STIPULATED PROCEDURAL ORDER

This Stipulated Procedural Order shall govern this docket, and the Parties shall comply with its terms.¹

I.
ORDER OF PROCEDURE

The parties agree that no evidentiary hearing is necessary and that, therefore, no testimony is required. Instead, the parties agree to proceed as set forth below:

March 17, 2004	Verizon files Application.
April 21, 2004	Consumer Advocate serves information requests (“IRs”), if necessary, on Verizon.
May 10, 2004	Verizon serves its responses to the Consumer Advocate’s IRs, if necessary.
No later than June 2, 2004	Consumer Advocate files its Statement of Position (“SOP”), if any.
June 9, 2004	Verizon files its SOP, if any.
June 15, 2004	End of 90-day review period.

¹ The “Parties” are Verizon Hawaii Inc. (“Verizon”) and the Division of Consumer Advocacy (the “Consumer Advocate”).

II.
COPIES OF FILINGS

Copies of all filings shall be filed with the Commission and served on each Party as follows:

Commission	Original + 8 copies
Consumer Advocate	2 paper copies
All other parties	2 paper copies

Each Party shall provide copies of its filings to the other Party on an expedited basis. This means that, where practicable, hard copies of the filings should be handcarried to the other Party. In addition, where practicable, copies of the filings should be sent to the other Party via e-mail (no facsimile) in a standard electronic format that is readily readable by the Parties. The Parties agree to use MS Word as the standard programming format for filings in this case. Each Party must provide electronic addresses for e-mail purposes to the other Party. If workpapers, documentation or exhibits attached to any filing are not readily available in an electronic format, a Party shall not be required to convert such workpapers, documentation or exhibits to an electronic format

III.
COMMUNICATIONS

Communications among the parties may either be through counsel or through the persons designated below:
