PROTECTIVE ORDER
PROTECTIVE ORDER

The commission hereby adopts, with modifications, the Protective Order jointly submitted by the Parties on August 20, 2009.¹

I.

Background

By its Application filed on August 5, 2009, HECO seeks the commission's approval of a Power Purchase Agreement for As-Available Energy between the electric utility and Kahuku Wind Power, LLC, dated July 2, 2009 ("PPA"), and of other related matters.² In essence, HECO proposes to purchase energy on an as-available basis from Kahuku Wind Power, LLC's thirty megawatt wind farm pursuant to the terms of the PPA.

On August 20, 2009, the Parties submitted their Proposed Protective Order for the commission's review and approval.

The deadline for interested persons to timely file motions to intervene or participate was August 25, 2009, pursuant to HAR § 6-61-57(3)(A). No persons moved to intervene or participate in this proceeding.

On August 25, 2009, the Consumer Advocate filed its preliminary position statement, stating its intent to participate in this proceeding.

II.

Discussion

Paragraphs No. 4 and No. 6 of the Parties' Proposed Protective Order state:

4. A party to this proceeding may designate as confidential any information it believes, in good faith, contains trade secrets or other confidential research, development, commercial, financial, vendor, or bid information, including but not limited to cost support studies. Such information shall be protected against disclosure to a non-qualified person pursuant to the terms of this protective order, unless such information is declassified, or permission to disclose the information to such non-qualified person is granted by the party claiming confidentiality, as provided in paragraph 13 below. In addition, a party may designate certain information as being confidential (e.g., assumptions used in calculating avoided costs) and reserve distribution to another party (not including the Consumer Advocate) by notifying the Commission, the Consumer Advocate, and the other parties in writing, setting forth with particularity the information to be kept confidential and not available to the other party. With respect to such confidential information, the party to whom such information is being withheld shall be treated as a non-qualified person from whom such information shall be protected against disclosure to in accordance with the terms of this protective order.

6. Confidential information provided to the Commission or a party, orally or in any other form, shall be protected as fully as confidential information provided in written form. A party shall notify the Commission and the parties when information provided orally or in other than written form includes confidential information. At the time of such notification, a party shall, in the manner provided in paragraph 5 above, specify the subject-matter of such confidential information, the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and the cognizable harm to the producing party from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information, and the party shall, if applicable, reserve distribution to another specified party and set forth in particularity the information to be kept confidential and not available to the other party.

Parties' Proposed Protective Order, at 4-5 (emphasis added).

According to HECO, "[t]he underscored language was inserted to reserve distribution of confidential information to a party if such disclosure could disadvantage a party in future power purchase negotiations." 3

The commission has consistently rejected agreements between an applicant and the Consumer Advocate which effectively create two levels of information that are designated as confidential by the producing party: (1) information that is disclosed to the Consumer Advocate and any other parties,

intervenors, or participants; and (2) information that is disclosed only to the Consumer Advocate. As noted by the commission in Docket No. 2009-0050, Kauai Island Utility Cooperative's ("KIUC") pending general rate case:

Under this scenario, the deadline for interested persons to timely move to intervene or participate will not expire until June 2009, at the earliest. Here, however, the Proposed Protective Order jointly submitted by KIUC and the Consumer Advocate has the effect of preventing any potential intervenors or participants from receiving certain information that is designated as confidential by the producing party, in the absence of the intervenors' or participants' prior input or consent to the protective order proposed by the existing Parties at this time. Upon review, the commission will deny, without prejudice, the Parties' request to create two levels of confidentiality.

Docket No. 2009-0050, Protective Order, at 4-5 (emphasis added).

Here, there are no other parties to this proceeding other than HECO and the Consumer Advocate, as the deadline to seek intervenor or participant status has expired, with no persons seeking to intervene or participate herein. Thus, there is no need to create the two levels of confidentiality proposed by the Parties, as they effectively agree that HECO will disclose all confidentially designated information to the Consumer Advocate, the sole non-applicant party. Accordingly, the commission will adopt the Parties' Proposed Protective Order, as modified by deleting as unnecessary the language underscored in Paragraphs No. 4 and No. 6, above.

III.

Orders

THE COMMISSION ORDERS:

1. The Parties' Proposed Protective Order, submitted on August 20, 2009 and a copy of which is attached herein, is adopted, subject to the modifications to Paragraphs No. 4 and No. 6, as described above.

2. Paragraphs No. 4 and No. 6 are modified to read as follows:

4. A party to this proceeding may designate as confidential any information it believes, in good faith, contains trade secrets or other confidential research, development, commercial, financial, vendor, or bid information, including but not limited to cost support studies. Such information shall be protected against disclosure to a non-qualified person pursuant to the terms of this protective order, unless such information is declassified, or permission to disclose the information to such non-qualified person is granted by the party claiming confidentiality, as provided in paragraph 13 below.

