decade earlier. The 1980 visitor total included 2.5 million from other States, 300,000 from Canada, and 570,000 from Japan. Expenditures per visitor day in 1977 averaged $54.62 for westbound visitors and $146.85 for the Japanese. Visitor spending in 1980 resulted in tax revenues of $323 million and generated 117,000 jobs.

Both visitors and residents have access to a wide range of recreational and cultural facilities. The State has six National parks and similar areas, 66 State parks, 617 County parks, 39 civilian golf courses, 245 public tennis courts, 1,983 small-boat moorages, 1,600 recognized surfing sites, and 24.4 miles of safe, sandy, accessible beach. Recreational and cultural facilities reporting more than a million annual visitors include five National or State parks, the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, U.S.S. Arizona Memorial, and the Honolulu Zoo. Total visits to 41 museums, state monuments and similar attractions in 1980 numbered 11.5 million. About 200,000 Hawaii residents traveled to the Mainland in 1980 and half of them were absent more than 11.6 days. Eleven theatrical groups on Oahu reported 965 performances of 87 productions for the 1979-1980 season, with a combined audience of 276,000. During the same period, the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra gave 122 concerts, with a total attendance of 186,000. Professional baseball drew 148,000 fans in 1980, and during the 1980-1981 school year, attendance at UH-Manoa varsity baseball, basketball and football home games exceeded 467,000. More than 6,600 runners completed the 1980 Honolulu Marathon.

Information on recreation and tourism is issued periodically by the Hawaii Visitors Bureau (chiefly in its monthly and annual research reports), the State Parks Division of the Department of Land and Natural Resources, the U.S. National Park Service, U.S. Passport Office, County park and recreation departments, and other organizations. An extensive compilation of statistics on recreational facilities and behavior was issued by the Hawaii State Department of Land and Natural Resources in 1980 in its State Recreation Plan, Technical Reference Document. Long-term trends are summarized in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 11. National statistics are given in Section 8 of Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980.

Table 154.-- TRAVEL BY U.S. RESIDENTS TO AND THROUGH HAWAII: 1977

[In thousands. This table refers to nonlocal travel by the civilian noninstitutional population of the United States during 1977. Nonlocal travel was defined as any trip extending 100 miles or more from origin to destination. Specifically excluded from the survey was (1) travel taken as part of an operating crew on a plane, ship, bus, or truck, (2) travel by students between home and school, and (3) travel by the armed forces while on active duty. Travel by military dependents was included, however. Based on a nationwide sample of approximately 25,000 households. For standard errors, see source, table F4, p. xv.]

1/ The sample for Hawaii was limited to Oahu residents; consequently, the data on trips originated in Hawaii include interisland travel by Oahu residents but generally exclude interisland travel by Neighbor Island residents. Moreover, the survey excluded travel under 100 miles from home to destination, and thus excluded any trips by Oahuans to Molokai (54 miles, airport to airport) or Lanai (72 miles) where ground travel did not bring the total mileage up to the cut-off point.

2/ Person trips by Mainland residents destined for Hawaii in 1977, reported as 1,734,000 by this survey, were estimated at 2,046,566 by the Hawaii Visitors Bureau (1977 Annual Research Report, table 12).

Section 8

GOVERNMENT FINANCES AND EMPLOYMENT

This section presents statistics relating to the revenues, expenditures, debt, and civilian employment of Federal, State and County governments in Hawaii.

Local government is vested in one combined city-county (Honolulu, consisting of the Island of Oahu and several outlying islets), three non-metropolitan counties (Hawaii, Kauai, and Maui), and one area (Kalawao County) administered by the State Department of Health. Separate municipal governments do not exist.

Tax collections by Federal, State and County governments in fiscal 1980 reached $2,966 million, almost triple the level reported ten years earlier. The 1980 total included $1,670 million in U.S. taxes, $1,256 million in State taxes, and $40 million in County taxes, licenses and fees. Individual income taxes accounted for 83 percent of Federal collections and 23 percent of State collections in Hawaii in 1980. State revenue receipts totaled $1,760 million, chiefly from the General Excise and Use Tax ($499 million) and Federal grants-in-aid ($374 million). The largest expenditure item in the State accounts for 1980 was education, with $512 million (out of $1,816 million) going to the University of Hawaii and public schools and libraries. The counties, in contrast, depended largely on the real property tax (which in 1980 was still assessed and collected by the State) and grants-in-aid for their revenues, and reported police and fire protection as their largest single expenditure item. Assessed valuation of the State tripled between 1970 and 1980, reaching $21.9 billion by the end of the decade; of this total, $7.0 billion was exempt from taxation. Public bonded debt outstanding at the end of 1980 exceeded $2.05 billion.

Total government employment reported for April 1981 was 91,000, about 16 percent over the 1971 average. The April 1981 total included 30,000 Federal workers, 48,000 persons employed by the State, and 13,000 persons on County payrolls. State civil service employees as of mid-1980 numbered 17,000.

Important sources for statistics on government in Hawaii include the U.S. Census of Governments and various annual publications of the Bureau of the Census, reports of the U.S. Treasury Department, Hawaii State Departments of Accounting and General Services, Budget and Finance, and Taxation, and the County auditors and finance directors, and an annual compilation issued by the Tax Foundation of Hawaii, Government in Hawaii: A Handbook of Financial Statistics. Data extending back to the middle of the 19th century are summarized in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 25. Comparable Mainland statistics appear in the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Sections 9 and 10.

SOCIAL INSURANCE AND WELFARE SERVICES

This section presents data related to governmental expenditures on social welfare; programs for old-age, survivors, disability and health insurance; public employees retirement; unemployment insurance; aid to the needy; and maternal, child, and other welfare services. Also included here are selected statistics on private charity and welfare programs.

