ELECTIONS IN HAWAII

HAWAII VOTES BY MAIL

Beginning with the 2020 Elections, all registered voters will automatically receive their ballot at the mailing address associated with their voter registration approximately 18 days prior to election day. Polling places will no longer be established on election day.

The County Elections Divisions will establish voter service centers that will be open 10 business days prior to election day through the close of voting at 7:00 pm on election day. Voter service centers provide, among other things, accessible in-person voting and same day voter registration. Additionally, the County Elections Divisions may establish places of deposit for personal delivery of voted ballots beginning 5 business days prior to election day. In May 2020, the Office of Elections and County Elections Divisions will issue a joint election proclamation, to include the hours and locations of the voter service centers and places of deposit.

As 2020 is the first year we are conducting elections by mail here are tips for voters that are especially significant:

- · Keep your voter registration up to date
- · Request an absentee ballot if you will be off-island
- · Check for your ballot 18 days before Election Day
- Voting closes at 7:00 pm on Election Day

VOTER SERVICE CENTER ELECTIONEERING BOUNDARY

Campaign activities for the purpose of soliciting votes for or against any person, political party, or position on a question are prohibited within 200 feet from the perimeter of any voter service center, place of deposit, and its appurtenances. This includes the building in which the voter service center and place of deposit is located, any parking lot adjacent to the building and routinely used for parking at that building, routes of access between the building and any parking lot, and any route of access between any public thoroughfare and the building.

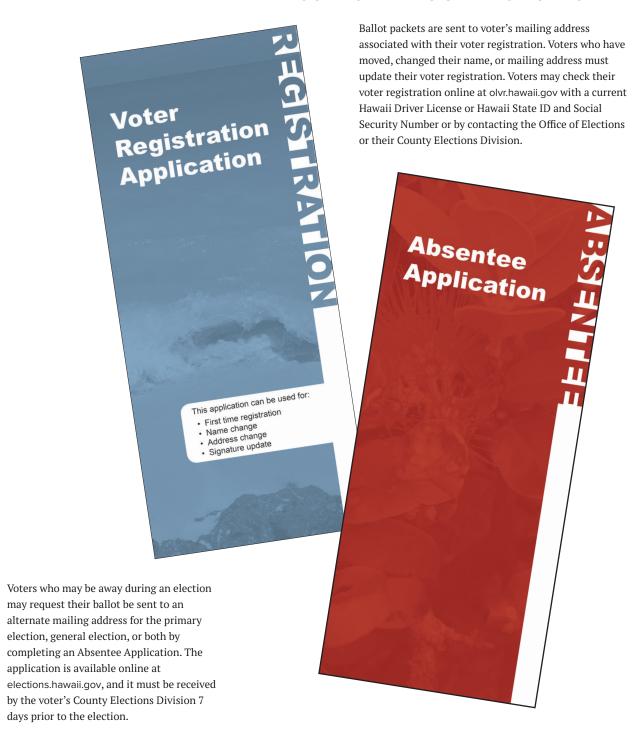

Any person who remains or loiters within the 200 foot electioneering boundary for the purpose of campaigning will be guilty of a misdemeanor. Campaign activities include distribution, circulation, carrying, holding, posting, or staking of campaign cards, pamphlets, posters, and other literature; use of public address system and other public communication media; use of motor caravans, parades, and entertainment troupes; and distribution of goods and services.

WATCHERS

Each qualified political party is entitled to appoint watchers to observe the conduct of the election at the voter service centers. There may be only one watcher per qualified political party in a voter service center at a time. Watchers must be registered voters in the State of Hawaii. They must not interfere with the activities of any voter or election official. Watchers will be given identification stating their name and political party they represent. Any violations of election laws observed should be reported to the respective Clerk of the voter service center.

KEEP YOUR VOTER REGISTRATION UP TO DATE

REQUEST AN ABSENTEE BALLOT IF YOU WILL BE OFF-ISLAND

CHECK FOR YOUR BALLOT 18 DAYS BEFORE ELECTION DAY

All registered voters will receive a mail ballot packet approximately 18 days prior to the election. The mail ballot packet contains a ballot, ballot secrecy sleeve, prepaid return envelope, and voting instructions.

