(attached to THE STATE OF HAWAII'S OFFICE OF PLANNING AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT)

FOR A FORUM ON THE USE OF EXEMPTIONS TO CHAPTER 343

At Noon on Monday December 11, 2023

Our Panelists

Michele Lefebvre (Chair of the EAC Exemptions Committee) is an environmental scientist and project manager at Stantec Government Services Inc., and has a bachelor's and PhD in biology. Michele has 19 years experience preparing environmental assessments and environmental impact statements for a variety of applicant and agency projects. Her experience includes complying with NEPA and HEPA statutes, rules, regulations, and applicable orders and decisions.

Tom Eisen Truthfully a geographer, Tom has been engaged with Hawai'i's planning community for over 30 years. Presently serving as a planner in the Environmental Review Program, Tom also has natural resource planning experience with the Coastal Zone Management Program and the Office of Conservation and Coastal Land. His planning perspective has been broadened by employment with two county planning departments, as well as working as a sole proprietor consultant and with a large local planning firm. Preferring to surf and practice yoga in his free time, Tom has also been a Neighborhood Board & Community Garden Board member, volunteered as a docent at the Waikiki Aquarium, and built yurts, herbaceous gardens, and photovoltaic systems.