Total public welfare costs reached $255 million in fiscal 1980, compared with $47 million a decade earlier. About 57 percent of the 1980 total came from State funds and the remainder from the Federal government. The monthly average number of persons served by major welfare programs in 1980 was 71,693, or 7.5 percent of the resident population of the State at the beginning of the year. Two-thirds of all public assistance payments and one-half of all recipient cases were accounted for by aid to families with dependent children. About 6.1 percent of all welfare cases receiving financial assistance early in 1981 were recent migrants to Hawaii. The average monthly payment per case for public assistance was $338, almost twice as much as in 1970. Participation in the food stamp program included 38,500 households and 99,600 persons. Among workers receiving unemployment compensation in 1980, weekly benefits averaged $103. Almost 110,000 Hawaii residents were receiving Social Security benefits as of the end of 1979, and about 70,000 were enrolled for Medicare. There were also 12,052 State and County government pensioners in 1980, with annual benefits in excess of $78 million. Child adoptions in 1980 numbered 670. The Aloha United Way reported agency allocations of $7.3 million on Oahu and $1.3 million on the Neighbor Islands in 1980. A recent comparative study of the "quality of life" in 100 American cities ranked Honolulu seventh.

Major data sources include reports and records of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the Hawaii State Department of Social Services and Housing, the Hawaii State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, the Hawaii State Employees' Retirement System, and the Aloha United Way. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 8, contains data for earlier years. Section 11 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980 presents comparable Mainland data.

NATIONAL DEFENSE

This section presents statistics relating to the armed forces and their dependents, national guard strength, civilian employment in national defense, veterans, military housing, and expenditures by the armed forces.

There were approximately 61,000 officers and enlisted men (including 12,200 aboard ships homeported in Hawaii) and 64,000 military dependents in the Islands as of April 1, 1980. This number has been relatively stable in recent years, but at the height of World War II more than 400,000 uniformed personnel were present. The Navy alone accounts for about two-fifths of the current total. More than 11,800 Hawaii residents were in the armed forces worldwide in 1980. The importance of national defense in Hawaii can be further measured by total expenditures ($1.3 billion), military prime contract awards ($315 million), civilian employment (19,000), veterans in civil life (93,000), military personnel receiving retired or retainer pay (9,000 men, receiving $8.9 million monthly), federally-connected pupils in public schools (35,400), military housing (19,000 units), and land controlled by the armed forces (223,000 acres). Defense expenditures are second only to tourism as a source of income to Hawaii.

The Department of Planning and Economic Development has, since 1959, issued periodic reports on Military Personnel and Dependents in Hawaii. Other published sources include reports of the U.S. Bureau of the Census, the Administrator of Veterans Affairs, the U.S. Department of Defense, the Hawaii State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, Department of Defense, and Department of Education, the Hawaii State Census Statistical Areas Committee, and the Honolulu Department of Housing and Community Development. Definitions used by these sources frequently differ to some degree, and care is accordingly necessary in comparing data issued by two or more agencies. In mid-1978, for example, the number of armed forces in Hawaii was reported as 55,692 by DOD, 58,267 by the Bureau of the Census, 47,995 by the Bureau of Economic Analysis (which excludes ships crews) and 58,106 by the local commanding officers reporting to DPED. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 26, includes series dating back to 1795. Section 12 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980 presents data on national defense and veterans affairs for other States and the entire nation.

LABOR FORCE, EMPLOYMENT, AND EARNINGS

This section presents statistics on the size and composition of the labor force, employment by sex, occupation, and industry, work disability, wage rates, payrolls, hours, turnover, industrial safety, unionization, and strikes.

The civilian labor force averaged 400,000 in 1980; of this total, 380,000 persons were employed and 20,000 were unemployed and seeking work. The civilian jobcount rose from 332,000 in 1970 to 444,000 a decade later. (The jobcount differs from employment because the latter counts multiple jobholders -- "moonlighters" -- only once.) The unemployment rate averaged 5.0 percent in 1980, with island levels ranging from 4.8 to 8.4 percent. In 1976, 57.9 percent of all females 16 years old and over were in the civilian labor force -- the third highest ratio in the nation. By occupation, one out of six civilian workers is classified as professional or technical. Activities with especially large numbers of employees include government (89,000 in 1980), services (99,000), and retail trade (86,000). The average annual earnings of wage and salary workers under the Hawaii Employment Security Law reached $12,400 in 1979, almost twice the 1969 average. Average weekly hours in 1979 ranged from 31.3 (for hotels) to 44.9 (for communications and utilities). Labor union membership was estimated at 134,000 in 1978. Work stoppages in 1980 involved 6,890 workers.

Analyzing labor force trends is greatly complicated by shifts in sources and estimating methods. Prior to 1970, the number of employed civilians was estimated from data on the number of jobs covered by the Hawaii State Employment Security Law; workers holding more than one job were accordingly counted more than once. From 1970 to 1975, the same source was used, but the totals were adjusted to exclude the double-counting thought to be present. Then, beginning in 1976, the labor force estimates were based primarily on the Current Population Survey, a relatively small household survey subject to considerable sampling variation. The 1970-1975 estimates were later revised for greater comparability with the 1976-1980 data.

Principal sources for the data on labor force, employment, hours, earnings, unions and strikes are the decennial reports of the U.S. Bureau of the Census, the same agency's 1976 Survey of Income and Education, various studies by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, monthly and annual tabulations by the Hawaii State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, and annual surveys of pay rates by the Hawaii Employers Council. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 4, includes figures for earlier years. Statistics for the nation as a whole are published in Section 13 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980.

1/ Interstate liable initial claims (UI & Supp.), excluding UCFE & Supp. and UCX. Covers Hawaii workers seeking work and filing for benefits on the Mainland. Since July 1980, data have included Federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen.

2/ Interstate agent initial claims (UI & Supp.), excluding UCFE & Supp. and UCX. Covers Mainland workers filing claims for unemployment insurance and registered for work with the Hawaii State Employment Service.

3/ Interstate agent initial claims (regular only) as a percent of inter-state liable initial claims (regular only). Ratios under 100 suggest a net out-migration of workers.

4/ Regular and extended claims. Extended claims were included from February 1975 through March 1978 and in 1980.

5/ The method of counting liable and agent initial claims was revised effective October 1979. Data for 1979 and 1980 are accordingly not directly comparable with figures for earlier years.

Section 12

INCOME, EXPENDITURES, AND WEALTH

This section presents statistics on two different aspects of income and expenditures, one relating to the State income and product system and the other to the distribution of income to families and individuals. Specifically, information is given on gross state product, industrial income, personal income, family income, poverty, personal wealth, and family expenditures. Data on wage rates, salaries, and earnings appear in Sections 3, 8, 11, and 22; on industrial payrolls, in Sections 11, 15, 20, 22, and 23; on the family income of homeowners, renters, and visitors, in Sections 7 and 21; on retirement payments and public assistance, in Sections 9 and 10; on taxable income, in Section 8; on agricultural income, in Section 19.

