REAL ESTATE ONLINE LICENSE RENEWALS

HONOLULU – The Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs (DCCA) encourages Hawai'i's more than 18,860 real estate professionals to renew their licenses online at pvl.ehawaii.gov/renewals.

Real estate professionals are required by state law to renew their licenses every two years. During the last renewal cycle in 2010, more than 16,400 licensees (about 97 percent) renewed their licenses online.

A renewal postcard notice with instructions for completing the online renewal have been mailed to each current license holder. The renewal application is also available online at <http://hawaii.gov/dcca/pvl/boards/real/> or can be obtained by contacting the licensing branch at (808) 586-3000. Application forms can also be picked up in person at:

DCCA
Professional and Vocational Licensing Division
335 Merchant St., Rm. 301
Honolulu, HI 96813

Neighbor island residents may call the following numbers followed by 6-3000 and the # sign:

Kaua'i: 274-3141
Maui: 984-2400
Hawai'i: 974-4000
Lana'i & Moloka'i: 1-800-468-4644 (toll free)

Online renewals will be accepted until midnight on December 31, 2012. After this date, renewals will not be accepted online, and persons wishing to renew their license must submit the forms by mail or in person.

This online service is part of the state's ongoing initiative to improve efficiency by implementing electronic government services and Gov. Neil Abercrombie's New Day Plan that aims to expand the state's technological capabilities in all sectors to create an environment in Hawai'i for businesses to thrive. The online renewal service was created through a partnership with the State of Hawai'i Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs Professional and Vocational Licensing Division and the state's Internet Portal Manager, Hawai'i Information Consortium.