Before voting, review the instructions, contests, and candidates on both sides of the ballot. A properly marked ballot counts 100% of the time. When marking the ballot, completely fill in the box to the left of your choice with a black or blue pen. If you change your mind or make a mistake, contact your respective County Elections Division for a replacement ballot. Do not use whiteout.

After voting the ballot, re-fold it and place it in the ballot secrecy sleeve. Place the ballot secrecy sleeve in the return envelope and sign the return envelope. Voters must sign the return envelope for the ballot to be counted.

VOTING CLOSES AT 7:00 PM ON ELECTION DAY

Voters may return their voted ballot by mail or in-person. Mailed voted ballots must be received by the County Elections Division by 7:00 pm on Election Day. If returned by mail within Hawaii, voters should send their voted ballot 2-3 days before Election Day to ensure it is received by the deadline. To return a voted ballot in-person, voters may visit a voter service center or place of deposit.

Upon receipt of voted ballots, County Election Officials conduct a signature validation. Voters' signatures are attached to their voter registration and used to validate their Return Envelope containing their voted ballot. County Election Officials match the signature required on the Return Envelope with the signature associated with the voter's registration.

After the signature is validated, the voted ballot is forwarded to State Election Officials to be counted. However, if County Election Officials find a discrepancy with a signature, as they are validating the Return Envelope, they will notify the voter. The voter will have 5 business days after the election to correct the issue before their ballot can be forwarded to State Election Officials to be counted.

VOTER REGISTRATION

The County Elections Divisions assign voters to a district/precinct based on their residence address. As voters move to a new residence, update their mailing address, or change their name, they must also update their voter registration to ensure they receive a ballot.

Voters can update their registration or register online at olvr.hawaii.gov with a Hawaii Driver License or State ID and Social Security Number. They may also submit a Voter Registration Application to their County Elections Division; or as they obtain or renew an ID card at the DMV.

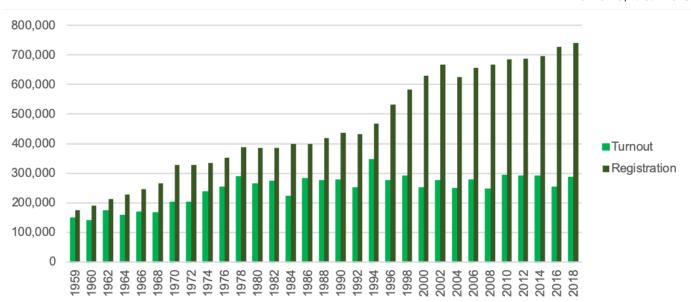

The qualifications to register to vote are 1) United States citizen; 2) resident of the State of Hawaii; and 3) at least 18 years of age. Hawaii laws allows qualified individuals to pre-register at 16 years of age, but their registration will not be effective until they turn 18 years old.

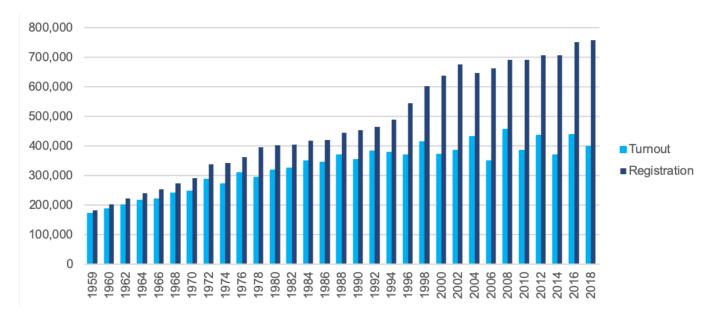

The deadline to register to receive a mail ballot packet is 30 days prior to Election Day. However, if the deadline is missed, voters may register and vote in the upcoming election at a voter service center. In any subsequent election, they will automatically be mailed a ballot.

VOTER DATA

Hawaii's voter registration data is an electronic file available for purchase, for election purposes only. Please contact your County Elections Division to request the voter registration data.

WHAT'S ON MY BALLOT?

The contests that appear on each voter's ballot is determined by their residence address provided on their voter registration application. There may be fewer contests on the general election ballot as a candidate may have won outright in the primary election.

PRIMARY ELECTION

The primary election nominates candidates to represent qualified political parties and nonpartisan candidates in the general election. The primary election replaces the traditional political party caucuses and conventions in which each political party chooses a slate of candidates to run in the general election. In the primary election, the voters, rather than the parties, choose the candidate who will run for office in the general election. Also on the ballot are the Office of Hawaiian Affairs (OHA) and county contests. This encompasses the nonpartisan OHA trustee, county mayor, county prosecuting attorney, and county councilmember contests.

