Lanai - Nick

Here is a photo of Hulopoe which is a Hot Spot on Lana'i. This photo is of J&M Display (the guys in photo) setting up for a fireworks show on April 14, 2017. They were doing fireworks right in the sand on the beach. The show was to take place 15th, 16th, and 17th of April (3 nights). Hulopoe is a marine preserve with strict rules. Lanai residents are concerned about environmental safety. I wanted to share with our group.

"This ride takes the same route down but we end up at the Kanaio coast, a large bay where we set up a lovely BBQ Bully Burgers lunch, spread out under a huge Ki'awe forest ending with scrumptious desserts.

While on this trip, you get the option to hike to an ancient Hawaiian fishing village, or to a secluded sandy beach called the Oasis, or to just revel in the sun, take a swim in the emerald-blue water, snorkel or check out the tide pools."
