DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS HOSTS FINANCIAL LITERACY FAIR

HONOLULU – The Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs (DCCA) announces a free Financial Literacy Fair on Friday, April 4 from 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. at Tamarind Park in Downtown Honolulu.

As part of Financial Literacy Month in April, DCCA's Commissioner of Securities Tung Chan organized the fair to provide educational information, services and programs to the public.

"With the volatility in the economy, financial literacy becomes more important than ever," said Chan. "This fair brings together a lot of organizations with valuable financial information to help consumers be informed and make better decisions."

Exhibitors will offer free financial literacy information to the general public. In addition to the Commissioner of Securities' Investor Education program, volunteer exhibitors include:

- DCCA Educational Programs
- State Unclaimed Properties Program
- HI529 Hawai'i's College Savings Program
- State Executive Office of Aging's Sage PLUS and SMP Hawai'i Programs
- University of Hawai'i at Manoa Cooperative Extension Office
- AARP-Hawai'i
- Consumer Credit Counseling Services of Hawai'i
- Hawai'i Council on Economic Education
- Hawai'i HomeOwnership Center
- Hawaiian Community Assets
- Social Security Administration
- United States Postal Service
- Better Business Bureau
- Internal Revenue Service