Hawaii conducts a single-party primary election. All political preferences appear on the primary election ballot pursuant to the Hawaii State Constitution, Article II, Section 4, which states "Secrecy of voting and choice of political party affiliation or nonpartisanship shall be preserved". On the ballot, voters must select one political preference, and vote only for candidates of the selected political preference for partisan federal and state contests. The order political preferences appear on the primary election ballot is determined by lot pursuant to HRS §12-21, rather than alphabetically, so that there is an equal chance of a political party being listed first on the ballot. The political preference order includes each qualified political party and nonpartisan.

There is a header indicating each political preference section, as well as headers identifying OHA and county contests. When voting on the primary election ballot, voters must 1) complete the Select-A-Party contest by choosing a political preference; 2) locate the selected political preference on the ballot; 3) vote only for the candidates affiliated with the selected political preference; and 4) vote for the OHA and county contests.

PARTISAN CANDIDATES

Individuals who wish to appear on the ballot as a candidate of a specific political party must belong to a qualified political party in Hawaii. Currently, the Democratic, Green, Libertarian, and Republican parties are qualified in Hawaii. New political parties have until 4:30 pm on February 20, 2020 to file a petition to qualify for the 2020 Elections. Should additional parties become qualified, a revised list of parties will be available at elections.hawaii.gov.

The person(s) receiving the greatest number of votes at the primary election as a candidate of a party for an office shall be the candidate of the party in the general election, but not more candidates for a party than there are offices to be elected (HRS §12-41(a)).

NONPARTISAN CANDIDATES

Individuals not affiliated with any political party in Hawaii may run as nonpartisan candidates for any partisan office. To qualify for the general election, nonpartisan candidates must meet one of the following qualifications:

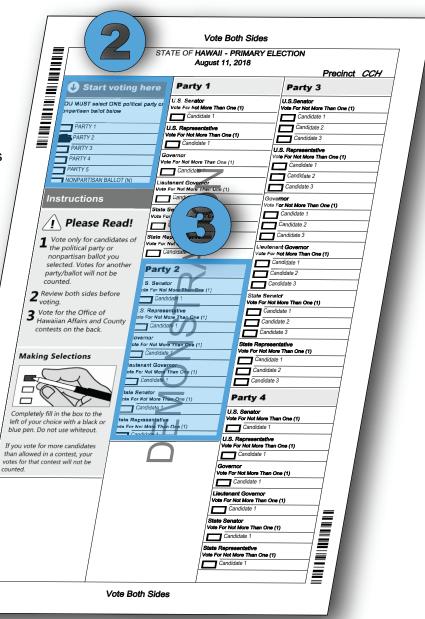

- Receive at least 10% of the votes cast for the office; or
- Receive a vote equal to or greater than the lowest vote received by the partisan candidate who was nominated.

If more nonpartisan candidates qualify to run in the general election than there are seats available, then the nonpartisan candidate who receives the most votes will appear on the general election ballot (HRS §12-41(b)).

Nonpartisan qualification provisions for the general election do not apply to candidates for OHA, County of Hawaii, County of Maui, County of Kauai, and City and County of Honolulu contests.

- Review both sides of ballot
- Select a party
- Vote only within the party selected
- All voters can vote for OHA and county contests

The order of offices and candidates on the ballot is determined by state law, HRS §§11-114 and 11-115. For the 2020 Elections, offices are listed in the following order:

President and Vice President (general election ballot only)