Gross state product in 1979 amounted to approximately $10 billion, or about double the 1972 total. The major sources of outside income to Hawaii in 1980 were defense expenditures ($1.3 billion), pineapple production ($223 million), sugar production ($594 million), and visitor expenditures ($3.0 billion). Personal income in 1980 was $9.4 billion, compared with $3.5 billion only ten years earlier, and per capita personal income was $9,787, more than twice the 1970 level. The per capita figure for Hawaii exceeded the national average by 3 percent, and thus failed to compensate for the Islands' much higher cost of living. The median annual income of families, based on data for 1975, was $18,228 on Oahu, $15,923 on the Neighbor Islands, and $17,770 Statewide; for unrelated individuals, the all-island median was $6,180. The official poverty threshold for a 4-person nonfarm family in Hawaii was set in April 1981 at $9,720. Top wealthholders in Hawaii -- those with gross assets of $60,000 or more -- numbered 11,323 in 1962 and 53,700 in 1972. Total assets of this group in the latter year amounted to $7.9 billion, 40 percent of which was in real estate. The most recent family expenditure survey, taken in 1972 and 1973, reported that the largest items in the family budget on Oahu were housing (accounting for 33.8 percent of spending for current consumption), food (20.4 percent) and transportation (19.1 percent).

The chief sources of data shown in this section are the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis, U.S. Bureau of the Census, U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Community Services Administration, Internal Revenue Service, Hawaii State Department of Agriculture, Hawaii State Department of Planning and Economic Development, and Hawaii Visitors Bureau. Sections 6 and 7 of Historical Statistics of Hawaii present data for earlier years. Comparable data for the country as a whole are given in Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Section 14.

PRICES

This section presents indexes of consumer prices for Honolulu, average prices for selected foods, and a comparison of Honolulu family budgets with those in other metropolitan areas. Other statistics on prices are reported in Sections 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, and 23.

In June 1981, the Honolulu all-items consumer price index for all urban consumers stood at 252.8, with the 1967 level equal to 100. The index had increased 11.1 percent in the preceding 12 months, 55.8 percent since June 1976, and 113.3 percent since June 1971. Prices have risen most rapidly since 1967 for gas and electricity (376.1 percent), food at home (191.5 percent), medical care (186.9 percent) and restaurant meals (up 178.7 percent), and least for women's and girls' apparel (up 70.2 percent).

An "intermediate" budget for a four-person family living on Oahu was estimated at $28,488 as of the Autumn of 1980. This family budget was 23 percent higher than the corresponding urban United States average, and was second only to Anchorage among major American metropolitan areas. The "lower" budget was 32 percent above the national figure; the "higher" budget, 29 percent. Oahu-Mainland differentials in the intermediate budget were greatest for rents and personal income taxes and least for food away from home and automobile transportation. An "intermediate" budget for a retired couple in Honolulu came to $9,972 in the Autumn of 1979, 16 percent above the U.S. urban average.

The Honolulu consumer price index has been compiled by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics since December 1963. This index measures the average change in prices of goods and services purchased by urban families and single persons living alone. Prices are expressed as a percent of the average levels reported in 1967, the base date. Current data for Honolulu and other cities are published in the Monthly Labor Review and CPI Detailed Report, issued monthly by BLS. A similar series for Honolulu was maintained by the Hawaii State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations from March 1943 to December 1963, using March 1943 as the base date.

Important changes were made in the consumer price index at the beginning of 1978. The existing index, covering urban wage earner and clerical families and single persons living alone, had been based on spending patterns observed in a 1961 survey and had been issued at three-month intervals. This index was discontinued after June 1978. Beginning in February 1978, two new indexes were published, both based on the findings of a 1972-1973 survey and both issued at two-month intervals. The first of these new indexes covered the same population as the older index, that is, urban wage earner and clerical families and individuals; the second covered all urban consumers. The new indexes were linked to the existing index for December 1977 (174.9) and, like the latter, expressed as a percent of the 1967 annual average. The June 1978 all-items index was 182.1 according to the old coverage and weights, 184.1 based on the previous coverage and revised weights, and 183.9 with the expanded coverage and new weights.

Comparisons of family budgets between Honolulu and various Mainland communities have most recently been made for the Fall of 1979. These data were compiled and published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. Similar comparisons go back a number of years, and include a Honolulu-Los Angeles comparison for 1945, Honolulu-Washington comparisons for 1951 and 1955-1980, and a 40-area comparison (later for 25 areas) for various dates since Autumn 1966. Budget costs for a retired couple have been prepared by BLS for Honolulu and the Mainland as of 1966, 1967, and annually since 1969. Cost of living adjustments for Federal employees in Hawaii are based on the Honolulu-Washington comparisons.

In addition to these data, the Bureau of Labor Statistics until 1978 published monthly and annual data on average Honolulu prices for a wide variety of foods, and occasional data on a number of non-food items. The city food price series were suspended after June 1978 and since that time only unofficial estimates have been available.

No composite wholesale price index, comparable to the all-items consumer price index, is available for Hawaii. Average wholesale prices of agricultural products are reported in Statistics of Hawaiian Agriculture, issued by the Hawaii Agricultural Reporting Service, and Honolulu Prices: Wholesale Eggs, Poultry, Pork, Beef and Rice and Wholesale Prices: Wholesale Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, publication of the State Department of Agriculture, Market News Service. Wholesale price statistics of other commodities are less readily available, and in most cases totally lacking.

Data on prices and living costs for the nation as a whole and other areas are summarized in Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Section 15. Long-term trends for Hawaii are traced in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 5.

Table 294.-- ANNUAL BUDGETS FOR THREE LEVELS OF LIVING FOR A FOUR-PERSON FAMILY
ON OAHU: AUTUMN 1980 -- Con.

1/ Among the 25 metropolitan areas for which separate indexes were reported, Honolulu ranked first in total budget costs at the higher level and second at the intermediate and lower levels (where Anchorage ranked first).

2/ Housing includes shelter, housefurnishings and household operations. The higher budget also includes an allowance for lodging away from Oahu.

3/ The average costs of shelter were weighted by the following proportions: lower budget, all families living in rented dwellings; intermediate budget, 25 percent in rented dwellings; higher budget, 15 percent renters.

