Comprehensive Exemption List for the City and County of Honolulu, Department of Parks and Recreation as Reviewed and Concurred by the Environmental Council on July 20, 2016

"Pursuant to Section 11-200-8, Hawai'i Administrative Rules, the following types of actions, where they fall within the given classes of action, shall generally be exempt from requirements regarding the preparation of an environmental assessment.

According to section 11-200-8, Hawai'i Administrative Rules, the Department of Parks and Recreation may declare exempt the following types of action from the requirement to prepare an environmental assessment.

The Department of Parks and Recreation shall not make exemption declarations when the cumulative impact of successive actions in the same place, over time, is significant, or when an action that is normally insignificant in its impact on the environment may be significant, in a particularly sensitive environment. Sensitive area may include, but are not limited to significant historical, archaeological, and cultural sites, flood plains, wetland, beaches, coastal areas, erosion-prone areas, geological hazardous land, critical habitats, and estuaries."