6. Confidential information provided to the Commission or a party, orally or in any other form, shall be protected as fully as confidential information provided in written form. A party shall notify the Commission and the parties when information provided orally or in other than written form includes confidential information. At the time of such notification, a party shall, in the manner provided in paragraph 5 above, specify the subject-matter of such confidential information, the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and the cognizable harm to the producing party from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information.

STIPULATION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, on August 5, 2009, Hawaiian Electric Company, Inc. ("Hawaiian Electric" or the "Company") filed an application for Commission approval of a Power Purchase Agreement for As-Available Energy dated July 2, 2009, by and between Hawaiian Electric and Kahuku Wind Power, LLC ("Kahuku Power"), that is discussed in the Application and the exhibits to the Application. Copies of the application were served on the Division of Consumer Advocacy of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs (the "Consumer Advocate");

WHEREAS, the parties are aware that certain confidential and/or proprietary information in the form of negotiating positions, proposals, strategies, and/or technical and financial information has been supplied by Kahuku Power to Hawaiian Electric or by Hawaiian Electric to Kahuku Power in the normal course of business, and that said confidential and/or proprietary information may become part of the record in this proceeding;

WHEREAS, Kahuku Power could be competitively disadvantaged if its confidential negotiating positions, proposals, strategies, and/or technical and financial information are disclosed to its competitors;

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Electric maintains that the disclosure of certain negotiating positions or strategies could work to its competitive disadvantage in future Independent Power Purchase negotiations if other parties have access to that information;

WHEREAS, the Consumer Advocate is ex officio a party to this proceeding pursuant to the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Public Utilities Commission ("Commission");

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Electric maintains that certain information that is related to the security of the Company or the Company's facilities, that if disclosed publicly, could increase risk to the Company or Company's facilities, jeopardize its emergency and disaster preparedness plans, and/or adversely impact its ability to respond to potential terrorist threats;

WHEREAS, Hawaiian Electric is willing to disclose certain confidential information to the Commission and the Consumer Advocate, so long as the information is protected from further disclosure;

WHEREAS, the parties anticipate that during the course of this proceeding, information considered to be privileged or confidential by a party may be requested or filed;
WHEREAS, the parties desire to establish a set of procedures and provisions pertaining to the use and disclosure of information considered to be confidential and any information which any party may in the future contend to be confidential;

WHEREAS, the parties understand that during the course of the evidentiary hearing in this matter, if any, if it becomes necessary to address any information provided pursuant to this protective order during the course of the hearing, that portion of the proceeding will be heard in camera; and

NOW, THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, in accordance with Section 6-61-50 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Public Utilities Commission, that the Commission issue a protective order covering the confidential information identified in the course of the proceeding in connection with the Application, as follows:

TERMS OF THE ORDER

1. This protective order governs the classification, acquisition, and use of trade secrets and other confidential information produced by any party in this docket.

2. All parties or participants to all or any portion of this docket, including persons who are granted intervention or participation after the effective date of this protective order, shall be subject to this protective order and shall be entitled to all confidential information of a party or participant under the provisions of this protective order to the extent allowed by the Commission.

APPLICATION OF THE UNIFORM INFORMATION PRACTICES ACT

3. To the extent that any of the documents covered by this protective order consist of “government records,” as defined in Hawaii Revised Statutes (“HRS”) § 92F-3, the provisions of HRS Chapter 92F ("Uniform Information Practices Act" or "UIPA") shall apply to the disclosure of information contained in such documents. In the event any provision of this protective order conflicts with any provision of the UIPA, the UIPA shall control.

CLASSIFICATION

4. A party to this proceeding may designate as confidential any information it believes, in good faith, contains trade secrets or other confidential research, development, commercial, financial, vendor, or bid information, including but not limited to cost support studies. Such information shall be protected against disclosure to a non-qualified person pursuant to the terms of this protective order, unless such information is declassified, or permission to disclose the information to such non-qualified person is granted by the party claiming confidentiality, as provided in paragraph 13 below. In addition, a party may designate certain information as being confidential (e.g., assumptions used in calculating avoided costs) and reserve distribution to another specified party (not including the Consumer Advocate) by notifying the Commission, the Consumer Advocate, and the other parties in writing, setting forth with particularity the information to be kept confidential and not available to the other party. With respect to such confidential information, the party to whom such information is being withheld shall be treated as a non-qualified person from whom such information shall be protected against disclosure to in accordance with the terms of this protective order.

