STIPULATION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Electric Company, Inc. ("HECO" or "Applicant"), filed an application on June 17, 2005 for Commission approval to commit funds in excess of $2,500,000, excluding customer contributions, for Item Y-49000, the Campbell Industrial Park Generating Station and Transmission Additions project ("Proposed Project");

WHEREAS, HECO maintains that certain system related information should be considered confidential for security reasons, or that disclosure of certain confidential information (i.e., detailed cost estimate) could disadvantage HECO in its future negotiations with contractors/vendors who will be submitting bids to perform the work on various components of the project (which could result in higher prices and a higher project cost to be recovered through HECO's ratepayers);

WHEREAS, the Division of Consumer Advocacy of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs ("Consumer Advocate") is, ex officio, a party to this proceeding pursuant to the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Public Utilities Commission (the "Commission");

WHEREAS, Life of the Land ("LOL") was made a party to this proceeding and Southern Wine and Spirits of America, Inc. ("SWSA") was granted participant status to this proceeding pursuant to Order No. 22244, filed January 26, 2006.<sup>1</sup>

WHEREAS, Applicant is willing to disclose certain confidential information to the Consumer Advocate and the Commission, and either all or specific portions of the confidential information to LOL and SWSA as appropriate so long as the information is protected from further disclosure;

WHEREAS, in order to assess the merits of the approvals sought by the Applicant, as well as to determine its involvement in this proceeding, the Consumer Advocate must have access to the information alleged to be confidential;

WHEREAS, Applicant, the Consumer Advocate, LOL (collectively "parties") and SWSA ("participant") desire to establish a set of procedures and provisions pertaining to the use and disclosure of information considered to be confidential and any information which a party or participant may in the future contend to be confidential;

WHEREAS, the parties and participant understand that during the course of the evidentiary hearing in this matter, if any, if it becomes necessary to address any information provided pursuant to this protective order during the course of the hearing, that portion of the proceeding will be heard in camera;

NOW, THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, in accordance with Section 6-61-50 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Public Utilities Commission, that the Commission issue a protective order covering the confidential information identified in the course of the proceeding in connection with the Application, as follows:

TERMS OF THE ORDER

1. This protective order governs the classification, acquisition, and use of confidential information produced by any party and/or participant in this docket.
2. All parties or participants to all or any portion of this docket, including persons who are granted intervention or participation after the effective date of this protective order, shall be subject to this protective order and shall be entitled to all confidential information of a party or participant under the provisions of this protective order to the extent allowed by the Commission.

APPLICATION OF THE UNIFORM INFORMATION PRACTICES ACT

3. To the extent that any of the documents covered by this protective order consist of "government records," as defined in Haw. Rev. Stat. §92F-3, the provisions of Haw. Rev. Stat. Ch. 92F (Uniform Information Practices Act or "UIPA") shall apply to the disclosure of information contained in such documents. In the event any provision of this protective order conflicts with any provision of the UIPA, the UIPA shall control.

CLASSIFICATION

4. Any party or participant may designate as confidential any information it believes, in good faith, contains trade secrets or other confidential research, development, commercial, financial, vendor, or bid information. Such information shall be protected against disclosure to a non-qualified person pursuant to the terms of this protective order, unless such information is declassified, or permission to disclose the information to such non-qualified person is granted by the party or participant claiming confidentiality, as provided in paragraph 13 below.

<sup>1</sup> SWSA participation is limited to the health, environmental, traffic congestion, and noise effects caused by the Proposed Project on SWSA's products, employees, vendors, customers, and other visitors to SWSA's warehouse adjacent to the site of the Proposed Project and the value of SWSA's property next to the site.

5. If a party or participant designates information as confidential pursuant to paragraph 4 above or 6 below, it shall produce the confidential information in accordance with the procedures described in paragraphs 11 through 14 below, and concurrently provide certain information in writing to the Commission and the Consumer Advocate. If a party or participant seeks to designate information as confidential, it must: (1) identify, in reasonable detail, the information's source, character, and location, (2) state clearly the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and (3) describe, with particularity, the cognizable harm to the producing party or participant, as applicable, from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information. If the Commission or any party or participant to this docket challenges the claim of confidentiality of the information, the party or participant claiming confidentiality shall bear the burden of proof in supporting its claim of confidentiality, and the Commission will determine whether the information is confidential and whether it should be disclosed under a protective order. Any challenge to the confidentiality of any information shall be made in accordance with paragraph 24 below.