4/ Includes average contract rent, heating fuel, gas, electricity, water, specified equipment, and insurance on household contents.

5/ Includes interest and principal payments plus taxes; insurance on house and contents; water, refuse disposal, heating fuel, gas, electricity, and specified equipment; and home repair and maintenance costs.

6/ Based on 65 percent of the lower budget families and all of the intermediate and higher budget families owning automobiles.

7/ Based on 30 percent of all families paying full cost of medical insurance 26 percent paying half cost, and 44 percent covered by noncontributory insurance plans (paid by employer).

8/ Includes reading, recreation, tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, education, and miscellaneous expenditures.

9/ Includes gifts and contributions, life insurance and occupational expenses.

Section 14

ELECTIONS

This section presents data on the number and characteristics of election districts, registered voters, votes cast, campaign expenditures, elected officials, and legislative bills.

Almost 403,000 persons were registered to vote in the general election of November 4, 1980, and more than 318,000 actually voted. The number voting amounted to 45 percent of the 657,000 Hawaii residents of voting age at that time. The latter figure included numerous aliens, inmates of mental and penal institutions, and members of the armed forces and their dependents, groups that are either ineligible or unlikely to vote in Island elections. Among registered voters, females slightly outnumbered males and Democrats were far more numerous than Republicans. Campaign expenditures for the 1980 primary and general elections (other than the presidential race) exceeded $9,600,000.

A constitutional convention was convened on July 5, 1978. All of the constitutional amendments proposed by the convention were subsequently approved by the electorate.

Hawaii has 2 Congressional, 8 Senatorial, 27 Representative, and 12 Councilmanic districts. It also contains 15 Soil Conservation districts, 32 Neighborhood Board areas, and 241 election precincts.

Elective offices in Hawaii include the President, 2 U.S. Senators, 2 U.S. Representatives, the Governor, 25 State Senators, 51 State Representatives, and various county officials. The minimum voting age is 18 years.

The 1981 State Legislature, with 76 members, included 62 males, 28 persons under 40 years of age, 36 persons of Japanese ancestry, 12 persons born in places other than Hawaii, and 56 Democrats.

In its 1980 session, the State Legislature considered 5,970 bills; 317 were passed and 309 became law. The Legislature also considered 1,236 resolutions, of which 766 were approved.

The official results of primary, general, and special elections are published by the Office of the Lieutenant Governor. Additional information is often available from the various County clerks. Earlier figures for Hawaii appear in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 24. National statistics appear in the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Section 16.

Section 15

BANKING, INSURANCE, AND BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

Statistics in this section relate to banks and other financial institutions, stocks and bonds, insurance, fires, and business firms.

There were nine banks with 181 branches, eight savings and loan associations with 156 branches, four trust companies, and 71 industrial loan or small loan licensees with 238 branch offices in Hawaii as of December 31, 1980. Deposits in Island banks reached $4.5 billion in mid-1980, compared with $1.6 billion a decade earlier. Assets of savings and loan associations stood at $3.9 billion in mid-1980, more than five times their 1970 level. There were 157 credit unions with combined assets of $800 million at the end of 1980.

Approximately 162,000 Hawaii residents held shares in U.S. public corporations or investment companies in 1980. The Honolulu Stock Exchange discontinued operations at the end of 1977.

Life insurance in force in Hawaii at the end of 1979 amounted to $17.1 billion, more than twice the figure reported ten years earlier. For all 579 insurance companies doing business in the Islands, Hawaii premiums amounted to $618 million in 1979 and losses, claims, and benefits paid came to only $281 million. Oahu fire losses amounted to $12 million in fiscal 1980. Persons covered by the two major prepaid health insurance plans as of December 31, 1980, numbered 645,000, with membership dues of $214 million.

By mid-1980, more than 34,000 corporations and partnerships were registered to do business in Hawaii: 22,900 local ("domestic") corporations, 3,400 out-of-State ("foreign") corporations, and 7,700 partnerships. Business establishments with one or more employees in 1979 numbered 20,621; 104 had 250 or more employees. During fiscal 1980, 3,450 new local corporations were formed and 1,621 existing local corporations were dissolved or merged. Business receipts of corporations approached $9.6 billion in 1976; business receipts of proprietorships in 1977 amounted to $840 million. Hawaii's largest corporation, Amfac, Inc., reported 1980 sales of $1.9 billion, with a net profit of $76 million.

Sources for statistics on these subjects include the Hawaii State Department of Regulatory Agencies (specifically its Bank Examination, Insurance, and Business Registration Divisions), the State Department of Taxation, the Honolulu Fire Department, the New York Stock Exchange, the Health Insurance Institute and two major local health insurance plans, the Hawaii Credit Union League, and the annual report on County Business Patterns issued by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Sections 22 and 23, provides information for earlier periods. Comparable Mainland data appear in Sections 17 and 18 of Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980.

Table 337.-- CHARACTERISTICS OF BUSINESS UNITS OR ESTABLISHMENTS:
1969 TO 1979 -- Con.

NA Not available.

1/ Data refer to business units (1973 and earlier years) or establishments (1973 and later) with taxable payrolls during the first quarter of the year. An "establishment" is a single physical location where business is conducted or where service or industrial operations are performed. The reporting units prior to 1974 were defined similarly for manufacturing industries but differently for nonmanufacturing industries; for the latter category, a group of similar establishments or an employer located in the same county was counted as a single reporting unit. Coverage in all years excludes government and self-employed workers.

2/ For week including March 12.

3/ 1 to 3 prior to 1974.

4/ 4 to 7 prior to 1974.

5/ 8 to 19 prior to 1974.

6/ Totals for number of employees, payroll, and total number of establishments are revised figures, but data on number of establishments by size are unrevised and add to 16,961 rather than 16,957.

7/ Revised from 1980 edition, table 294.

COMMUNICATIONS

This section presents statistics on the usage, finances, and operations of the various communications media: postal service, telephone, telegraph, radio, television, newspapers and periodicals, and books.