5. If a party designates information as confidential pursuant to paragraph 4 above or 6 below, it shall produce the confidential information in accordance with the procedures described in paragraphs 11 through 14 below, and concurrently provide certain information in writing to the Commission and the Consumer Advocate. If a party seeks to designate information as confidential, it must: (1) identify, in reasonable detail, the information's source, character, and location, (2) state clearly the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and (3) describe, with particularity, the cognizable harm to the producing party from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information. If the Commission or any party challenges the claim of confidentiality of the information, the party claiming confidentiality shall bear the burden of proof in supporting its claim of confidentiality, and the Commission will determine whether: (1) the information is confidential and subject to protection under this protective order, or (2) the challenged information must be disclosed by the producing party. Any challenge to the confidentiality of any information shall be made in accordance with paragraph 24 below.

6. Confidential information provided to the Commission or a party, orally or in any other form, shall be protected as fully as confidential information provided in written form. A party shall notify the Commission and the parties when information provided orally or in other than written form includes confidential information. At the time of such notification, a party shall, in the manner provided in paragraph 5 above, specify the subject-matter of such confidential information, the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and the cognizable harm to the producing party from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information, and the party shall, if applicable, reserve distribution to another specified party and set forth in particularity the information to be kept confidential and not available to the other party.
FORMS OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

7. All information claimed to be confidential information shall be subject to the terms of this protective order, and shall be treated by all qualified persons (as defined by this protective order) as constituting confidential information. Unless a different treatment is warranted, any notes, summaries, abstracts, or analyses that are prepared by counsel, experts, or other qualified persons, and that reflect the underlying confidential information, shall also be subject to the terms of this protective order.

DESIGNATION

8. Any party claiming that information is confidential shall place upon the applicable material the following legend:

CONFIDENTIAL
SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER

Whenever only a portion of a document, transcript, or other material is deemed to contain confidential information, the party shall, to the extent reasonably practicable, limit the claim of confidentiality to only such portion. However, if such limitation is not reasonably practicable, the entire document, transcript, or other material may be designated as confidential information.

9. With respect to any confidential information that is not under the control of the party claiming the information is confidential, other persons shall, to the extent requested by that party, cooperate to ensure that all copies of such confidential information bear the legend required in paragraph 8 above.

10. Any party may request the Commission to designate as confidential information any document or other information previously produced but not designated as confidential, provided that the party, in the manner provided in paragraph 5 above, specifies the subject-matter of such confidential information, the basis for the claim of confidentiality, and the cognizable harm to the producing party from any misuse or unpermitted disclosure of the information. In addition, the party claiming confidentiality shall substitute the previously-produced but not designated as confidential material with the identical material under designation as required in Paragraph 8 above.

DISCLOSURE

11. Except as provided in paragraph 13 below, confidential information shall not be made available or disclosed to any person who is not a “qualified person” as defined in paragraph 12 below.

12. “Qualified person” as used in this protective order, means any one of the following:

a. The author(s), addressee(s), or originator(s) of the confidential information;

b. The Commission, its staff, counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by the Commission in this proceeding;

c. The Consumer Advocate, its staff, counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by the Consumer Advocate in this proceeding;

d. Subject to paragraph 4 above, Hawaiian Electric, its officers and employees, its counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel) and any consultants retained by Hawaiian Electric for this proceeding;

e. Any other party or participant to this proceeding, its staff, its counsel (including employees directly employed by such counsel), and any consultants retained by it for this proceeding, to the extent allowed by the Commission;

f. Any other person approved by the party asserting the claim of confidentiality; and

g. Any other person designated as a qualified person by order of the Commission.

13. When a qualified person wishes to disclose confidential information to a non-qualified person, the qualified person must request permission from the party claiming confidentiality. The request shall identify the non-qualified person to whom disclosure is desired; disclose any past, present, or anticipated affiliation between the qualified person and the non-qualified person; specify the exact information to be disclosed; and state the reasons for disclosure. If permission is granted by the party claiming confidentiality, disclosure of the confidential information shall be made to such non-qualified person in the same manner as provided for qualified persons in paragraph 14 below.

PROCEDURE FOR OBTAINING ACCESS

14. Prior to disclosing confidential information to a qualified person other than the Commission and its staff and counsel, and the Consumer Advocate, its staff, and counsel, the qualified person shall read a copy of this protective order, complete a copy of the agreement attached as Exhibit A to this protective order, and sign the completed copy of the agreement. A copy of the executed agreement shall be delivered to the party claiming confidentiality and the Commission.

USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

15. Any confidential information obtained under this protective order shall be used solely in connection with this proceeding and any related administrative and judicial proceedings (at which time the information will continue to be treated as confidential), and shall not be used for any other purpose, including business, governmental or commercial purposes, or in any other administrative or judicial proceeding, except as provided in paragraphs 16 and 17, and except as may be directed by (a) an order of court, (b) an order of the Commission, and (c) the UIPA, including any ruling of the Office of Information Practices.

16. Any confidential information obtained under this protective order may be used by the Commission and its staff and counsel in any proceeding pending before the Commission involving the producing party, or where the intended use of such confidential information is for the purpose of assisting the Commission in fulfilling its statutory duties and responsibilities. The confidential information shall continue to be treated as confidential until the protection conferred by this protective order (or any other applicable protective order) is terminated by the producing party, or until further order of the Commission.

17. Any confidential information obtained under this protective order may be used by the Consumer Advocate, its staff, its consultant and its counsel in any proceeding pending before the Commission involving the producing party, or where the intended use of such confidential information is for the purpose of assisting the Consumer Advocate in fulfilling its statutory duties and responsibilities. The confidential information shall continue to be treated as confidential until the protection conferred by this protective order (or any other applicable protective order) is terminated by the producing party, or until further order of the Commission.

18. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, if a party desires to file written testimony, exhibits or pleadings that contain or reflect the confidential information, only that part of the page(s) containing or reflecting such information shall be treated as confidential, and that part of any hearing at which such information is discussed shall be held in camera, or under other conditions imposed by the Commission to prevent unnecessary public disclosure of such information. A copy of any confidential page, with any such information deleted, shall be filed to be included in the public record, and each such page shall contain the following designation in the upper left hand corner:

Confidential Information Deleted Pursuant To Protective Order, Filed on

RETENTION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

19. Confidential information shall be retained in a locked cabinet dedicated to the storage of confidential information, or otherwise secured to ensure that access to and disclosure of the confidential information is limited to a qualified person.
20. Confidential information that is given to or filed with the Commission or its staff and counsel shall be separately bound and placed in a sealed envelope or other appropriate sealed container on which shall appear the following legend:

    THIS ENVELOPE IS SEALED PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER IN DOCKET NO. __________, FILED ON __________, AND CONTAINS DOCUMENTS WITH CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. IT IS NOT TO BE OPENED OR THE CONTENTS OF THIS ENVELOPE DISPLAYED OR REVEALED EXCEPT TO QUALIFIED PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO INSPECT THE ENCLOSED DOCUMENTS.

21. Confidential information shall not be reproduced or duplicated, except to make working copies and copies to be filed with the Commission under seal. If a document contains information so sensitive that it should not be copied by anyone, it shall bear the following legend: “Copying Prohibited.”

22. If a court or other administrative agency requests, subpoenas, or orders production of confidential information that a party or person has obtained under this protective order, that party or person, prior to disclosure, shall promptly notify the party claiming confidentiality of the request, subpoena, or order.

DURATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

23. The confidentiality of the information produced pursuant to this protective order shall be preserved until all interested parties, by written stipulation, terminate the protection conferred by this protective order, or until further order of the Commission.

APPEAL TO THE COMMISSION

24. If any interested person disagrees with the designation of information as confidential, the party claiming confidentiality and the person so disagreeing shall first make a good faith attempt to resolve the dispute on an informal basis. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the person contesting the confidentiality of the information shall file a motion to compel disclosure or any other appropriate motion with the Commission. The party claiming confidentiality shall bear the burden of proof in supporting its claim, and the Commission will determine whether the information shall continue to be designated as confidential under this protective order. Pending a disposition of the motion, the information in question shall be treated as confidential information and shall not be disclosed except as permitted in this protective order.

NONWAIVER OF OBJECTIONS AND RIGHTS

25. The parties retain the right to contest any assertion or finding of confidentiality or of non-confidentiality.

26. The parties retain the right to question, challenge, and object to the admissibility of confidential information on the grounds of relevancy or materiality.

MODIFICATION OF THE PROTECTIVE ORDER

27. The Commission may modify this protective order on the motion of any party, or on its own motion, upon reasonable notice to the parties and an opportunity for hearing, or if modified by the parties in a written stipulation and approved by the Commission.

DISPOSAL OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

28. Except as provided in paragraphs 29 and 30 below, within 90 days after the conclusion of this proceeding, persons in possession of confidential information shall, at the option of the party producing the confidential information, return or destroy all such materials and all copies, notes, tapes, papers, or other medium containing, summarizing, excerpting, or otherwise embodying any confidential information. If the party producing the confidential information requests destruction, the person destroying the information shall certify its destruction to the producing party, indicating the name of the person destroying the documents, the method of destruction, and the identity of the specific documents destroyed.

29. Counsel and the representatives of record for a party shall be entitled to retain memoranda, pleadings, exhibits of record, written testimony, and transcripts embodying information derived from or incorporating confidential information to the extent reasonably necessary to preserve files on this proceeding. The files shall not be disclosed to any other person.

30. Confidential information produced in this proceeding shall remain in the possession of the Commission, the Consumer Advocate and counsel for the Consumer Advocate for the duration required by applicable statutes, rules and administrative directives.

SANCTIONS

31. Any person violating this protective order shall be subject to sanctions imposed by the Commission.