6. Confidential information provided to the Commission or any party or participant, orally or in any other form, shall be protected as fully as confidential information provided in written form. A party or participant shall notify the Commission and the Consumer Advocate when information provided orally or in other than written form includes confidential information. At the time of such notification, the party or participant shall, in the manner provided in paragraph 5 above, specify the subject-matter of such confidential information, the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and the cognizable harm to the producing party or participant from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information.

FORMS OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

7. All information claimed to be confidential information shall be subject to the terms of this protective order, and shall be treated by all qualified persons (as defined by this protective order) as constituting confidential information. Unless a different treatment is warranted, any notes, summaries, abstracts, or analyses that are prepared by counsel, experts, or other qualified persons, and that reflect the underlying confidential information, shall also be subject to the terms of this protective order.

DESIGNATION

8. Any party or participant claiming that information is confidential shall place upon all applicable material the following legend:

CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER

Whenever only a portion of a document, transcript, or other material is deemed to contain confidential information, the party or participant shall, to the extent reasonably practicable, limit the claim of confidentiality to only such portion. However, if such limitation is not reasonably practicable, the entire document, transcript, or other material may be designated as confidential information.

9. With respect to any confidential information that is not under the control of the party or participant claiming confidentiality, other persons shall, to the extent requested by that party or participant, cooperate to ensure that all copies of such confidential information bear the legend required in paragraph 8 above.

10. Any party or participant may request the Commission to designate as confidential information any document or other information previously produced but not designated as confidential, provided that the party or participant, in the manner provided in paragraph 5 above, specifies the subject-matter of such confidential information, the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and the cognizable harm to the producing party or participant from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information. In addition, the party or participant claiming confidentiality shall substitute the previously-produced but not designated as confidential material with the identical material under designation as required in Paragraph 8 above.

DISCLOSURE

11. Except as provided in paragraph 13 below, confidential information shall not be made available or disclosed to any person who is not a "qualified person" as defined in paragraph 12 below.

directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by the Consumer Advocate for this proceeding;

- d. Applicant, its officers and employees, its counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by Applicant for this proceeding;
- e. Any other party or participant to this proceeding, its staff, its counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by it for this proceeding, to the extent allowed by the Commission;
- f. Any other person approved by the party or participant asserting the claim of confidentiality; and
- g. Any other person designated as a qualified person by order of the Commission.

13. When a qualified person wishes to disclose confidential information to a non-qualified person, the qualified person must request permission from the party or participant claiming confidentiality. The request shall identify the non-qualified person to whom disclosure is desired; disclose any past, present, or anticipated affiliation between the qualified person and the non-qualified person; specify the exact information to be disclosed; and state the reasons for disclosure. If permission is granted by the party or participant claiming confidentiality, disclosure of the confidential information shall be made to such non-qualified person in the same manner as provided for qualified persons in paragraph 14 below.

PROCEDURE FOR OBTAINING ACCESS

14. Prior to disclosing confidential information to a qualified person other than the Commission and its staff, the qualified person shall read a copy of this protective order, complete a copy of the agreement attached as Exhibit A to this protective order, and sign the completed copy of the agreement. A copy of the executed agreement shall be delivered to the party or participant claiming confidentiality and the Commission.

USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

15. Any confidential information obtained under this protective order shall be used solely in connection with this proceeding and any related administrative and judicial proceedings (at which time the information will continue to be treated as confidential), and shall not be used for any other purpose, including business, governmental or commercial purposes, except as provided in paragraphs 16 and 17, and except as may be directed by (a) an order of court, (b) an order of the Commission, or (c) the UIPA (in the case of any "agency" as defined in Haw. Rev. Stat. §92F-3), including any ruling of the Office of Information Practices.

16. Any confidential information obtained under this protective order may be used by the Commission and its staff in any proceeding pending before the Commission involving the producing party or participant or their respective affiliates or where the intended use of such confidential information is for the purpose of assisting the Commission in fulfilling its statutory duties and responsibilities with respect to the producing party or participant or their respective affiliates. The confidential information shall continue to be treated as confidential until the protection conferred by this protective order (or any other applicable protective order) is terminated by the producing party or participant, or until further order of the Commission.