United States Representative

State Senator

State Representative

Office of Hawaiian Affairs

County Mayor

County Prosecuting Attorney

County Councilmember

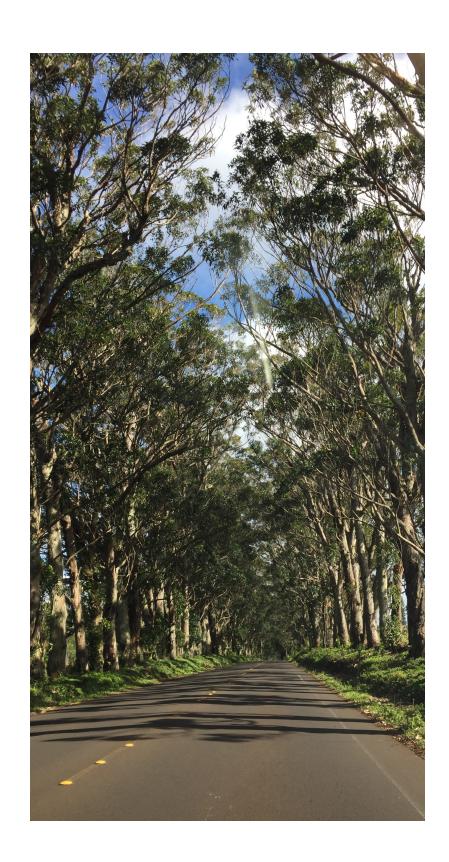

State Constitutional Amendment Question (general election ballot only)

County Charter Amendment Question (general election ballot only)

The names of candidates are placed on the ballot under their respective offices in alphabetical order by the candidate's last name except for those cases listed below.

Candidate Vacancies: The name of the replacement candidates shall be printed in an available and appropriate place on the ballot, not necessarily in alphabetical order.

Vice President: In the general election, the name of the candidate for Vice President shall be placed immediately below the name of the candidate for President of the same political party. The teams are placed on the ballot in alphabetical order by the last name of the candidate for President.

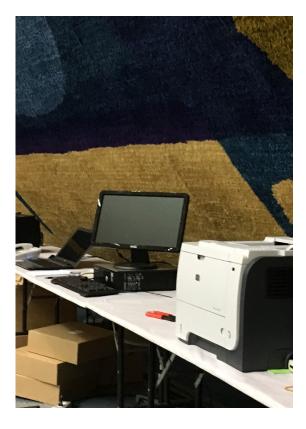

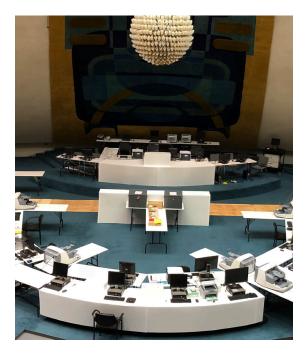

GENERAL ELECTION

The general election is held after the primary election to determine which of the candidates nominated will take office. The general election is a candidate contest, meaning voters select candidates regardless of political preference for partisan federal and state contests. Voters also select candidates for OHA and county contests.

Candidates for President and Vice President appear only on the general election ballot. Qualified political parties in Hawaii conduct presidential preference polls to determine the state's presidential choice to their national party. The state and national party will determine and submit their presidential nominees to our office to be placed on the general election ballot. Parties or groups not qualified in Hawaii nominate their candidates for placement on the general election ballot through a presidential petition process.

Constitutional amendment and charter amendment questions also only appear on the general election ballot. Constitutional amendments are proposed and submitted by the Hawaii State Legislature. There is no initiative process which would allow registered voters or citizen groups to propose and submit questions to amend the Hawaii State Constitution. Charter amendment and initiative questions are submitted by the respective County Clerk. State constitutional amendment questions are listed in the order provided by the Hawaii State Legislature. County charter amendment and initiative questions are listed in the order provided by the respective County Clerk.

2022 ELECTION CONTESTS

Based on the terms of office, in addition to the offices with 2 year terms, the following offices will be up for election in 2022.