Hawaii is served by all major communications media. In 1980 it had 76 post offices handling 298 million pieces of mail and accounting for postal receipts in excess of $58 million. There were 712,000 telephones in service (double the number a dozen years earlier), 304,000 telephone homes, 1.96 billion local calls originated, 11.2 million completed interisland calls, and 31.8 million incoming and outgoing transpacific calls. Telegraph messages to and from Hawaii in 1979 totaled 263,000. The 37 commercial, public and educational radio stations in the Islands early in 1981 included 25 on the regular broadcast band and 12 FM stations. The State also had 12 television stations (10 commercial and 2 public), including satellites but excluding translators. Ten cable TV companies served 129,000 subscribers. An estimated 97 percent of all households had television sets, and evening programs in May 1981 were watched by an average of 170,000 households. Island publishers printed seven daily newspapers, numerous magazines and other periodicals, and a wide diversity of books. Newspaper circulation reported by the three English-language dailies averaged 219,000 in 1978-1979, compared with 206,600 at the beginning of the decade.

The major sources for statistics on communications are the reports and records of the U.S. Postal Service, Federal Communications Commission, CATV Division of the Hawaii State Department of Regulatory Agencies, Hawaiian Telephone Company, Audit Bureau of Circulations, A. C. Nielsen Co., and Hawaii Media Guide. Earlier figures appear in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 18. Data on communications for other States and for the nation as a whole are carried in Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Section 19.

Section 17

ENERGY AND SCIENCE

This section presents statistics on energy production and consumption, the electric and gas utility industries, and research and development and scientific resources.

Electricity sales exceeded 6.3 billion kilowatt-hours in 1980, a total that has doubled since 1968. Manufactured gas sales reached 34.7 million therms in 1980, 25 percent above the figure ten years earlier. Residential rates in 1980 averaged 7.9 cents per kilowatt-hour and $1.47 per therm, both well above the corresponding rates only a few years earlier. Average residential use (7,117 kWh and 244 therms in 1980) has declined significantly in recent years.

The liquid fuel tax base for 1980 was approximately 940 million gallons, compared with 825 million in 1974 and 755 million in 1970. The 1980 total included 313 million gallons of gasoline, 503 million of aviation fuel, and 119 million of diesel oil. The average price for leaded premium gasoline rose from 48.7 cents per gallon in October 1973 to $1.606 in May 1981.

Total energy consumption in 1978 amounted to 253 trillion British thermal units, compared with 196 trillion BTU a decade earlier. Transportation accounted for 58 percent of the 1978 total.

The State is well served with scientific resources. A 1976 inventory reported 384 companies and agencies with research or scientific capabilities. Employment in these organizations was more than 34,000. Federal research and development obligations in Hawaii exceeded $40 million in 1979. Thirty-two patents were granted to Hawaii residents in 1980.

Information on energy and science can be obtained from reports and records of the U.S. Department of Energy, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, National Science Foundation, Hawaii State Department of Taxation, Hawaii State Department of Regulatory Agencies, Public Utilities Division, and individual utility companies. Detailed statistics on energy consumption appear in Hawaii Integrated Energy Assessment, Vol. IV, Energy Data Handbook, published by the State Energy Office of the Department of Planning and Economic Development in 1980. Hawaii's Scientific Resources, 1977 Directory, issued by DPED in 1977, contains information on scientific organizations and facilities in the Islands. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 19, presents data for earlier years. Data for the nation as a whole can be found in the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Sections 20 and 21.

Section 18

TRANSPORTATION

This section presents statistics relating to public roads, motor vehicles, bicycles, traffic accidents, local public transit, civil aviation, harbors, and water traffic.

Motor vehicle registration in Hawaii increased from 413,000 in 1970 to 506,000 in 1975 and 618,000 in 1980. Vehicle miles rose during the same period from 3.4 billion to 5.6 billion. Hawaii residents purchased 48,000 new passenger cars in 1979 and scrapped or shipped out approximately 28,000. By the end of 1980, 542,000 licensed drivers had access to 3,912 miles of streets and highways throughout the State. Bus passengers carried by the Honolulu Mass Transit Lines increased from 19.4 million in 1971 to 71.6 million in 1980. Registered bicycles numbered 108,000 in 1974 and 71,000 in 1980.

All scheduled interisland travel is now by air. Interisland steamer service was discontinued in 1949; hydrofoil service was initiated between Honolulu and other Island ports in 1975 and suspended early in 1978. In 1980, the two certified airlines and a number of air taxis reported 6.7 million interisland passengers, more than two times their 1970 total, and carried 69,000 tons of cargo. The State has 10 commercial airports, 14 general aviation, military or semi-private airports, 12 civilian heliports, 3,948 active pilots, and 530 active civil aircraft in general aviation.

Rapid growth is similarly evident in transpacific travel. Although surface passenger arrivals dropped from 54,000 in 1959 to 400 in 1980, air arrivals increased during the same 21-year span from 224,000 to 4.3 million. Overseas cargo received in the State in 1978 amounted to 68,000 tons by air and 9.1 million tons by ship.

Undocumented State-registered vessels as of December 31, 1980 numbered 13,459, compared with 8,042 in 1970. Median length was 18 feet, and four-fifths were stored on land. There were also 1,143 documented vessels in the State in 1980, more than double the 1970 total.

The chief source for transportation statistics is the Hawaii State Department of Transportation and its Highways, Harbors and Airports Divisions and Motor Vehicle Safety Office. Other sources include the U.S. Coast Guard, Civil Aeronautics Board, Federal Aviation Administration, Army Corps of Engineers, Honolulu Department of Transportation Services and Department of Data Services, County finance departments, Cardinal Mailing Services, and individual transportation companies. Data for the entire period of record appear in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 17. Similar statistics for other areas are reported in Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Sections 22 and 23.

^{1/} Data limited to the Port of Honolulu.

The decline in passenger volumes after 1977 reflects the termination of service by the Mariposa and Monterey on April 2, 1978.

^{2/} Scheduled interisland passenger service by hydrofoil was begun June 15, 1975 and terminated January 15, 1978. Interisland cruise ship service was begun June 21, 1980. The 1978 figure is an estimate based on the daily average for 1977.

