Dear Messrs. Oshima and Mukai:

By letter dated November 8, 2006, Applicant Hawaiian Telcom Services Corporation, Inc. ("Applicant") submitted a 3rd request to the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs ("Department"), pursuant to Section 440G-7(4), Hawaii Revised Statutes ("HRS"), to further extend the one hundred-twenty (120) day time limit for final action by the Department on its Application for a Cable Franchise to Friday, December 8, 2006.

Pursuant to Applicant's September 21, 2006 request, the Department granted Applicant's request on September 26, 2006, and the time limit for final action was extended to November 17, 2006. In its second request, Applicant sought approval for a further extension of one week, to Friday, November 24, 2006, which was granted by the Department. By this third extension request, Applicant now seeks approval for a further extension to Friday, December 8, 2006.

The Department continues to be available and ready to discuss the franchise provisions at the Applicant's convenience and looks forward to receiving more information from the Applicant on these outstanding issues.
