Suggestions for Recommending Geographic Names in Hawaii

- For all geographic features in the State of Hawaii, Hawaiian names are given preference. Any known Hawaiian diacritical marks (the glottal stop (okina) and the macron (kahako)) should be included on the application.

- In determining the spelling of controversial names, early historical records, knowledgeable local informants and other means are used to arrive at the most viable original spelling.

- In Hawaii, very few geographic features exist which were not named by ancient Hawaiians. If no amount of research can reveal the original Hawaiian name of a feature, a new name may be considered. Things to avoid are:
  a) Non-Hawaiian names
  b) Duplication of names, especially on the same Island
  c) Names commemorating living persons
  d) Long or clumsily constructed names
  e) The use of hyphens or apostrophes
  f) Personal names unless of historical significance
