General Instructions

NOTE: Hawaii's laws that apply to a husband and wife, spouses, or person in a legal marital relationship shall be deemed to apply to partners in a civil union with the same force and effect as if they were "husband and wife," "spouses," or other terms that describe persons in a legal marital relationship.

Purpose of Form

Use Form N-110 to claim a refund on behalf of a deceased taxpayer.

Who Must File

If you are claiming a refund on behalf of a deceased taxpayer, you must file Form N-110 unless either of the following applies:

- You are a surviving spouse filing an original or amended joint return with the decedent, OR
- You are a personal representative (as discussed below) filing an original Form N-11 or N-15 for the decedent and a court certificate showing your appointment is attached to the return.

Example. Assume Mr. Green died on January 4 before filing his tax return. On April 3 of the same year, you were appointed by the court as the personal representative for Mr. Green's estate and you file Form N-11 for Mr. Green. You do not need to file Form N-110 to claim the refund on Mr. Green's tax return. However, you must attach to his return a copy of the court certificate showing your appointment.

Personal Representative

For purposes of this form, a personal representative is the executor or administrator of the decedent's estate, as certified or appointed by the court. A copy of the decedent's will cannot be accepted as evidence that you are the personal representative.

Additional Information

For more details, see Death of Taxpayer in the instructions for Form N-11 and N-15. See federal Publication 559, Survivors, Executors, and Administrators, for a discussion on this matter.

Specific Instructions

P.O. Box

Enter your box number only if your post office does not deliver mail to your home.

Foreign Address – If your address is outside the United States or its possessions or territories, enter the information in the following order: City, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Do not abbreviate the country name.

Line A

Check the box on line A if you received a refund check in your name and your deceased spouse's name. You can return the joint-name check with Form N-110 to the Department of Taxation. A new check will be issued in your name and mailed to you.

Line B

Check the box on line B only if you are the decedent's court-appointed personal representative claiming a refund for the decedent on an amended individual income tax return. You must attach a copy of the court certificate showing your appointment. If you have already sent the court certificate to the Department of Taxation, complete Form N-110 and write "Certificate Previously Filed" at the bottom of the form.

Line C

Check the box on line C if you are not a surviving spouse claiming a refund based on a joint return and there is no court-appointed personal representative. You must also complete Part II. If you check the box on line C, you must attach the proof of death. If you have already sent the proof of death to the Department of Taxation, complete Form N-110 and write "Proof of Death Previously Filed" at the bottom of the form.

The proof of death must be an authentic copy of either of the following:

- The death certificate, or
- The formal notification from the appropriate government office (such as, Department of Defense) informing the next of kin of the decedent's death.

State your relationship to the decedent in the space provided.

Example. Your father died on August 25. You are his sole survivor. Your father did not have a will and the court did not appoint a personal representative for his estate. Your father is entitled to a $300 refund. To get the refund, you must complete and attach Form N-110 to your father's final return. You should check the box on line C of Form N-110, answer all the questions in Part II, and sign your name in Part III. You must also attach a copy of the death certificate or other proof of death. In the space provided, state that you are the decedent's child.

Lines 1-3

If you checked the box on line C, you must complete lines 1 through 3 in Part II.