United States Senator, 1 of 2 seats

Governor and Lieutenant Governor

State Senators, 25 of 25 seats

OHA trustee, Maui resident, Oahu resident, and the three (3) At-Large trustees

County of Maui, Mayor

County of Kauai, Mayor

City and County of Honolulu, Councilmember districts II, IV, VI, and VIII

GETTING RESULTS

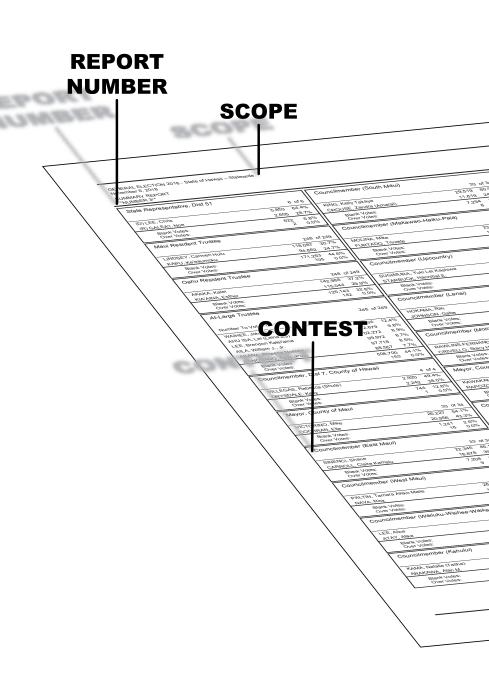

State election officials will post the results reports at elections.hawaii.gov after 7:00 pm on election day when all voter service centers have closed. At the close of voting, County election officials will collect voted ballots, from places of deposit and voter service centers, which will need to be validated through signature verification before being forwarded to State election officials at the counting center to open, count, and tabulate. The volume of voted ballots collected at the close of voting may delay the release of the result report. A final election day result report will be released for each county as they finish counting all validated voted ballots and a statewide final election day result report will be released once all counties are finished. The final election day results must be released by 6:00 am following the close of voting. The following reports are released:

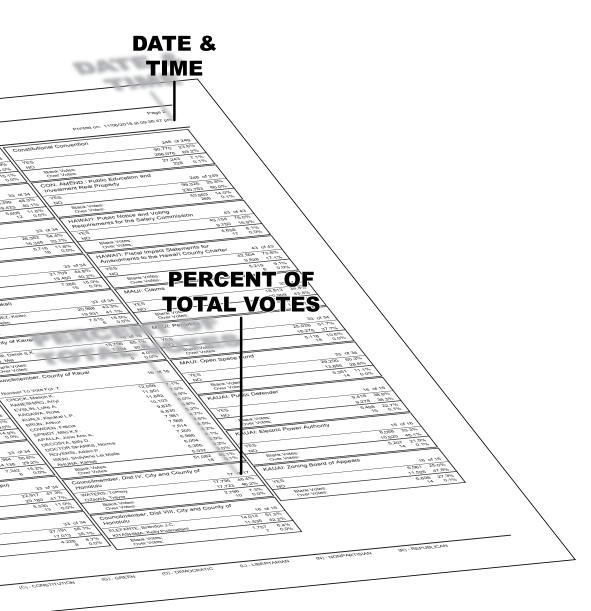

Statewide Summary is a compilation of contests

County Summary is reported for each of the four counties. It is a compilation of the contests in the specific county.

Statewide Precinct Detail is reported by district/precinct as well as the method of ballots cast - mail or voter service center.

Election day reports are preliminary results. Ballots may be counted within the election contest period such as ballots that require additional review by the County Elections Division or after audits and reconciliation. Subsequent reports will be posted at elections.hawaii.gov.

RECOUNTS

Act 135, Session Laws of Hawaii 2019 requires that an automatic recount is triggered if the difference between 2 candidates - who would qualify to appear on the general election ballot or would be elected, is 0.25% or 100 votes, whichever is greater. State election officials determine if any contest requires a recount and schedule dates and time for Official Observers to be present. The results of any recount must be released no later than 72 hours after the close of voting.

State election officials will notify the candidates, using the contact information provided at the time of filing, and political parties of the affected contest of the dates and time the recount will be conducted.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

RECEIVING AND FILING A NOMINATION PAPER

DO I HAVE TO PICK UP MY NOMINATION PAPER IN PERSON?

No, a candidate may authorize someone to pick up their nomination paper. The authorized person must be able to provide specific information about the candidate such as, legal name, date of birth, social security number, residence and mailing address, telephone numbers, and a contact person's name and phone number.

Once a nomination paper is issued, no alterations or changes will be made. If the information is incorrect, the nomination paper will not be accepted for filing.

WHY SHOULD I PICK UP MY NOMINATION PAPER IN PERSON?

When picking up a nomination paper, the person issuing the paper will explain the filing process and answer any questions you may have. As the candidate, you are responsible for complying with the filing requirements and understanding the applicable laws regardless of who picks up the nomination paper. If you are a first time candidate, we strongly recommend that you pick up your nomination paper in person.

CAN SOMEONE OTHER THAN MYSELF FILE MY NOMINATION PAPER OR CAN I MAIL IT IN?