1/ According to the Waterborne Commerce Statistics Center, the source for these data, the 1976 data for Honolulu Harbor (reported in The State of Hawaii Data Book 1978, table 322) "incorrectly credited Honolulu Harbor, Oahu, with passenger traffic which should have been credited to Kewalo Basin, Oahu. In addition, these improper credits to Honolulu Harbor were doubled because the origin and destination data were incorrectly reported by the operators on the VORs (Vessel Operation Reports). The incorrect data contained in the CY 1976 VORs was corrected in CY 1977 thus reflecting a significant reduction in passenger totals for Honolulu Harbor, Oahu, in CY 1977 and a significant increase in passenger totals for Kewalo Basin, Oahu, in CY 1977. The passenger totals for CY 1976, 1977 and 1978 are further distorted by the fact that there are at least two water carriers that did not report passenger traffic for those years." The 1977 data for Honolulu Harbor were published in the 1979 edition, table 309, and the 1980 edition, table 377. These errors also affect the trend data for Honolulu Harbor presented in the preceding table and its earlier counterparts (for example, table 376 in the 1980 edition).

2/ Commercial interisland hydrofoil service was discontinued January 15, 1978. It appears that local passenger traffic was misclassified as interisland during 1978.

3/ Chiefly Pearl Harbor tours. According to the U.S. Navy, civilian boats carried 537,671 passengers to or around the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial during 1978. All local passenger traffic appears to have been misclassified as interisland for this table.

This section presents statistics on agricultural land, farms, and specific crops, livestock, dairy products, and poultry. Related information appears in Section 6 (on land use), 11 and 15 (agricultural employment and earnings), and 22 (food processing).

There were 4,300 farms in Hawaii as of 1980, with a total area of 2.0 million acres. Both figures have declined during the past decade. The value of crop sales in 1980 was $552 million, or 221 percent higher than the total for 1970. Livestock sales amounted to $81 million, or 95 percent more than the 1970 level. Combined crop and livestock sales ranged from $94 million in Kauai County to $215 million on the Big Island. Net farm income in 1979 was $157 million. Major crops in 1980 were sugar ($385 million in sales, up 248 percent over the decade), pineapple ($77 million, or 94 percent over the 1970 total), flowers and nursery products ($27 million, or 549 percent more than in 1970), and macadamia nuts ($24 million, up 743 percent). Diversified agriculture, defined as all crops other than sugar and pineapple, rose from $22 million in 1970 to $91 million in 1980, or approximately 313 percent. About 640 farms sold $27 million of flowers and nursery products in 1980, chiefly anthuriums, potted foliage, and orchids. Important products of livestock farms as of 1980 included cattle ($28 million in sales), milk ($27 million), and eggs ($14 million). Coffee sales have dropped sharply during the past decade. In 1980, Hawaii produced 40 percent of the fresh market vegetables consumed locally, 23 percent of the fresh market fruits, 30 percent of the beef and veal, 24 percent of the chickens, none of the rice, and 89 percent of the eggs.

Aquaculture has been growing in importance in recent years. Freshwater prawn production amounted to 300,000 pounds in 1980, with a value of more than $1 million. Only six years earlier the corresponding figures had been only 11,000 lb. and $38,500.

Statistics on Hawaiian agriculture exclude pakalōlō (marijuana) and other illicit plants. Authorities confiscated $19 million worth of marijuana in 1980, but the proportion escaping detection is unknown.

Important sources for data on agriculture include the United States Census of Agriculture, generally conducted at five-year intervals, the annual report on Statistics of Hawaiian Agriculture issued by the Hawaii Agricultural Reporting Service, and data compiled by the Hawaii Agricultural Experiment Station, Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, and Pineapple Growers Association of Hawaii. Agricultural data for earlier years are summarized in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 13. National statistics appear in Section 24 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980.

Section 20

FORESTS, FISHERIES, AND MINING

This section presents data on forests and forest products, commercial fishing, and mining and mineral products. Other statistics on forest products appear in Section 19.

The most recent available statistics show 1.2 million acres of forest and water reserve and 948,000 acres of commercial forest in the State, most of it on the Big Island. More than 45,000 acres had been planted in eucalyptus and other species of trees by mid-1980. Forest products harvested in 1977 had a value of $3.5 million, including $2.3 million from logs for fiber. More than 390 forest and brushland fires burned 2,439 acres in fiscal 1980.

The commercial fish catch in fiscal year 1980 amounted to 9.6 million pounds and had a value of $9.7 million. Aku (Skipjack) accounted for about one-third of the total value. Other important species are ahi, ahipalala, akule, opelu and opakapaka. Commercial fishermen numbered 2,497; they operated 1,377 fishing vessels, serving 35 fishery wholesaling and processing establishments.

The value of mineral production reached $61 million in 1980, most of it in cement ($28 million) and stone ($30 million). The 1980 total, only slightly below the all-time high reached in 1979, was double the level of the early 1970s.

Important sources of data on these subjects are the United States Census of Agriculture, United States Census of Mineral Industries, and reports and records of the U.S. Bureau of Mines, National Marine Fisheries Service, and Hawaii State Department of Land and Natural Resources, Fish and Game Division and Forestry and Wildlife Division. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 14, summarizes the data for earlier periods. Comparable Mainland statistics are reported in the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Sections 25, 26 and 27.

Table 459.-- MINERAL INDUSTRIES AND MINES AT MANUFACTURES:
1958 TO 1977 - Con.

(D) Withheld to avoid disclosing operations of individual companies.

1/ In 1977, 1972, and 1967, data for companies without paid employees were excluded from the census of mineral industries.

2/ For crushed and broken stone, sand and gravel, clay, and gypsum mining operations in manufacturing establishments, the number of production, development, and exploration workers was estimated from reported figures for hours worked. No data were obtained on other employees at such operations; hence, the same employment and payroll figures are included for all employees as for production, development, and exploration workers.

3/ For crushed and broken stone, sand and gravel, clay, and gypsum, mining operations in manufacturing establishments, includes the estimated value of minerals produced and used in the same establishment in making manufactured products. For all years, represents gross value of shipments and contains some duplication due to the transfer of crude minerals from one establishment to another for preparation.

4/ Data for mineral operations in manufacturing establishments exclude purchased machinery installed.

5/ Excludes data for crushed and broken stone, sand and gravel, clay, and gypsum mining operations in manufacturing establishments.

Section 21

CONSTRUCTION AND HOUSING

This section presents statistics on construction activity and costs, the size and composition of the housing inventory, occupancy of housing, sales, and residential financing.

There were 22,771 building permits issued in 1980, with an estimated value of $1,279 million. The total included $737 million for private residential construction and $481 million for private nonresidential structures. The value of government construction contracts awarded was $231 million. Construction put in place, as indicated by the contracting tax base, totaled $783 million in 1970 and $1.57 billion in 1980. The value of land transfers in 1980 was $3.9 billion. Mortgage loans outstanding at the end of 1979 amounted to $6.3 billion. The May 1981 construction cost index for Honolulu (1967=100) was 285.1 for single-family residences and 303.8 for high-rise buildings.

