

CONSENT

The Real Estate Commission may use the following methods to evaluate the prelicense education / continuing education programs and to monitor compliance with prelicense education / continuing education rules.

1. Evaluations. The Commission may require that participant evaluation forms, provided by the Commission, be distributed to participants for purposes of evaluating the school / provider, instructor, and course. Schools / Providers will be responsible for obtaining, distributing, collecting, and returning the forms.
2. Drop-In Monitoring. Representatives of the Commission may attend courses on a drop-in basis. They will not register and no fees or reimbursements will be involved.
3. Investigative Monitoring. Representatives of the Commission may attend courses as a regular participant for the purpose of determining if the courses are being presented under statute, regulation, and Commission requirements. These representatives will not identify themselves as Commission representatives and will pay the required fees.
4. The Commission may, from time to time, request information regarding course offerings, attendance, examinations, and record keeping.

The undersigned acknowledges receipt and understanding of the procedures outlined above which relate to all approved prelicense education / continuing education course offerings.

I consent to inspection or monitoring by representatives of the Real Estate Commission. I agree to report any material changes in the information submitted at least 30 days prior to proposed use. I agree to retain complete records for at least three years for prelicense schools and at least four years for continuing education providers from the date of each course offering.

Signature of Administrator

Print Name

Date