17. Any confidential information obtained under this protective order may be used by the Consumer Advocate, its staff, its consultant and its counsel in any proceeding pending before the Commission involving the producing party or participant or their respective affiliates, or where the intended use of such confidential information is for the purpose of assisting the Consumer Advocate in fulfilling its statutory duties and responsibilities with respect to the producing party or participant or their respective affiliates. The confidential information shall continue to be treated as confidential until the protection conferred by this protective order (or any other applicable protective order) is terminated by the producing party or participant, or until further order of the Commission.

18. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, if a party or participant desires to file written testimony, exhibits or pleadings which contain or reflect the confidential information, the page(s) or portions of the page(s) containing or reflecting such information shall be treated as confidential, and that part of any hearing at which such information is discussed shall be held in camera, or under other conditions imposed by the Commission to prevent unnecessary public disclosure of such information. A copy of any confidential page, with any such information deleted, shall be filed to be included in the public record, and each such page shall contain the following designation in the upper left hand corner:

Confidential Information

Protective Order No. _____.

RETENTION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

19. Confidential information shall be retained in a locked cabinet dedicated to the storage of confidential information, or otherwise secured to ensure that access to and disclosure of the confidential information is limited to a qualified person.

20. Confidential information that is given to or filed with the Commission or its staff shall be separately bound and placed in a sealed envelope or other appropriate sealed container on which shall appear the following legend:

THIS ENVELOPE IS SEALED PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER NO. _____ AND CONTAINS DOCUMENTS WITH _____ CONFIDENTIAL
INFORMATION. IT IS NOT TO BE OPENED OR
THE CONTENTS OF THIS ENVELOPE DISPLAYED OR REVEALED EXCEPT TO QUALIFIED PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO INSPECT THE ENCLOSED DOCUMENTS.

21. Confidential information shall not be reproduced or duplicated, except to make working copies and copies to be filed with the Commission under seal. If a document contains information so sensitive that it should not be copied by anyone, it shall bear the following legend: "Copying Prohibited."

22. If a court or other administrative agency requests, subpoenas, or orders production of confidential information that a party or participant or person has obtained under this protective order, that party or participant or person, prior to disclosure, shall promptly notify the party or participant claiming confidentiality of the request, subpoena, or order.

DURATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

23. The confidentiality of the information produced pursuant to this protective order shall be preserved until all interested parties and participant, by written stipulation, terminate the protection conferred by this protective order, or until further order of the Commission.

APPEAL TO THE COMMISSION

24. If any interested person disagrees with the designation of information as confidential, the party or participant claiming confidentiality and the person so disagreeing shall first make a good faith attempt to resolve the dispute on an informal basis. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the person contesting the confidentiality of the information shall file a motion to compel disclosure or any other appropriate motion with the Commission. The party or participant claiming confidentiality shall bear the burden of proof in supporting its claim, and the Commission will determine whether the information shall continue to be designated as confidential under this protective order. #### NONWAIVER OF OBJECTIONS AND RIGHTS

25. The parties and participant retain the right to contest any assertion or finding of confidentiality or of non-confidentiality.

26. The parties and participant retain the right to question, challenge, and object to the admissibility of confidential information on the grounds of relevancy or materiality.

27. The Commission may modify this protective order on the motion of any party or participant, or on its own motion, upon reasonable notice to the parties and participant and an opportunity for hearing.

DISPOSAL OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

28. Except as provided in paragraphs 29 and 30 below, within 90 days after the conclusion of this proceeding, persons in possession of confidential information shall, at the option of the party or participant producing the confidential information, return or destroy all such materials and all copies, notes, tapes, papers, or other medium containing, summarizing, excerpting, or otherwise embodying any confidential information. If the party or participant producing the confidential information requests destruction, the person destroying the information shall certify its destruction to the producing party or participant, indicating the name of the person destroying the documents, the method of destruction, and the identity of the specific documents destroyed.

29. Counsel and the representatives of record for a party or participant shall be entitled to retain memoranda, pleadings, exhibits of record, written testimony, and transcripts embodying information derived from or incorporating confidential information to the extent reasonably necessary to preserve files on this proceeding.