The number of housing units in the State increased from 217,000 in 1970 to 343,000 in 1981. Owner occupied units numbered 89,000 in 1970 and 142,000 in 1981; the latter total included 105,000 on land owned in fee simple and 37,000 on leased land. Condominium units, first authorized in 1961, numbered 80,000 at the end of 1980. Military and public housing accounted for 26,000 units as of 1981. Housing was in short supply throughout most of the past decade: on Oahu, the vacancy rate in March 1981, according to the Federal Home Loan Bank, was only 1.4 percent. The average selling price of single family homes on Oahu during the year ended February 28, 1981, based on Multiple Listing Service data, was $169,000. The median gross monthly rent for Oahu rose from $140 in 1970 to $234 in 1976, and the median value of owner occupied units in the latter year was well above $75,000.

The principal sources for these data are the 1970 and 1980 U.S. Censuses of Housing, the 1976 Honolulu Housing Survey, postal vacancy surveys issued by the Federal Home Loan Bank, various series compiled by State and County agencies (primarily the Hawaii Housing Authority, Hawaii State Department of Planning and Economic Development, Department of Regulatory Agencies, Department of Taxation, and Bureau of Conveyances, and the four County building departments), the construction cost indexes prepared by the First Hawaiian Bank, and the Honolulu Board of Realtors reports on Multiple Listing Service activity. Many of these series are summarized in reports published by the Bank of Hawaii (particularly Construction in Hawaii, issued annually) and the First Hawaiian Bank. Persons interested in figures for earlier periods should consult Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 15. Mainland statistics appear in Section 28 of Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980.

1/ As of April 1.

2/ As indicated by the number of taxpayers claiming home exemptions. The number of owner occupied housing units reported by the U.S. Census of Housing is somewhat higher than the corresponding number based on taxpayer home exemptions, chiefly because of differences in definitions. Data for 1977-1981 refer to January 1; data for 1970-1976, to July 1.

3/ Calculated as a residual after accounting for the known components, some of which pertain to dates other than April 1, and thus not attributable to any specific date.

4/ As of April 1. Data include housing units leased from private owners.

Section 22

MANUFACTURES

This section presents statistics on the manufacturing segment of the economy, including sugar processing and pineapple canning.

The number of manufacturing establishments in Hawaii increased from 672 in 1963 to 773 in 1972 and 946 in 1977. The value added by manufacture rose from $326 million in 1967 to $410 million in 1972, $791 million in 1977, and $783 million in 1978. Three-fourths of all manufacturing activity in the State in 1977 was on Oahu. Food processing -- mostly sugar and pineapple -- accounted for more than 44 percent of the value added by manufacture in that year. Between 1970 and 1980, the general excise and use tax base increased 201 percent for sugar processing, 71 percent for pineapple canning, and 119 percent for all other manufacturing. There were three pineapple canneries and 15 sugar mills in Hawaii in mid-1980, in each case about half as many as a dozen years earlier. The production of canned pineapple fruit and juices in 1980 amounted to 19 million actual cases, well below the levels of earlier years. Sugar production in 1980 amounted to 1.02 million short tons, about the same level as in other recent years. The value of sugar production (including commercial molasses) was $594 million, well below the record set in 1974 but still the second best year in Island history. Important manufactures other than food processing include apparel ($45.9 million in value added in 1978), printing and publishing ($97.9 million), and transportation equipment ($28.4 million).

Sources for data on this subject include the United States Census of Manufactures, most recently conducted for 1977, the Annual Survey of Manufactures, and publications of the Hawaii State Department of Agriculture and Department of Taxation, Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, and Pineapple Growers Association of Hawaii. Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 16, reviews the figures for earlier years. Statistics for the nation as a whole appear in Section 29 of the Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980.

Section 23

DOMESTIC TRADE AND SERVICES

This section presents statistics relating to retail and wholesale trade; hotels; and selected personal, business, automotive, repair, and amusement services.

These activities have undergone rapid growth in recent decades, in part because of higher prices. Retail sales increased from $1.1 billion in 1967 to $1.9 billion in 1972 and $3.3 billion in 1977. Wholesale sales rose from $1.0 billion in 1967 to $2.6 billion in 1977. Hotels, amusements, and other services reported receipts of $1.3 billion in 1977, compared with $310 million in 1967. General excise and use tax base data for more recent years indicate continued increases; between 1977 and 1980, the retailing tax base rose 45 percent, the wholesaling base by 48 percent, and the base for services by 59 percent. Major retail concentrations include Ala Moana Center, Waikiki, Pearlridge Center, and downtown Honolulu. The 19 department stores on Oahu reported sales of $425 million in 1980. In addition to civilian retail outlets, there are 104 commissaries, exchanges, clubs, and food services maintained by the armed forces; these facilities had sales of $300 million in 1980.

Growth has been especially rapid for hotels. The number of units in the State rose from 6,800 in 1959 to 27,000 in mid-1970 and 56,800 in February 1981. There were 412 hotels, motels and apartment-hotels in the State on the latter date, including 254 on the Neighbor Islands. Occupancy rates averaged 71.7 percent in Waikiki and 62.6 percent on the Neighbor Islands during 1980. The average daily room rate was $47.28 in 1980. The hotel payroll in 1979 totaled $219 million, compared with $58 million ten years earlier.

Fifty-eight feature motion pictures and television specials and series were filmed in Hawaii in 1980, accounting for local expenditures of $21 million.

The major source of these data is the United State Census of Business, most recently conducted at the end of 1977. Statistics on the retailing, wholesaling, and services tax bases are available from the Hawaii State Department of Taxation. Data on hotel room counts, occupancy and other characteristics are published by the Hawaii Visitors Bureau and the firm of Pannell, Kerr, & Forster. The Hawaii Film Office in the Department of Planning and Economic Development compiles data on motion picture and television production. A summary of figures on trade and services in earlier years appears in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 20. The Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980, Section 30, presents similar data for other states and the nation as a whole.

1/ The decrease in growth in 1980 was caused by two major anomalies: a prolonged strike of the Screen Actors Guild, which affected major productions during much of 1980, and changes in immigration regulation enforcement policies, which brought filming of foreign TV commercials to a virtual halt.