Our laws do not prohibit a candidate from having another person file their nomination paper or from filing through the mail. However, we strongly recommend that you file your nomination paper in person to ensure that you fulfill all of the requirements. The nomination paper submitted by mail must be received by the candidate filing deadline, not post-marked.

Each candidate is required to sign many documents in the nomination process. If any document is incomplete, the problem can be easily rectified when a candidate files in person.

WHAT DO I NEED WHEN I COME IN TO FILE MY NOMINATION PAPER?

You will need the following items when you come in to file your nomination paper:

- Your original nomination paper containing at least the minimum signatures required;
- Your filing fee in the form of cash, cashier's check, certified check, or money order (candidates for federal or state office filing in the Counties of Hawaii, Maui, or Kauai are encouraged to pay by cashier's check, certified check, or money order).
 Personal or campaign checks will not be accepted;
- A notarized filed copy of the Affidavit to Voluntarily Agree with Campaign Expenditure Limits from the Campaign Spending Commission if you wish to qualify for the discounted filing fee; and
- A current identification containing your picture and signature (such as driver license or State ID) for the Oath of Loyalty/Affirmation. Check with the location before filing, as to whether a notary public or public officer authorized by law to administer oaths will be available.

CHANGES TO MY INFORMATION AND NOMINATION PAPER

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I DECIDE TO RUN FOR A DIFFERENT OFFICE OR UNDER A DIFFERENT POLITICAL PARTY?

If you wish to make any change on the nomination paper, you must request a new set. Do not alter any information on the nomination paper. A nomination paper that has been altered in any way will not be accepted for filing.

WHAT IF I CHANGE MY RESIDENCE ADDRESS AFTER I FILE MY NOMINATION PAPER?

Once you file you may not alter your nomination paper in any way. This includes changing the residence address listed on your nomination paper. Although we will not make a change directly on the nomination paper, we will attach your written notification of your change of address to your nomination paper.

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I LOSE MY NOMINATION PAPER?

If you lose your nomination paper, contact the office of issuance immediately. You must still acquire the required signatures and meet the filing deadline and requirements.

SIGNATURES

WHAT HAPPENS IF SOME OF THE PEOPLE WHO SIGN MY NOMINATION PAPER ARE NOT REGISTERED VOTERS. OR DO NOT LIVE WITHIN THE DISTRICT I SEEK TO REPRESENT?

Signatures of persons who are not properly registered to vote or who do not reside in the correct district will not be counted. The Office of Elections, or the County Elections Division, will verify that the people who sign your nomination paper are properly registered and eligible to sign your nomination paper before you file the nomination paper.

We strongly recommend that you obtain more signatures than required and file your nomination paper early to avoid the consequence of insufficient signatures. If you wait until the last day to file your nomination paper and the number of signatures, for any reason, is insufficient, you may not qualify to be a candidate. If you file early, and the number of valid signatures on your nomination paper is insufficient, you will have an opportunity to obtain additional signatures before the deadline.

WHAT HAPPENS IF MY NOMINATION PAPER DOES NOT HAVE THE REQUIRED NUMBER OF SIGNATURES OR ARE INCOMPLETE IN ANY WAY?

State law prohibits the chief election officer or clerk from accepting or filing any nomination paper that is incomplete or does not have the required number of valid signatures.

MAY I ADD ADDITIONAL SIGNATURES TO MY NOMINATION PAPER AFTER I FILE THEM?

No, once the nomination paper is filed you will not be allowed to alter it in any way. This includes adding additional signatures to your nomination paper. You are responsible for ensuring that the people who sign your nomination paper are qualified voters and reside in the correct district before they sign your nomination paper. Make sure your nomination paper contains the required number of signatures of qualified voters in the district before you file.

BALLOT NAME

MAY I CHANGE THE WAY MY NAME WILL APPEAR ON THE BALLOT AFTER I FILE MY NOMINATION PAPER?

No, once the nomination paper is filed you will not be allowed to alter it in any way. This includes changing the way your name will appear on the ballot as designated on your nomination paper. Make sure your name is spelled correctly before you file your nomination paper.

IN WHAT ORDER WILL CANDIDATE NAMES APPEAR ON THE BALLOT?

Our laws require that the names of the candidates shall be placed upon the ballot for their respective offices in alphabetical order by the candidate's last name except for those cases listed below.

