

Akaku: Maui Community Television

Media Education Organizational Partnerships July 1, 2007 – June 30, 2008

Akaku partners with local nonprofits, schools and community-based groups to customize project-based educational workshops, which culminate in the production of short videos that are distributed via community access channels, public screenings and the Internet.

Media Education Organizational collaborations included service to the following:

- MEDB Focus Maui Nui Youth Alliance (Field Production and advanced documentary production training and support)
- Boys & Girls Club of Maui (A customized training in Field Production and Adobe Premiere editing software)
- Kihei Charter School's S.T.E.M. Program (Akaku Orientation/Intro to Television)
- MEO B.E.S.T. Reintegration Program (specialized training in Final Cut Pro)

- Hana High & Intermediate (East Maui Taro Festival – Field Class)

- Maui High School – (Final Cut Pro specialized training for special education student)

- Kamehameha School – (specialized training for graduating seniors in use of equipment to complete graduation requirements)

- Paia Youth & Cultural Center (specialized training in field/editing to produce video for the Da Lai Lama visit)

- Maui Waena Intermediate (specialized training in studio production for student daily broadcast)