2/ Each program in a series counted separately.

3/ Includes post-production costs out of the State.

Section 24

FOREIGN AND INTERSTATE COMMERCE

This section includes data on the flow of goods, services, and capital between Hawaii and the rest of the world, with particular emphasis on trade and investment involving foreign countries.

Imports to Hawaii from foreign nations rose from $175 million in 1970 to $1.8 billion in 1980. Exports to foreign countries amounted to only $51 million in 1970, but by 1980 exceeded $174 million. (These figures, it should be noted, refer to merchandise imports and exports through the Honolulu Customs District. They do not necessarily represent exports of commodities originating in Hawaii, nor imports for direct consumption within the State.)

Trade with the Mainland United States has similarly risen in the past decade. Merchandise received from the Mainland increased from $887 million in 1968 to $2.2 billion in 1978. Merchandise exported to the Mainland rose from $329 million in 1968 to $817 million in 1974, then slipped back to $495 million in 1978.

Among the foreign nations, Hawaii's leading trading partners in 1979 were Japan for imports and Australia for exports. Imports from Japan amounted to $202 million, or 16 percent of the total, while exports to Australia reached $41 million or 24 percent of all foreign exports. About 41 percent of all imports for consumption were petroleum and natural gas products.

Honolulu Foreign Trade Zone No. 9 handled merchandise valued at $37.2 million in fiscal 1980. Merchandise handled by Subzone No. 9A, the PRI refinery, was valued at $1.5 billion, almost all of it in petroleum and petroleum products.

Foreign-owned U.S. firms in Hawaii operated 138 establishments in 1976, and employed 7,729 persons with an annual payroll of $71 million. Out of 39,782 hotel rooms in the State as of July 1978, 8,381 (or 21.1 percent) were foreign owned.

Sources for statistics on interstate and foreign commerce include the U.S. Bureau of the Census (for foreign trade), the Bank of Hawaii (for interstate trade and balance of payments), Foreign Trade Zones No. 9 and 9A, the Hawaii International Services Agency, and recent studies of Foreign Investment in Hawaii and Selected Characteristics of Foreign-Owned U.S. Firms issued by the U.S. Department of Commerce. Further information appears in cargo data by origin and destination, compiled by the Army Corps of Engineers and cited in Section 18.

Comparable data for the nation as a whole appear in Section 31 of Statistical Abstract of the United States: 1980. Long-term Island trends are summarized in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, Section 21.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

This volume is the fifteenth in a series published by the Hawaii State Department of Planning and Economic Development and its predecessor agencies. The first was Statistical Abstract of Hawaii, 1962, issued by the Department of Planning and Research in 1962. After a four-year hiatus, updated versions titled The State of Hawaii Data Book were published by the Department of Planning and Economic Development in 1967, 1968, and annually beginning in 1970. Most of the volumes issued prior to the present edition are now out of print, but copies can be consulted in the DPED Library, Hawaii State Library, University of Hawaii and community college libraries, Honolulu Municipal Reference Library, and other collections throughout the State.

Additional information regarding specific statistical sources can be found in the introductory statements to each section of the Data Book, in footnotes and source references to the various tables, and in other DPED publications. Three of these DPED reports cover statistical sources in considerable detail: Statistics in Hawaii: 34 Papers Prepared for the Hawaii Statistical Reporting System Workshop, February 18-20, 1970, at Waikiki (1970), Proceedings of the Conference on Socio-Environmental Indicators, March 15-17, 1971, Honolulu, Hawaii (1971), and Inventory of Hawaii Planning Information (1973). The first two are reports of statistical symposia. The third is a 164-page reference work prepared for the Hawaii Urban Planning Information Center, containing detailed geographic and subject-matter indexes and source listings. These reports are now out of print, but copies can be consulted in most Hawaii libraries.

Although most of the series in the Data Book are shown only for recent years, earlier figures in many cases can be found in Historical Statistics of Hawaii, by Robert C. Schmitt. This book, published by the University Press of Hawaii in 1977, contains 711 pages of narrative and tables on the development of statistics in Hawaii since the 18th century. Copies are available from the University Press and various book stores for $25.00.

Another useful publication is Statistical Sources in Hawaii: Reference Guide to Materials Available at the Hawaii State Library, compiled by Masae Gotanda and published by the Office of Library Services of the Hawaii State Department of Education in November 1978.

Privately published works of general statistical reference include Hawaii Facts and Figures and All About Business in Hawaii. Hawaii Facts and Figures is a publication of the Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii, first issued (under a different title) more than forty years ago. The most recent edition appeared early in 1981, with statistics through 1980; copies are available from the Chamber for $2.00. All About Business in Hawaii, 1981 Edition, is the ninth in an annual series published by Crossroads Press. The current edition costs $2.95.

Two other privately published reports containing useful statistics are the annual economic reviews of the two largest banks in the State. The current editions are Hawaii 81, published by the Bank of Hawaii in August 1981, and Hawaii in 1980, issued by the First Hawaiian Bank as a supplement to its monthly Economic Indicators for April 1981. Greater detail appears in Hawaii's Economic Indicators: Sources, Definitions, and Trends, published by the First Hawaiian Bank in March 1980.

The County of Hawaii, Department of Research and Development, has published its own County of Hawaii Data Book 1980, presenting 264 pages of statistics for the Big Island. This report, dated December 1980, is available for $7.50 (postpaid, $10.00).

A similar report for Kauai, County of Kauai's Statistical Review: An Annual Report of the County's Economic Indicators, is issued by the Kauai Office of Economic Development. The most recent edition, presenting data for 1979, was released in May 1980 and contains 15 pages of tables.

Persons interested in comparisons between Hawaii and other States or the nation as a whole should consult the Statistical Abstract of the United States and its companion volumes, the State and Metropolitan Area Data Book and County and City Data Book. The Abstract is an annual publication of the U.S. Bureau of the Census, initiated in 1878. The current edition is the 101st, dated 1980; copies are available for $13.00 (cloth) or $10.00 (paper) from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402. The State and Metropolitan Area Data Book, 1979, also issued by GPO, costs $12.00. The County and City Data Book, most recently issued for 1977, is sold by the same agency for $19.50. All three volumes are on the shelves of most libraries.