Candidate Vacancies: The name of the replacement candidates shall be printed in an available and appropriate place on the ballot, not necessarily in alphabetical order.

Vice President or Lieutenant Governor: In the general election, the name of the candidate for Vice President or Lieutenant Governor shall be placed immediately below the name of the candidate for President or Governor, respectively, of the same political party. The teams are placed on the ballot in alphabetical order by the last name of the candidate for President or Governor, respectively.

POLITICAL PARTY AND NONPARTISAN

IF I AM RUNNING AS A PARTISAN CANDIDATE, BY WHAT DATE DO I HAVE TO BE A MEMBER OF THE POLITICAL PARTY?

You must be a member of the political party from which you seek office before you file your nomination paper. Our state law requires that you sign a certification, by self-subscribing oath, which states that you are a member of the specific party when you file your nomination paper. If you are not a member of the party when you file your nomination paper, you may be disqualified on that basis.

IF I RUN AS A NONPARTISAN CANDIDATE IN A PARTISAN OFFICE, WILL I AUTOMATICALLY GO ON THE GENERAL ELECTION BALLOT IF I WIN MY PRIMARY?

No, nonpartisan candidates who seek a partisan office must qualify to appear on the general election ballot. To qualify a nonpartisan candidate must:

- Receive at least 10% of the votes cast for the office; or
- Receive a vote equal to or greater than the lowest vote received by the partisan candidate who was nominated.

If more nonpartisan candidates qualify to run in the general election than there are seats available, then the nonpartisan candidate who receives the most votes will appear on the general election ballot.

The nonpartisan qualification provisions listed above do not apply to candidates for Office of Hawaiian Affairs (OHA), County of Hawaii, County of Maui, County of Kauai, or City and County of Honolulu.

CAMPAIGNING

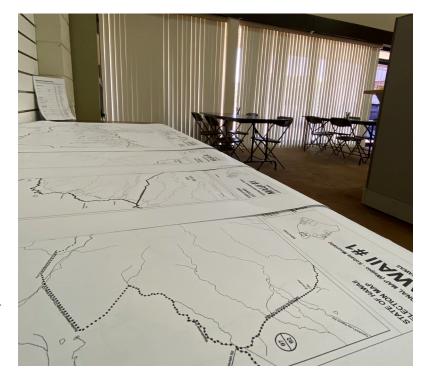

HOW CAN I GET A LIST OF CANDIDATES?

Lists of applicants and candidates are updated and available every Friday after close of business during the candidate filing period on the Office of Elections' website, elections.hawaii.gov.

WHERE CAN I GET PREPRINTED LABELS?

Preprinted mailing labels may be obtained for a fee from various service bureaus. The preprinted mailing labels may be obtained and used for election purposes only. Contact the County Elections Division to request the voter registration data.

CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU

Political campaign signs fixed to the ground or to a structure were prohibited under Section 21-3.90-2(d) of the Land Use Ordinance (LUO). This prohibition, however, was found unconstitutional by the courts and was repealed by the Council. Therefore, no regulation exists at present.

Signs identifying the campaign headquarters of a political candidate or issue are permitted, and are regulated as "business signs." Such signs must be located on the premise of the headquarters, and are subject to the LUO sign regulations regarding number, type, and size for the underlying zoning district (see Section 21-3.90-3).

Signs associated with campaign headquarters which are located in the following places are regulated:

- · On the lot outside the campaign office; or
- On the exterior face of the building where the campaign headquarters is located; or directly fixed to a window (inside or outside) of the campaign office when they can be seen from a public right-of-way or the parking lot of an adjoining lot.

Before installing a headquarters sign, it is necessary to obtain a sign permit issued by the Planning and Permitting Department located in the Honolulu Municipal Building. Detailed information on such signs and interpretation or clarification of the rules may be obtained over the business counter or by calling the Planning and Permitting Department, Permit Issuance Section, at 768-8000.

The LUO does not regulate advertisements fixed to a motor vehicle and political signs carried by individuals.

No person shall use any type of aircraft or other self-propelled or buoyant airborne object to display in any manner or for any purpose whatsoever any sign or advertising device. For the purpose of this section, a "sign or advertising device" includes, but is not limited to, a poster, banner, writing, picture, painting, light, model, display, emblem, notice, illustrations, insignia, symbol, or any other form of advertising sign or device.
